stoga coverings and in carrying r pots on top of them, we must nd for our right of wearing icoat pantaloons"-& I would complaisantly suggest that if desire to criticise or to influischief!—It appears as if fate against me!" nuse words of the good old lady occur as I view the "passing gs of the times." When I see ung man whose finances are lid, but whose pride knows no ids, dash in a gig through the ets at the expense of his own tation and the purse of his aim with my grandmother-"O he other day as I was carelessly bling thr ugn the fields of farm-I shbins, I espired, seated in a e corner, a youth, whose bloomcheeks scarce spoke him twenne. He was the victim of disointed love! Sympathy for his regular lines and coming upon this when ation prompted a tear, and I was ever the meeting of the legislature, or he ed upon, as it were, by a natureeling, to repeat the favourite ng of the old lady-"O misewas night, the sun had scarce k beneath the horizon, as I viewnumber of young men repairing neighbouring ale house, for the pose, as they said, of passing aa few hours in social char, glee hilarity! Next morning as I traversing the field in search of y health, my cars were saluted the report of a pisto! I flew to spot from whence it emanated. beheld one of these same young n extended on the ground a lifecorpse! In his hands he held a et with the following words:

l am a gambler!-At play last ht I lost my all, beggared my wife I family, and unable to witness ir distress and misery, have flew the face of heaven's great decree raken my own life!—Pity and for-

As I perused these few linescted upon an act so hostile and diametrically opposed to " nature d to nature's God," and drew a mparison betwixt his situation en and that of the evening before, ould not help sighing forth-"O sery!"

When I see a woman who is the other of a family-to whom the nder offsprings of her bosom look to for precept and examples, and no prides herself upon the sweetss of her disposition and affabiliof her manners always growling, umbling and destroying and ruf-ng the temper of her husband, 1 y out at once, as did my old relave-"O misery!"

When I see a young girl desirous procuring a husband, intent only on fixing her ruffles, gowns and onnets, and neglecting every other art of her duty. I again say as the d lady. did-" O misery!"

In fact upon every occasion of nis nature, we might correctly use hese words, and as applicably as re use our hands in the discharge f the duties of the table. NICODEMUS.

NOTICE.

.The Levy Court of Anne-Arundel County, will meet on the second Monay of August next, in the city of An-

By order, Wm. S. Green, Clk.

George & John Barber,

Desirous of accommodating their fresh and the public, have it considerable expension to the public and equipped new vessels for the expression of the expres place every Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, and every Wednesday and Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

at 9 o'clock.

They will continue to perform, for their steady friends and supporters, all business with which they may be entrusted; but to avoid being injured by mistakes, must decline holding themselves respons ble for letters, or any thing which they may be said ters, or any sums varies may may be said to contain.

They keep as a Daouzza large, and built Schooner, which will take freights to any place on the Chesapsake Bay-she is the charge of captain Spencer, a careful at experienced skipper. Persons wishing u employ her are requested to make application at either of their stores situate near the dock.

