A few days since, a young man, 19 years of age, called at the sh Consul's office, (in this city) made himself known as one, n, but a few years before, the ul had taken into his own Sun-School, in the North of Ireland, poor, little, helpless, wretched ist. No nuptial tie had co-sed the birth of this child of mibaptised in tears. No father dhm for a son. But the Sun-School was to him as a father, mother, and a sister, and a ner. The precepts of religion morality which he learned there stricken deep root into his t. have blossomed in beauty. & now ripening into an abundance uit. He poured into the Conlap mire than a hundred dolthe little earnings of his bodial, in the sland o liber v, this am of affliction, to be remitted is destitute mother, the forforn therofs am and sor w."

irmers Bank of Maryland, 24th June, 1818 compliance with the charter of the ners Bank of Maryland, and with ipplement thereto establishing a nch thereof at Frederick town, Nois hereby given to the stockholders he Western Shore, that an election be held at the Banking-house in city of Annapolis, on the first Monin August next, between the hours 0 o'clock. A M. and 3 o'clock, P.

for the Bank at Annapolis, & nine ctors for the Branch Bank at Freck-town. By order, JONA PINKNEY, Cashier. he Editors of the Maryland Re lican. Annapolis, and Federal Gae and American, Bartimore, are rested to publish the above once a k for four weeks.

or the purpose of choosing from a-gst the stockholders, sixteen direc

SUBSCRIBERS Fo Robbins' Journal, informed that the work is received ready for delivery, at the Book ore of Mr. Geo Shaw, ind at the ice of the Maryland Gazette.

Feb. (1)

Baltimore and West River Packet.

The subscriber having purchased of Messrs. Barbers that large, conve ent, and swift sailing Schooner, ED-ARD LLOYD, has commenced run ng her as a regular packet from West ver to Baltimore. est River every Wednesday morng at 9 o'clock for Baltimore-return g, leave Baltimore every Saturday orning at 9 o'clock. He has engag-Capt. Henry Crandell, a skillul and dustrious man, to take charge of her. assengers may be assured that they ill meet with the best accommodati-

All orders left at his store at West iver will be punctually attended to.
WILLIAM NORMAN.
June 19 tf. JUST PUBLISHED,

And for Sale, at this Office, The Laws of Maryland,

Passed December Session, 1817. Price-S 1 50.

ALSO, The Votes & Proceedings Of last Session. Price-8 1 50.

BLANKS

For Sale at this Office.

Declarations on Promissory Notes, and bills of exchange against Drawer, first, second, and third Endorser, in assumpsit generally. Debt on Bond and Single Bill, Common Bonds, Appeal do. Tonacco Notes, &c. &c. June 11.

NOTICE.

The Levy Court of Anne-Arundel County, will meet on the second Monday of August next, in the city of Annap lis. By order,

Wm. S. Green, Clk.

Desirous of accommodating their free and the public, have at considerable expense built and equipped new vessels for the typesses purpose of sailing them as Packets, tween this City and Baltimers. The cabins, are spacious, elegant, and arrand provided with every thing necessary to promote the convenience and comfort passengers. Every exertion will be made to insure speedy and safe passages; and passengers. Every exertion will be made to insure speedy and safe passages; and no expense spared to o tain the best fare for their tables. One of their Boats will leave their tables. One of their Boats will leave this place every Monday, Wodnesday and Friday morning, at 9 o'clock, for Bahi more, and the other leaves Baltimore for the place every Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, and every Wodnesday and Friday morning at Vo'clock.

They will continue to perform, for their They will continue to perform, for their steady friends and supporters, all business with which they may be entiasted, but a avoid being injured by mistakes, must decline holding themselves respons ble for letters, or any thing which they may be tall to contain.

They keep as a Daogra a large, and built Schooner, which will take freight a any place on the Chesapeake Bay—she is the charge of captain Spencer, a careful at experienced skipper. Persons wishing to employ her are requested to make application at either of their stores situate near in the contains a store of the contains a sto dock.

