> From the Boston Pulladium of Jan. 9. VERYLATE FROM ENGLAND By the ship Falcon, capt. Lewis. which arrived yesterday in 28 days from Liverpool, we received London papers to the 24th Nov. and were favoured by Mr. Topliff and other friends with them to the 26th, and Liverpool papers to the 28th. The funeral or the Princess Charotte of Wales took place in the evening of the 19th Nov. It was attended by a long procession, and concluded with a funeral service. The body of the Princess was placed in a mahugany coffin, that inclosed in one of lead, which was put in an outer coffin of mahogany, covered with crimson velvet, and formed into pannels with white plated nails, the lining of white satin. An urn containing the heart of the Princess was placed in a mahogany case. The coffins of the infant were like those of the parent. The principal Prelates of the Church of Englandhave paid visits of condolence to the Prince Ragent and Prince Leopold-and funeral sermons have been delivered in nearly all the places of divine worship; and the day of the funeral was marked in most of the towns with appropriate ceremonies.

Addresses of condolence are presented from many towns, &c. in England, to the Prince-Regent, on account of the irreparable loss he and the nation have sustained ...

Tris proposed in England to erect, by public subscription, a monument to the memory of the deceased Princess. This idea was noticed in the following lines:

Raise not an Urn of sculptur'd art, That perisheth with years! Her Monument's each British Heart!

Her Epitaph-their Tears!

At Paris, on the day of the funeral of the Princess Charlotte, all the English there shut themselves up in their apartments.

A funeral service was afterwards performed by the English Catholics in Paris. The French court ordered mourning to be worn 11 days. It is asserted that only one woman in 50 000 dies in child birth. The three persons nearest the British throne, being married and having children, are King of Wirtemburg, Prince Paul his brother. and the Princess Frederica Buonaparte, their sister, wife to Jerome Buonaparte. An English letter says there have been warm deb wes in the Frenth chamber of deputies. Mr. Bignon proposed to inform the king of the impossibility under which France lay, of paying the imposts of 1818; and to pray him to require that the allied troops should evacuate France. These propositions were rejected. Mr. Laine sate the demands of foreign powers were constantly in creasing we must rid parselves of such insatiable oppressors." These expressions were reproved as indiscreet. The French funds are a little depressed. They fluctuate between 64 and 65, owing to the foreign claims. A new law on the therty of the press is before the least ture, and expected to pass, but it is not astisfactory to all.

NORTH-WEST PASSAGE. It is said that a vessel is to be fitted out for the puspose of attempting again the north west passage, the season being considered as peculiarly favourable to such an expedition Our readers need not be in-formed, that larger masses of ice than ever were before known, have this year been seen floating in the Atlantic, and that from their magnitude and solidity, they reached even the 40th latitude before they were melted in a fluid state. From an examination of the Greenland captains, it has been found that owing to some convulsions of nature, the sea was more open and free from compact ice than in any former voyage they ever made; that several ships actuarly reached the 84th degree of latitude, in which no ice whatever was found; that, for the first time for 400 years vessels penetrated to the west coast of Greenland, and that they apprehended no obstacle to their even reaching the Pole, if it had consisted with their duty tot heir employers to make the attempt.

This curious and important information has, we learn, induced the Royal Society to apply to Ministers to renew the attempt of exploring a north west passage, as well as to give encouragement to refishing vessels to try how tar northward they can reach by dividing the bounty to be given, on the actual discovery, into portions as a reward for every degree beyond 84 that they shall penetrate.

To the Editor.— oserved in the Compiler of this morning, a notice, stating that Mr. Lorenzo Dow would preach in the Methodist Old Town Chapel on Thursday next; you will please inform the public through the same medium, that Mr. Daw will not be permitted to scu-py the Methodist pulpits in Richmond. I therefore recal that ap-pointment. There will be no service at that hour on that day. Mr. Dow's clownish manners, is heterodox and schismatic precedings, and his reflections against the Methodist Episcopal Church, in a late production of his, on church government, (which are viewed as so vernment, (which are viewed as so many slanders) are impositions on common sense, and furnish the principal reason why he will be discountenanced by the Methodists.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it ppears by the deposition of Joseph Steuart, Reger Woolford, James Marstall, & Wm. Jones, of Dorchester courty, that about two o'clock on Friday the twenty-seventh of November last, a fire broke out in the store-house of the said Steuart, which entirely gonsumed it, and that they have strong reason to believe it had been set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons. And whereas it is of the greatest importance to society, that the per-petrator or perpetrators of such a crime should be brought to condign punish ment, I have therefore thou it proper to issue this my Proclamation and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of One Hundred Dollars, to any person who shall discover and make known the author or perpetrators of the said offence, provided he, she or they, or any of them, be brought to justice.