We will embrace this opportunity of atticing the illiberal treatment which we have received from the few of our fellow eithers. teceived from the lew of our tellow titisms who are so blind to the wel are of Anappolis, which should ever have a line of Packets of her own, as diligently to contenance the interference of strangers with our line, and who carry their hostility to wards us so far, as when called from host should be so in preference to some with meaning the strangers. themselves in preference to going with as, to give more than our price for a passage, to to give mere than our price for a passage, to go with those whose interests are by no means connected with Annarolis; with those who live in a town which has tree been inimical to her, and who it is likely would, if our vessels were taken from the line, and it should happen no longer to sail take their's off likewise, and thus leave the citizens of this place destinte of a wag carriage to Baltimore But what main the treatment, of which we complain, as pear in our view so very ungenerous, it that the very persons who thus aid our op-ponents, have, when it was needful to the elres, requested us to transact businession them in Baltimore—a thing we have never refused to do, though we have never soled or received compensation for the Such conduct, then, the candid and unpre judiced must agree with us, is illiberal, at we now inquire, whether any man o. and or feeling, would, after patiently submide to it more than twelve months, contina to it more than twelve months, conting to perform the unprofitable jobs of time, who thus throw their profitable ones into the hands of others? We think there are none who would; and in future it need on he expected of us. The profits of our lime have arisen principally from the passure money, and not from the cost of freight. But even the receipts for passages begants be much abridged nearly three years ago, by the Baltimore steam boats forsaking their the Baltimore steam boats forsaking their sitting of the courts of appeals and chancer, made it necessary for strangers to visit the city It has been said that we ought to pro-cure a Steam-Boat—this would no doubt in highly gratifying to the public, to whom we must say we are grateful for past encourage went, and to please whom we would n hesitate to do any hing consistent with right and our own salety; but when we take not consideration the first cost o such an esu lishment, the extensive patronage which would be necessary to support it, and the present unprofitableness of the line o Pathets between this and Baltimore, we are brought irresistably to conclude that such step, on our part, would be nothing shortd foolishly dissipating & wasting the earning of our past lives, and sealing the ruin of our selves and our families. Let those who have inconsiderately talked of what we ought to do, bear in mind, that the abolition of the general court, the aking of the fands fros the College, and the late act altering the time of the meeting of the General Assemble, from a season of the year when the weather is usually element, and our Packets in running, to a time when they are laid oper account of its tempestuousness, hare leaded to reduce the receipts of the line so law up be little more than sufficient to deny the expense attendant upon it, and not compensate us for the sacrifice of our time, which we might frequently imply it. time, which we might frequently embediance with time, which we might frequently embediance profitable pursuits. If there are and examine our books for the two key years, and then if they find what we keep years, and then if they find what we keep years, and then if they find what we keep years, and then if they find what we keep years, and then if they find what we keep years, and then if they find what we keep years, and then if they for a Steam-Roat has lead them to take they would be not a proportionate part of the cost of building arounding such a vessel, we will contain unite with them in putting one grown in line. If there are none such to be four because of the great hazard and dragger the undertaking, we hope that all cases against us, for not doing so without asses ates, will cease, and that our business and suffer any declension on that account whenever Annapolis improves so far supprojects support adequate to the enterprise that we will furnish ourselves with a step peake; and until such time arrives, so me sonable man ought overpectur, alous, the sonable man ought over the s

Wheeler & Weedon,

Respectfully inform the public, they have commenced the Cabiest Making, Carpentering, Upholstring Curtain Hanging and Papering Bostoness, at their shop nearly opposite the Post Office, in this city. They sold a share of public patronage, and all who may favour them with snore agement, that every exertion will used to give satisfaction. They attend at the residence of all course gentlemen who may want work in either of the two last lines on the notice, and perform their work and derate terms, and with neatness. derate terms, and with neathers Annapolis, June 25. 2 despstch.

MARYLAND GAZETTE AND POLITICAL INTELLIGENCER.

ter into any such house or place where such slave or slaves may be, and to demand of the person or persons in whose custody the said slave or slaves may be, an inspection and examination of said slave or slaves, and also of the bills of sale for them respectively, and if upon such demand and examination no bill or bills of sale are produced for either or any such slave or slaves, or if the bills of sale produced shall not have been executed, acknowledged and recorded, agreeably to the provisions herein contained, that the description of any such slave or slaves shall he, in the judgment of such judge or justice of the peace false or fraudulent.