We will embrace this opportunity of asticing the illiberal treatment which we have teceived from the few or our fellow citizen who are so blind to the wel are of Anapolis, which should ever have a line of Packets of her own, as diligently to complete the interference of strangers with our line, and who carry their hostility to wards us so far, as when called from her themselves in preference to going with. wards us so far, as when called from hen themselves in preference to going with a to give more than our prefera pass gent go with those whose interests are by a means connected with Annapolis, was those who live in a town which his effect of the property line, and it shoul happen no lon er to su line, and it shoul: happen no lon ertosus their own convenience to continue group, take their's off likewise, and thus lene the citizens of this place destitute of a wite carriage to Baltimore But what may the treatment, of which we complain, appear in our view so very ungenerous, it has the very new sons what they are consequently. pear in our view so very ungenerous, in that the very pe sons who thus aid our ep-ponents, have, when it was needful to an selves, reque ted us to tran act businesse them in Baltimore—a thing we have never aid or received compensation for the sun-Such conduct, then, the candid and unnor received compensation for the sme. Such conduct, then, the candid and unpopulated must agree with us, is illibral, at we now inquire, whether any man of the or feeling, would, after patiently subming to it more than twelve months, costing to the more than twelve months, costing to perform the unprofitable jobs of those who thus throw their profitable oes just the hands of others? We think there are none who would; and in future it need on the expected of us. The profits of our fire have arisen principally from the passes have arisen principally from the passig money, and no from the cost of frigra. But even the receipts for passages began a be much abridged nearly three years ago, by the Baltimore steam boats forsaking the regular lines and coming upon this whenever the meeting of the leg slatue, or the sitting of the courts of appeals and chancer, made it necessary for strangers to visitits city It has been said that we ought to pacure a S'eam-Boat—this would no doubt highly gratifying to the public, to whom must say we'de grateful for past encounnent, and to please whom we would so it is a loan within your sistent with me. hesitate to do any thing consistent with ness and our own safety; but when we take in consideration the first cost o such an end consideration the first cost of such an eth lishment, the extensive patronage whith would be necessary to support it, and the present unprofitableness of the line of fair ets between this and Baltimo e, we are brough, ir esistably to conclude that such step, on our part, would be nothing kind foolishly dissipating & wasning the earing of our past lives, and sealing the ruin closs solves and our families. Let those who have inconsiderately talked of what we ought do, hear in mind, that the abolition of the general court, the aking of the finds from the College, and the late act altering the time of the meeting of the General Assembly from a season of the year when the weaker in time of the meeting of the General Assembly, from a season of the year when the weater is usually clement, and our Packer in running, to a time when they are hid operationally to reduce the receipts of the lines of wast be little more than sufficient to detay the expense attendant upon it, and not enough to compensate us for the sacrifice of time, which we might freque hempton more profitable pursuits. If there are my who doubt this statement, let them to me who doubt this statement, let them come and examine our books for the residuals, and then if they find what where we is not correct, let them exposetticle of it to the world. Still in defined if this, if they are a monotoness where where the same of the same and the same of the sam this, if there are, among those who emis this, if there are, among those who takes for a Steam Boat has lead them brakes to under the who will come forward and contribute proportionate part of the cost of buildings running such a vessel, we will cordinate units with them in putting one ago at line. If there are none such to be feast because of the great hazard and darget the undertaking, we hope that all commagainst us, for not doing so without use agoing the suffer any declension on that acous.

We now assure or firm friend, a whenever Annapolis improves so far a promise support adequate to the enterpart that we will furnish ourselves with a Seast Boat equal to any helonging to the Cle peake; and until such time arrives, but sonable man ought to expect us, alone, we so. for a Steam Boat has lead them to Tates

o. Annapolis, June 10, 818.

