defective from the dry rot, &c. that undergo a thorough repair before they can proceed to S. America, the contagion had penetrated to the Milledgeville, (Geo.) May 5.

LATE FROM THE ARMY.
The army under Gen. Jackson is arrived at Suwanney, 107 miles from St. Marks, on the 16th of last month.
The Indians, being apprised of the approach of our troops, had removed their women and children, and many contradictory statements. It is asserted, and so far as we have heard it expressed, public opinion favours the belief, that the town destroyed was friendly; and some of our warriors are stated to be now with the army under General Jackson.
We are authorised to state, that the Executive has been long since convinced, by information derived from respectable sources, of the

They were pleased, as far as I know, of provisions would permit, without effect. Corn, staves, and other property to a large amount was destroyed, and the town, handsomely situated and supposed to contain 600 huts, reduced to ashes. A schi-m with a valuable cargo of goods consigned to Arbuthnot, who had a store at Suwanney, was lying a short distance below—a detachment had been sent to take possession of her, and little doubt was entertained of success, though the fact had not transpired when our informant left Camp. The army on its way down, fell in with a small wandering party of the enemy; one was killed and three made prisoners. During the whole time, the whites sustained no loss, although they suffered greatly from hunger, fatigue and want of clothing, many of them being barefooted.

The Georgia troops took up the line of march for home on the 20th, and is expected arrived at Hartford yesterday, where they will be forthwith mustered and discharged.
The principal part of the friendly Indian warriors have also returned, with positive orders from General Jackson to destroy Hopanunay's town on Flint river against which the Governor authorized the attack that mistake was made on Chehaw. Gen.
Jackson, with the regulars, Tennessee volunteers, and a few friendly Indians, has gone to Pensacola, of which place it is understood immediate possession will be taken.
Swing garrisons are left at St.
Marks, Fort Gadsden and Fort Scott.

The Indians, though routed and dispersed, are not, we apprehend, effectually subdued. We understand, owing to unhealthiness of that part of Florida in the summer, hostilities will cease till fall, when they will probably be renewed. To ensure peace from these savages hereafter, a lasting impression must be made upon their fears, which can be accomplished only by severe chastisement.

The gentleman to whom we are indebted for the above information states, that on his return from the army he has passed through a part of the Chehaw settlement lately destroyed, and saw and conversed with some of the Indians who had escaped. They were still much alarmed and expressed great surprise at the attack upon their town, having they say always been friendly. We are gratified to learn that they estimate their loss in killed at only 10 or 12 —and that they do not intend to retaliate, but mean to rely for reparation on the known generosity and magnanimity of our government.

Extracts of a letter from Major General Jackson to Governor Rabun, dated Bowlegs-town, Suwanney, 20th April, 1818.
Sir,
"I have reached and destroyed this and the other town in its vicinity, and having captured the principal excitors of the war, I think I may safely say, that the Indian War, for the present, is terminated. This happy circumstance enables me to dispense with the further services of the Brigade of Georgia Militia, commanded by Brigadier Gen. Glasscock, and at their solicitation, have ordered them directly to Hartford, to be mustered, paid and discharged.
"The last campaign has consisted more of rapid movements and manoeuvring than of hard fighting; but from every occurrence, I have the utmost confidence, that in the event of a hard fought action, every officer and soldier under my command would have sustained the true American character, and have realized the best hopes of their country."

I have the honour to be, very respectfully, your most obedient servant,
ANDREW JACKSON,
Major Gen. Comd'g.

Expedition against the Chehaws.
The official account of this expedition has been received, and will be found below. Respecting its posibility, there are various opinions; & with regard to its tragical result, many contradictory statements. It
son.
We are authorised to state, that

hostile disposition of the Indians living in the neighbourhood of Fort Early, on the Flint river. Particularly those under the influence of the Chiefs Rejames and Hopanunay.
To quiet the apprehensions of the frontier, and prevent depredations in future, Capt. Wright of the militia stationed at Hartford, with such volunteers as he could assemble, was directed by the Governor to chastise the towns above named.
Unfortunately, the detachment it is believed was misled, either by the ignorance or design of the guides, and fell on the old Chehaw Town (supposed to be friendly) which was laid in ashes, and many of its wretched inhabitants put to death.

Hartford, (Ga.) April 25, 1818.
His Excellency Governor RABUN; Sir—I have the honour to inform you that agreeable to your orders, I took up the line of march from this place on the 21st instant, with Captains Robinson's and Roger's companies of mounted gun-men, Captain Dean's and Child's infantry, together with two detachments under Lieutenants Cooper & Jones, Captain Thomason acting as Adjutant, in all about 270 effective men.
On the night of the 23d, I crossed Flint river, and at day break advanced with caution against the Chehaw Town. The advance guard, when within half a mile of the town, took an Indian prisoner, who was attending a drove of Cattle, and on examination, found some of them to be the property of a Mr. McDuffy (who was present) of Tellico county.

The town was attacked, between 11 and 12 o'clock, with positive orders not to injure the women or children, and in the course of two hours, the whole was in flames; they made some little resistance but to no purpose.
From the most accurate accounts, 24 warriors were killed, and owing to the doors of some of the houses being inaccessible to our men, and numbers of guns being fired at us through the crevices, they were set on fire; in consequence of which, numbers were burnt to death in the houses; in all probability from 40 to 50 was their total loss. Some considerable number of warriors made their escape, by taking to a thick swamp; a very large parcel of powder found in the town was destroyed. It is supposed their chief is among the slain. The town is laid completely desolate, without the loss of a man. We re-crossed the Flint to Fort Early the same evening, making a complete march of 31 miles (exclusive of destroying the town) in 24 hours.

The conduct of the officers and soldiers on this occasion, (as well as on all others) was highly characteristic of the patriotism and bravery of the Georgians in general.
I am, sir, with respect, your most obedient humb. serv't.
OBED. WRIGHT,
Capt. Geo. Drafc. Militia, Comd'g.

DIRECTOR OF FASHION.
Wear your hair thick, especially if it be gracefully curled over every part of your head by a fashionable barber, and bathed in perfumed oil—As the folding and tying neck-handkerchiefs are troublesome, put on but one, and let it be starched as stiff as sole leather—take this fashionable cravat, and ply it like corsets round your throat; when it will have the double effect of keeping your head up, and give your cheeks a constant colour, by preventing a free circulation of blood.

Pantaloon being very inconvenient articles in summer time, you should have them to come about half way between the knee and in-step—at the same time so large, that should you grow fleshy, as is very probable in this luxurious age, you need not cast them off, or, as is to be feared, when times change and money becomes scarce, you can have two pair cut out of the same piece of cloth.
Have a surtout with as much cloth over and above what is necessary, or comfortable, as would make a holy day suit for a boy of ten years old—this gives you manifold advantages—the most prominent of which, is, that it promotes domestic manufactures, i. e. if made of American cloth—in dry weather it will keep your boots clean, and will drive flies and mosquitos from your feet in dog days. You should also have a small binding of black velvet, instead of a collar.