then it shall he the duty of such judge or justice of the peace to cause such slave or slaves, for whom no bill of sale is produced, or for whom a file or fraudulent hill of sate is produced, to go before some judge or justice of the peace of the county afore-aid, and the person or persons who has or have said slave or slaves in possession shall also appear, &enter into a recognizance hefore the same judge or justice of the peace, with two sufficient securities in the sum of one thousand dollars, for every such servant or slave in his, her, or their possession, without bills of sale as is herein provided for, to appear at the next county court to answer to the petition of said slave or slaves; and if such judge or justice shall have reason to suspect that such slave or slaves have been stolen by such person or persons, or received by them knowing them to be stolen, or that they had knowingly aided therein, in such cases the recognizance shall provide for then answering such offence; and if such person or persons, so having such slave or slaves, shall refuse or neglect to enter into such recognizance, then such judge or justice of the perce shall commit said person or persons, and such slave or slaves, to the gaol of the county; and the said judge or justice of the peace shall make return of said commitment to the county court, or Baltimore city court if then in session, and if not in session then to the next term of said courts respectively; or if such person, having entered into such recognizance, shall refuse to appear a greeably thereto, or it having appeared it shall appear that such slave or slaves is or are entitled to freedom, then the court shall adjudge them free, and it said court shall adjudge them to be slaves for life, or for a term of years, and it shall appear that said slave or slaves shall have been purchased with intent to remove them from the state of Maryland, and no bill of sale for the same shall have been taken for such slave or slaves, or a false or fraudulent bill of sale: then the said court shall order such slave to be sold for the time such slave may have to serve, for the benefit of the county, or for the mayor and city council of Baltimore, if the aforesaid proceedings should be had in Baltimore city court; but if any slave or slaves, after a term of years.

or upon any contingency, then the said servant or slave shall become imme diately the right and property of the said person entitled to such reversion or remainder, in the same manner as if the event or time in which the reversion or remainder was to accrue had actually occurred; Prov ded, that the said person, so entitled to the reversion or remainder, shall pay the costs of the proceedings which may the said servant or slave shall be sold for the use of the county, or the mayor and city council of Baltimore, for the time he or she may have been bound to serve the person who sold said servant or slave; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to the case of any citizen removing from the state of Maryland with his servants and slaves, provided such citizen shall have resided within the state one year next preceding such removal, or to any person travelling with his or her servants or slaves in or through the state, not purchased with intent to export the

6. And be it enacted, That hereaf.

ter when any servant or slave shall be committed to the gaol of any county in this state, as a runaway, agreeably to the laws now in force, and the notice re quired to be given by law by the sheriff shall have been given, and the time for their detention expired, and no person or persons shall have applied for and claimed said suspected runaway, and proved his, her, or their title to such suspected runaway, as is now required by law, it shall be the duty of the sheriff forthwith to carry such slave or slaves before some judge of the county court, or judge of the orphans court, with his commitment, and such judge is hereby required to examine and inquire, by such means as he may deem most advisable, whether such suspected runaway be a slave or not.

and if he shall have reasonable grounds to believe that such suspected runs way is a slave, he may remand such same within the meaning of this act.

have been had in the case, otherwise

[VOL. LXXVI.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, JULY 9. 1818.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED

JONAS GREEN, CHURCH-STREET, ANNAPOLIS.

Price-Three Dollars per Annum.

IN COUNCIL.

March 18, 1813. Ordered. That the Act passed at cember session eighteen hundred poember session eighteen hundred sol seventeen, entitled, An act to prereat the unlawful exportation of nerest into anilatioes, and to alter and areof the laws concerning runaways, be published once in each week, for he space of six months, in the Maryund Gazette at Annapolis, the Federal Grette and Federal Republican at Batimere, the Frederick town Hereld, he Forch Light at Hager's town, the watern He ald at Cumberland, and he Eiston Gazette.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

o prevent the unlawful exportation of negroes and mulattoes, and to alter and amend the laws concerning run-