Wheeler & Weedon, Respectfully inform the public, the they have commenced the Cabo Making. Carpentering, Uphalten Curtain Hahving and Papering Beness, at their mop nearly opposite Post Office, in the city. They soke a share of public parronage, and all who may favour hem with ence agement, that every exertion will used to give satisfaction. They attend at the residence gentlemen who may wain work of gentlemen who may wain work of gentlemen who may wain work of the commence of gentlemen who may want in either of the two last line notice, and perform their woll derate terms, and with neather despatch. Annapolis, June 25.

MARYLAND GAZETTE AND POLITICAL INTELLIGENCER.

[VOE. LXXVL

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1818.

to suspect that such slave or slaves have been stolen by such person or persons, or received by them knowing them to be stolen, or that they had knowingly aided therein, in such cases he recognizance shall provide for their answering such offence; and if such person or persons, so having such slave or slaves, shall refuse or neglect to enter into such recognizance, the such judge or justice of the peace shall commit said person or persons, and such slave or slaves, to the gaol of the county; and the said judge or justice of the peace shall make return of said commitment to the county court, or

Baltimore city court if then in session, and if not in session then to the next term of said courts respectively; or if such person, having entered into such recognizance, shall refuse to appear a greeably thereto, or if having appeared it shall appear that such slave or slaves is or are entitled to freedom, then the court shall adjudge them free, and if said court shall adjudge them to be slaves for life, or for a term of years, and it shall appear that said slave or slaves shall have been purchased with intent to remove them from the state of Maryland, and no bill of sale for the same shall have been taken for such slave or slaves, or a false or fraudulent bill of sale, then the said court shall order such slave to be sold for the time such slave may have to serve for the benefit of the county, or for the mayor and city council of Baltimore.

if the aforesaid proceedings should be had in Baltimore city court; but if any slave or slaves, after a term of years, or upon any contingency, then the said servant or slave shall become imme diately the right and property of the said person entitled to such reversion or remainder, in the same manner as if the event or time in which the reversion or remainder was to accrue had actually occurred; Provided, that the said person, so entitled to the reversion or remainder, shall pay the costs of the proceedings which may have been had in the case, otherwise the said servant or slave shall be sold for the use of the county, or the mayor and city council of Baltimore, for the time he or she may have been bound to serve the person who sold said servant or slave; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to the case of any ci tizen removing from the state of Maryland with his servants and slaves, provided such citizen shall have resi ded within the state one year next pre ceding such removal, or to any per on travelling with his or her servants or slaves in or through the state, not purchased with intent to export the same within the meaning of this act.

6. And be it enacted, That hereafter when any servant or slave shall be committed to the gaol of any county in this state, as a runaway, agreeably to he laws now in force, and the notice re quired to be given by law by the she-iff shall have been given, and the time for their detention expired, and no person or persons shall have applied for and claimed said suspected runaway and proved his, her, or their title to such suspected runaway, as is now required by law, it shall be the duty of the sheriff forthwith to carry such slave or slaves before some judge of the county court, or judge of the orphans court, with his commitment, and such udge is hereby required to examine and inquire, by such means as he may deem most advisable, whether such suspected runaway be a slave or not, and if he shall have reasonable grounds to believe that such suspected runaway is a slave, he may remand such

No. 29.]

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED

JONAS GREEN, CHURCH-STREET, ANNAPOLIS.

Price - Three Dollars per Annum.

IN COUNCIL,

March 18, 1815. Ordered, That the Act passed at December session eighteen hundred pecember session eighteen nundred in serenteen, entitled, An act to prethe unlawful exportation of nerent the unlawful exportation of ne-gross and mulattoes, and to alter and amend the laws concerning runaways, be published once in each week, for the space of six months, in the Maryand Gazette at Annapolis, the Federal Gizette and Federal Republican at Baltimore, the Frederick town Herald, the Torch Light at Hager's-town, the Western Herald at Cumberland, and de Easton Gazette.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY. Clerk of the Council

Toprevent the unlawful exportation of names and mulattoes, and to alter and amend the laws concerning run-

