Daily Line of Stages to ANNAPOLIS.

The subscriber thankful for that share of support which he has received from his friends and the community at large, in the line of his profession, and wishing to render his establishment more generally useful, has determined to run a daily line of Stages to and from Annapolis.

The carriages which will be employed in this attempt are his light close Coaches, which from their compactness will render those of his fellow-citizens who may incline to favour his attempt unusually comfortable.

The Coaches will start from the Shakespeare Tavern, Baltimore, at half past eight o'clock, EVERY MORNING, and going to Washington's Tavern, Sign of General Washington, Gay-street, & Barney's Fountain Inn, Light-street, arrive at Brewer's Tavern, Annapolis, to dine—returning, leave Brewer's Tavern, Annapolis, every morning, at half past eight o'clock, and calling at Mrs. Robinson's Boarding-house, arrive in Baltimore to dine.

Seats for Annapolis to be taken at the Shakespeare Tavern, corner of East and Lemon-sts, opposite the New Theatre—and in Annapolis, for Baltimore, at the Post Office, near Brewer's Tavern.

FARE THREE DOLLARS.
The public humble servant,
William Marks.

Dec. 11
By His Excellency, Charles Ridgely, of Hampton, Esquire, Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it appeareth unto me by an Inquisition taken before John Aisquith, Esquire, one of the Coroners of Baltimore county, that a most atrocious murder was committed on the person of a certain William Henry McCubbin, a citizen of the city of Baltimore, by some unknown person, on or about the twenty second day of October last, which Inquisition hath been returned to me accompanied by a memorial of sundry respectable persons, inhabitants of the city of Baltimore, praying the interposition of Government: And whereas, the quiet and security of the State depend on the vigilance of the constituted authorities in causing the laws against such enormities to be duly executed. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of Five Hundred Dollars to any person who shall discover the author or perpetrator of the aforesaid murder, provided he be brought to justice. Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

C. RIDGELY, of Hampt.
By His Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

Ordered, That the foregoing proclamation be published in the Maryland Gazette, Federal Gazette, Federal Republican, Frederick-town Herald, the Torch Light, Allegany Federalist, and Eastern Monitor.

NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

The Constitution of The Agricultural Society of Maryland.

1st. The society shall be styled, "The Agricultural Society of Maryland."
2d. Every member shall, on the first day of his admission, and also on the first day of every succeeding meeting in December, pay to the treasurer the sum of five dollars.
3d. That the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and standing committee, be annually elected, by ballot from among the members, at the meeting in December.
4th. That there be a standing committee of five, elected by ballot, from among the members, for the purpose of managing the affairs of the society, and it shall be the duty of this committee, with the president, or in his absence the vice president, to meet once a month in the city of Annapolis, to attend to the concerns of this society.
5th. That it shall be the duty of the secretary and treasurer to keep books, with fair and regular entries, of all the proceedings and expenditures of this society; and that the books, with the proceedings and expenditures, be laid before the members at each meeting of the society; but as the business will not be great for some time, it is proposed that the duties of treasurer be performed by the secretary.
6th. That the society shall meet twice a year in the city of Annapolis, viz. on the second Wednesday in June, and on the third Wednesday in December, at such hour and place as the standing committee may appoint, three weeks notice of which shall be given by the secretary in such news papers as he standing committee may think proper.
7th. That there be a committee of three elected by ballot, whose duty it shall be to receive communications upon subjects connected with the objects of the society, and correspond with other Agricultural Societies, or with those persons disposed to afford agricultural information.
8th. That so soon as the funds of the society shall be sufficient, premiums shall be offered for encouraging useful inventions, and improvements in agriculture, implements of husbandry, and domestic animals.
9th. That any member may propose amendments or alterations to any of the above rules and regulations of the society, and, if seconded by a member, such amendments or alterations, shall be received and read, and called up before the society at the next meeting thereafter, when, if approved by two thirds of the members present, they shall be adopted as a part of the rules and regulations of this society.
10th. That at all meetings of the society the president shall exercise the usual duties of that office, all motions shall be addressed to him, and on all questions he shall collect and declare the votes.
Ordered, That the Constitution be published once a week for three weeks in the two news papers in the city of Annapolis.
The society adjourned to meet on the second Wednesday in January 1818, at Mr. William Brewer's tavern, at 4 o'clock.
HENRY MAYNADIER, Presd.
RICHARD HARWOOD, of Thos. Secretary.

TAVERN.

REZIN D. BALDWIN,
Respectfully informs the public, that he has opened a Tavern and Boarding-house, at that well known stand occupied for many years by Capt. James Thomas. Its vicinity to the Stadt-House will at all times render it the most convenient resort to strangers having business to transact in any of the public offices. Those who may be inclined to patronize the establishment are assured that the best accommodations are provided, and the most unremitting attention shall be paid to his guests. This establishment having been always the resort of gentlemen from the Eastern Shore, it is hoped that they will continue to frequent it, and so far as attention, good fare, and moderate rates, can support the character of an establishment so well known, he pledges himself they shall not be wanting. Boarders taken by the day, week, month or year, and horses taken at liberty.
N. B. Private parties can be accommodated with Terrapins or Oysters at the shortest notice.

A. Gambrell,
By His Excellency, Charles Ridgely, of Hampton, Esquire, Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it has been represented to me, that Girard Morris and Dickerson D. Mezick, who had been sentenced by the Court of Somerset county at September term last, to seven years confinement in the Penitentiary for kidnapping, made their escape from the goal of the said county, on Sunday the sixth day of October eighteen hundred and seventeen. And whereas it is the duty of the Executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavour to bring all malefactors to justice. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of Three Hundred Dollars to any person or persons who shall apprehend and deliver to the Sheriff of Somerset county either of the said persons, or Six Hundred Dollars for both. Given under my hand and the Seal of the State of Maryland, this third day of November, eighteen hundred and seventeen.