Whereas, the laws heretofore enact for preventing the kidnapping o ee negroes and mulattoes, and of inspirting out of this state negroes dimilatioes entitled to their freedom ter a term of years, have been found inficient to restrain the commission sicherimes and misdemeanors; and hath been sund moreover, that sernts and slaves have been seduced antie service of their masters and ners, and fraudulently removed out this state; and that the children of ee germes and mulattoes have been lampel from their masters, protecand purposes, and transported to ant places, and sold as slaves for operent therefore such heinous nes, and to punish them when com-en 1. Be it enacted by the General sembly of Maryland, That from and er the publication of this act, no on shall sell or dispose of any seror slave, who is or may be entit ofreedom after a term of years. after any particular time or upon contingency, knowing the said seror slave to be entitled to freedom aforesaid, to any person who shall heat the time of such sale a bona resident of this state, and who has heen a resident therein for the ke of at least one year next precedsuch sale, as to any person whomver who shall be procured, engaged employed, to purchase servants or ves for any other person not being dent as aforesaid, and if any per chiming possessing, or being ened to such servant or slave. shall ordispose of him or her to any ion who is not a resident as aforeknowing that such person is aresident as aforesaid, or to any on who shall be procured, engaged sployed, to purchase servants or es for any other person not beso resident, knowing the per so buying, or receiving such seror slave to he so procured, en dor employed, or who shall sell mose of such servant or slave for term of years, or for a longer han he or she is bound to serve such person making any such or disposition contrary to the ing and intention of this act, shall able to indictment in the county tof the county where such seller llers shall reside, or sale he made, conviction shall be sentenced to tgo confinement in the penitentiaraterm not exceeding two years, ng to the discretion of the court; servant or slave who may been sold contrary to the provisi f this act, to any person who is resident as aforesaid, or to any n who shall be procured, engaged apployed, to purchase servants or who shall be procured, engaged for any other person not a resia aforesaid, shall be sold by the of the court for the time he or my have to serve, for the benefit county where such conviction be had, or for the use of the maycity council of Baltimore if the ion shall be had in Baltimore