Whereas, the laws heretofore enact ed for preventing the kidnapping of tee negroes and mulattoes, and of masporting out of this state negroes and nulatives entitled to their freedom er a term of years, have been found a efficient to restrain the commission and misdemeanors; and that heen ound moreover, that serant and slaves have been seduced ranthe service of their masters and was s, and fraudulently removed out f this state; and that the children of res aegroes and mulattoes have been ilmoped from their mesters, protecpresend parents, and transported to stant places, and sold as slaves for to prevent therefore such heinous Tences, and to punish them when com-

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and ter the publication of this act, no erson shall sell or dispose of any serantor slave, who is or may be entited to freedom after a term of years. rafter any particular time, or upon by contingency, knowing the said serant or slave to be entitled to freedom saforesaid, to any person who shall not be at the time of such sale a bona de resident of this state, and who has of been a resident therein for the pace of at least one year next precedng such sale, or to any person whomoever who shall be procured, engaged remployed, to purchase servants or laves for any other person not being esident as aforesaid, and if any per on claiming, possessing, or being en-itled to such servant or slave, shall ell or dispose of him or her to any erson who is not a resident as afore-aid, knowing that such person is otalresident as aforesaid, or to any roon who shall be procured, engaged employed, to purchase servants or aves for any other person not he k so resident, knowing the per n so buying or receiving such serint or slave to be so procured, en ery such person making any such or disposition contrary to the aning and intention of this act, shall liable to indictment in the county art of the county where such selle sellers shall reside, or sale be made on conviction shall be sentenced to lergo confinement in the penitentia for a term not exceeding two years cording to the discretion of the court d such servant or slave who may re been sold contrary to the provisi s of this act, to any person who is t resident as aforesaid, or to any on who shall be procured, engaged employed, to purchase servants or ves for any other person not a resint as aforesaid, shall be sold by the er of the court for the time he or may have to serve, for the benefit the county where such conviction le be had, or for the use of the may and city council of Baltimore if the

2. And be it enacted, That if any this state, and who has not resided erein for the space of at least one ar next preceding such purchase, all purchase or receive on any conct any such servant or slave, who is may be entitled to freedom as aforeknowing that such servant or isentitled to freedom as aforesaid, if any person whomsoever who all be procured, engaged or employ to purchase servants or slaves for y other person not being resident as resaid, shall purchase or receive on viction shall be had in Baltimore ing that such servant or slave is entit led to freedom as aforesaid, with an intention to transport such servant or slave out of the state, every such person making any such purchase or contract, contrary to the meaning of this act, shall be liable to be indicted in any county court in this state where he may be found, and on conviction shall undergo continement in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding two years, and such slave or slaves shall be sold by order of the court for the unexpir-I time of their servitude, for the use of the county in which such conviction shall be had, or for the use of the mayor and city council if such conviction shall be had in Baltimore city court; provided nevertheless, that if any such person who shall have purchased or received such servant or slave, without knowing of his or her title to freedom after a term of years, or after any particular time, or upon any contingency, shall immediately after knowing there. of, give information on oath, or affirmation, to one of the justices of the peace of the county where the seller shall reside, or in the county where such person may reside, or the sale may have been made, of such sale and purchase, the person so purchasing or receiving shall not be liable to prosecution or the punishment as aforesaid.

