May 1. ANOTHER INDIAN BATTLE. Copy of a letter from Gen. Wm. M'-Intosh, commanding the Creek warriors, to D. B. Mitchell, esq. agent for Indian affairs.

Camp 30 miles from Michauskie, (on the way to Suwanne,) 13th A

SIR-Since I haveleft you I have not sent you a talk of what we have done, and I now send you this. I heard yesterday of Peter M'Quin being near the road we were travelling, and I took my warriors and went out and fought him .--There seemed to be a considerable number collected there. When we first began to fight them, they were in a bad swamp, and fought us there for about an hour-when they ran and we followed them three miles. They fought us in all about three hours. We killed 37 of them, and took 98 women and children and six men prisoners, and about 700 head of cattle and a number of horses, with a good many hogs and some corn. We lost 3 killed and had 5 corn. wounded .- Our prisoners tell us that there was 120 warriors from six different towns. From what we saw, I believe there was two hundred of them. Tom Woodward* & Mr. Brown, and your son our agent, and all the white men that live in our country, were with us through the whole fight, and fought well. All my officers fought so well I do not know which is the bravest. They all fought like men and run their enemies. Gen. Jankson waited for us about six miles from where we fought. After the fight I went and joined him, and we are going this morning to fight the negroes together. They are at Suwannee, and we shall be there in four days. There was among the hostiles a woman that was in the boat when our friends the white people were killed on the river below Fort Scott. We gave her to her friends-her husband and father are with Gen. Jackson--- Maj. Kinnard took her himself. This is all I have to tell you. I wish you would send a copy of this to the Big Warrior and Little Prince.

Your Friend, WM. M'INTOSH, Brig. Gen. Comm'd C. W. * Maj. Woodward of Baldwin.