And be it enacted, That if any who is not a bona fide resident state, and who has not resided in for the space of at least one next preceding such purchase. purchase or receive on any conany such servant or slave, who is ay be entitled to freedom as aforeknowing that such servant or isentitled to freedom as a foresaid, any person whomsoever who be procured, engaged or employ purchase servants or slaves for other person not being resident as said, shall purchase or receive on ing that such servant or slave is entit- , hereby empowered and required to en- , time as he may judge right and proed to freedom as aforesaid, with an intention to transport such servant or slave out of the state, every such person making any such purchase or contract, contrary to the meaning of this act, shall be liable to be indicted in any county court in this state where he may be found, and on conviction shall undergo confinement in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding two years, and such slave or slaves shall be sold by order of the court for the unexpired time of their servitude, for the use of the county in which such conviction shall be had, or for the use of the mayor and city council if such conviction shall be had in Baltimore city court; provided nevertheless, that if any such person who shall have purchased or received such servant or slave, without knowing of his or her title to freedom after a term of years, or after any particular time or upon inventingency. shall immediately after knowing there. of, give information on oath, or attrmation, to one of the justices of the peace of the county where the seller shall reside, or in the county where such person may reside, or the saie may have been made, of such sale and purchase, the person so purchasing or receiving shall not be liable to prosecu tion or the punishment as aforesaid. 3 And he it enacted. That no sale of any servant or slave, who is or may be entitled to freedom after a term of years, or after any particular time, or upon any contingency, or in whom the seller is entitled for a term of years or limited time, with the reversion in some other person or persons, shall be valid and effectual in law to transfer any right or title in or to such servant or slave, unless the same be in writing. under the hands and seals of both the seller, or his or her authorised agent. and the purchaser, in which the period and terms of servitude or slavery, and the interest of the seller; and also the residence of the purchaser, shall be stated, and the same be acknowledged by said purchaser and seller, or his or her authorised agent, before a justice of the peace in the county where such sale shall be made, and recorded among the records of the county court of said county, within twenty days after such acknowledgment; and if any such sale should be made, and a bill of sale so as aforesaid should not be so executed acknowledged and recorded, or in case the true time or condition of the slavery or servitude of such servant or slave, and the residence of said purchaser, should not be therein stated, then and in such case eve v such servant or slave, entitled to freedom after a term of years, or after any particular time, or on any contingency, shall be thereupon free, unless the court or jury who may decide upon the question in a trial, if a petition for freedom, under the foregoing provision, shall be of the opin on that no fraud was intended by the omession of any one of the requisites afores iid, and in case any other person shall be entitled to a reversion or remainder in said slave, then the said servant or slave shall become the right and property of the said person entitled immediately to such reversion or remainder, in the same manner as if the event or time in which the reversion or remainder was to accrue had actually occurred, unless the court or jury who may decide upon the accrual sites aforesaid. 4. And be it enacted, That whenever any person shall purchase any slave or slaves within this state, for the purpose of exporting or removing the same beyond the limits of this state, it shall be their duty to take from the seller a bill of sale for said slave or slaves, in which the age and distinguishing marks, as nearly as may be, and the name of such slave or slaves, shall be inserted, and the same shall be acknowledged before some justice of the peace of the county where the sale shall be made, and lodged to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the said county, within twenty days, and the clerk shall immediately on the receipt thereof actually record the same, and deliver a copy thereof, on demand, to the purchaser, with a certificate endorsed thereupon, under the seal of the county of the same being duly recorded, on receiving the legal fees for so of such remainder or reversion under the foregoing provision, shall be of the opinion that no fraud was intended by the omission of any one of the requi recording and authenticating the same. 5. And he it enacted, That if any person who shall so have purchased any slave or slaves for exportation or removal from the state of Maryland, shall have the same in any county within this state, and information be lodged with any judge or justice of the peace supported by oath or affirmation, that the deponent or affirmant has reasona ble ground to believe that such person, who shall so have such slave or slaves in his possession, is about to export and remove them from the state, contrary to law, it shall be the duty of such judge or justice of the peace to proceed to on ract any such servant or slave the house or place where such slaves ted to freedom as aforesaid, know- may be, and such judge or justice is fined for such further or additional per; and if he shall have : cason to be lieve that such suspected runaway is the slave of any particular person, he shall cause such notice to be given by the sheriff, to such supposed owner, as he may think most advisable, but if said judge shall not have reasonable ground to believe such suspected runs way to be a slave, he shall forthwith order such suspected runaway to be released, and if no person shall apply for such suspected runaway, after he may be so remanded within the time for which he may be remanded, and prove his, her or their title as the law now requires, the said sheriff shall, at the expiration of such time, relieve and discharge such suspected runaway, and in either case when such suspected runaway shall be discharged, the expenses of keeping such runaway in confinement shall be levied on the county as other county expenses are now le-

7. And he it enacted, That in all cases where jurisdiction, power and authority, are given by this act to the several county courts in this state, for matters arising in said counties, the same power and jurisdiction is hereby vested exclusively in Baltimore city court, for all matters arising in Balti more county or city, and not in Bultimore county court

8. And he it enacted. That this law shall not take effect until after the first day of July next and the governor and council be directed, and they are hereby directed to publish this law once a week for six months from the passage thereof in the newspapers in which the laws or orders of this state are generally published.

Land for Sale.

Will be sold stapuivate sale, the Farm where the subscriber formerly resided, being part of the tracts of Land called "The Connexion and Woodward's Inclosure "but generally known by the name of the "Black Horse" This farm contains about Rice hundred acres of land, and is about one mile distant from the river Severn more than half in wood, well watered and stocked with an abundance and a great variety of fruit trees, with every necessary building thereon -Terms made known, and the property shewn to any person inclined to purchase, by

March 5 / Lancelot Warfield. applying to the subscribe Coarse Linen Shirts.

The Charitable Society, having em ployed the industrious poor of this city, in manufacturing the above articles, they are deposited for sale at the stores of Joseph Sands and George Shaw.

Annapolis, June 18, 1818. MARYLAND.