3. And be it enacted. That no sale of any servant or slave, who is or may be entitled to freedom after a term of years, or after any particular time, or upon any contingency, or in whom the seller is entitled for a term of years or limited time, with the reversion in some other person or persons, shall be valid and effectual in law to transfer any right or title in or to such servant or slave, unless the same he in writing. under the hands and seals of both the seller, or his or her authorised agent, and the purchaser, in which the period and terms of servitude or slavery, and the interest of the seller, and also the residence of the purchaser, shall be stated, and the same be acknowledged by said purchaser and seller, or his or her authorised agent, before a justice of the peace in the county where such sale shall be made, and recorded among the records of the county court of said county, within twenty days after such acknowledgment; and if any such sale should be made, and a hill of sale so as aforesaid should not be so executed, acknowledged and recorded, or in case the true time or condition of the slavery or servitude of such servant or slave, and the residence of said purchaser, should not be therein stated, then and in such case every such servant or slave, entitled to freedom after a term of years, or after any particular time, or on any contingency, shall be thereupon free, unless the court or jury who may decide upon the question in a trial, if a petition for freedom, under the foregoing provision, shall be of the opin on that no fraud was intended by the omission of any one of the requisites aforeshid, and in case any other person shall be entitled to a reversion or remainder in said slave, then the said servant or slave shall become the right and property of the said person entitled immediately to such reversion or remainder, in the same manner as the event or time in which the reversion or remainder was to accrue had actually occurred, unless the court or jury who may decide upon the accrual ged or employed, or who shall sell of such remainder or reversion under this bose of such servant or slave for longer term of years, or for a longer term of years, or for a longer term he or she is bound to serve. sites aforesaid.

4. And best enacted, That whenever any person shall purchase any slave or slaves within this state, for the purpose of exporting or removing the same beyond the limits of this state it shall be their duty to take from the seller a bill of sale for said slave or slaves, in which the age and distinguishing marks, as nearly as may be, and the name of such slave or slaves, shall be inserted, and the same shall be acknowledged before some justice of the peace of the county where the sale shall be made, and lodged to be record-ed in the office of the elerk of the said county, within twenty days, and the clerk shall immediately on the receipt hereof, actually record the same, and deliver a copy thereof, on demand, to the purchaser, with a certificate endorsed thereupon, under the seal of the county of the same being duly recorded, on receiving the legal fees for so recording and authenticating the same.

5. And be it enacted, That if any person who shall so have purchased any slave or slaves for exportation or removal from the state of Maryland. shall have the same in any county within this state, and information be lodged with any judge or justice of the peace supported by oath or affirmation, that the deponent or affirmant has reasona ble ground to believe that such person, who shall so have such slave or slaves in his possession, is about to export and remove them from the state, contrary to law, it shall be the duty of such judge or justice of the peace to proceed to J con'ract any such servant or slave the house or place where such slaves titled to freedom as aforesaid, know-may be, and such judge or justice is suspected runaway to prison, to be confined for such further or additional hereby empowered and required to en-ter into any such house or place where per; and if he shail have reason to be such slave or slaves may be, and to delieve that such suspected runaway is mand of the person or persons in whose the slave of any particular person, he quistody the said slave or slaves may. shall cause such notice to be given by be, an inspection and examination of the sheriff, to such supposed owner, as said slave or slaves, and also of the bills he may think most advisable, but it of sale for them respectively, and if said judge shall not have reasonable upon such demand and examination no ground to believe such suspected runabill or bills of sale are produced for way to be a slave, he shall forthwith either or any such slave or slaves, or if order such suspected runaway to be rethe bills of sale produced shall not have leased, and if no person shall apply for heen executed, acknowledged and resuch suspected runaway, after he may corded, agreeably to the provisions herein contained, that the descripbe so remanded within the time for which he may be remanded, and prove tion of any such slave or slaves shall his, her or their title as the law now be, in the judgment of such judge or justice of the peace false or fraudulent, requires, the said sheriff shall, at the expiration of such time, relieve and then it shall be the duty of such judge discharge such suspected runaway, and or justice of the peace to cause such in either case when such suspected elave or slaves, for whom no bill of runaway shall be discharged, the exsale is produced, or for whom a false penses of keeping such runaway in conor fraudulent bill of sale is produced. finement shall be levied on the county to go before some judge or justice of as other county expenses are now lethe peace of the county aforesaid, and the person or persons who has or have said slave or slaves in possession shall also appear, &enter into a recognizance before the same judge or justice of the peace, with two sufficient securities in the sum of one thousand dollars, for every such servant or slave in his, her, or their possession, without bills of sale as is herein provided for, to appear at the next county court to answer to the petition of said slave or slaves; and if 8. And be it enacted. That this law such judge or justice shall have reason shall not take effect until after the first > thereof in the newspapers in which the laws or orders of this state are generally published.