Anne-Arundel County, to wit:

On application to me the subscriber, n the recess of Anne-Arundel county court, as one of the associate Judges of the third judicial district of Maryland, by petition in writing of Charles A Harvey of said county praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at Novemher session one thousand eight hundred and five, and the several sur lements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain the same, being annexed to his petition, and the said Charles A. Harvey having satisfied me. by competent testimony, that he hath resided in the State of Maryland for two years immediately preceding the time of his application, and having also stated in said petition, that he is now in actual confinement for debt, and not on account of any breach of the laws of this State or of the United States; and having produced to me the certificate of the constable of Anne Arundel county to that effect, and prayed to be discharged from said confinement on the terms prescribed by the said act, and having given security for his personal appearance at September Court next to answer any allegations that may be made against him by his creditors, I do hereby order and adjudge that the same Charles A Harvey be discharged from his confinement, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some .one of the news-papers in the city of Annapolis, for three months successively, before the 21st day of September next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the County Court, at the Court house in the said County, at 10 o'clock in the morning of the first day, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Charles A. Harvey should not have the benefit of the several acts of Assembly of this state for the relief of insolvent deliors, as prayed. Given under my hand and seal this 19th day of March 1818

June 4, 1818. 6 Richard Ridgely.

State of Maryland, sc. Anne-Arundel County Orphans Court, April 25, 1818.

No. 28.7

On application by petition of Jacob Williams_executor of the last will and testament of Ann Norsh, late of A. A. county, deceased it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligencer.

John Gassaway, Reg. Wills, A. A. County.

Notice is hereby given,

That the subscriber of Anne-Arundel ounty, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Ann Marsh, late of Anne Arundel county deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 4th day of August next; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 25th day of April, June 11. Jacob Williams, ex'r.

To all whom it may Concern. aurence Thomsen, esq. having proed to the Governor an Exequa signed by the President of the United State, and sealed with the seal of the said Sates, recognizing him as Vice Consul of his Danish Majesty for the Port of Baltimore—Ordered that the said recognition be published for the informationand government of the peo-ple of this State. Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Marviand, this eighth day of May, in the year of the Lord ane thousand each throads. hundred and ed and righteen.

G. RINGELY, of Hampton.

By the Governor, NNIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council. JAMES MONROE,

President of the United States of Ame-

To all whom it may Concern, Laurence Thomsen Esquire having produced to me his commission as Vice Consul of His Danish Majesty for the Port of Baltimore I do briefly recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise and enjoy such functions. tions, powers and priviletes, as are allowed to Vice Consuls of the most fa-coured nations in the United States In testimony whereof. have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand at the city of Washington, the twentieth day of April A. D. 1818, and of the day of April, A. D. 1818, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the forty second.

JAMES MONROE. By the President. JOHN QUINCY ADMMS.

Secretary of state. Ordered, that the foregoing be published eight times in the Federal Ga-Telegraph at Baltimon Maryland Gazette the Frederick town Herald, the Torch Light, the Allegany Federalist and the Easton Monitor.

Chancery Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the honourable the Chancery court of Maryland, the subscriber will expose to public sale, at M'Laughlin's tavern, Ellicott's Mills, on Friday the 17th day of July next, All such proportional parts of each of the tracts of Land conveyed by James Barnes, of Adam, to his sons George and Adam Barnes, as will be sufficient to pay and satisfy the claim of Elias Ellicott, and others. Terms of sale, one third Cash on the ratification of the sale by the Chancellor and the residue in 18 months, with interest from the day of sale Bond with approved security to be given. On the payment of the purchase money the trustee is authorised to execute a deed to the purchaser or purchasers. Sale to Continuence at 12 o'clock.

R. Welch, of Ben. Trustee.

NOTICE.

The craditors of the late William The eraditors of the late William McCauley are informed, that a second dividend of the personal estate will be made on Saturday the eleventh day of July next, at the stare of Evans & Iglehart, in Annapolis, they are requested to forward their claims of the subscriber requires to that Jay ber previous to that day.

JOSEPH EVANS, Adm'r. June 25.