Land for Sale.

day of July next, and the governor and council be directed, and they are hereby directed, to publish this law one a week for six mentls from the passage

Will be sold at private sale, the Farm where the subscriber formerly resided, being part of the tracts of Land called "The Connexion and Woodward's Inclosure." but generally known by the name of the "Black Horse" This farm contains about three hundred acres of land, and is about one mile distant from the river Severn, more than half in wood, well watered and stocked with an abundance and a great variety of fruit trees, with every necessary building thereon.-Terms made known, and the property shewn to any person inclined to purchase, by applying to the subscribe

March 5. 2 Marcheld. Warfield.

Coarse Linen Shirts.

The Charitable Society, having employed the industrious poor of this city, in manufacturing the above articles. they are deposited for sale at the stores of Joseph Sands and George Shaw. Annapolis, June 18, 1818.

MARYLAND.

Anne-Arundel County, to wit: On application to me the subscriber, in the recess of Anne Arundel county court, as one of the associate Judges of the third judicial district of Maryland by petition in writing of Charles A. Harvey of said county praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sondry insolvent debtors, passed at November session one thousand eight hundred thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain the same, being annexed to his petition, and the said Charles A. Harvey having satisfied me by competent testimony, that he hath resided in the State of Maryland for two years immediately preceding the time of his application, and having also stated in said petition, that he is now in actual confinement for debt, and not on account of any breach of the laws of this State or of the United States, and having produced to me the certificate of the constable of Anne Arundel coun ty to that effect, and prayed to be discharged from said confinement on the terms prescribed by the said act, and having given security for his personal appearance at September Court next, to answer any allegations that may be made against him by his creditors, I do hereby order and adjudge that the same Charles A Harvey be discharged from his confinement, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the news-papers in the city of Annapolis, for three months successively, before the 21st day of September next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the County Court, at the Court-house in the said County, at 10 o'clock in the morning of the first day, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Charles A. Harvey should not have the benefit seal this 19th day of March 1818 Richard Ridgely. June 4, 18:0.

of the several acts of Assembly of this state for the relief of insolvent debtors, as prayed. Given under my hand and

State of Maryland, sc. Anne Arundel County Orphans Court,

April 25, 1818. On application by petition of Jacob Williams, executor of the last will and testament of Ann Marsh, late of A. A. county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the netice required by law for crelitors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligencer.

John Gassaway, Reg. Wills, A. A. County.

Notice is hereby given,

That the subscriber of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maas other county expenses are now levied.

7. And be it enacted, That in all cases where jurisdiction, power and authority, are given by this act to the several county courts in this state, for matters arising in said counties, the same power and jurisdiction is hereby vested exclusively in Baltimore city court, for all matters arising in Baltimore county or city, and not in Baltimore county or city, and not in Baltimore county court. ryland, letters testamentary on the June 1 Jucob Williams, x'r.

Chancery Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the honourable the Chancery court of Maryland, the subscriber will expose to public sale, at Milaughlin's tavern, Ellicott's Mills, on Fliday the 17th day of July next, All such proportional parts of each of the tracts of Land conveyed by James Barnes. If Adam, to his sons George and Adam Barnes, as will be sufficient to pay and satisfy the claim of Elias Ellicott, and others. Terms of sale, one third Cash on the ratification of the sale by the Chancellor, and the residue in 18 months with interest from the day of sale. Bend with approved security to be given. On the payment of the purchase laoney the payment of the purchase honey the trustee is authorised to execute a deed to the purchaser or purchaser. Sale to complement 12 o'clock.

1. Welch of Ben. Truste. payment of the purchase

SUBSCRIBERS To Robbins' Journal.

Are informed that the work is received and ready for delivery, at the Book Store of Mr. Geo Shaw, nd at the Office of the Maryland Gazette. Feb 11.

Baltimore and West River Packet.

The subscriber having purchased of the Messrs. Barbers that large, convenient, and swift sailing Schooner, ED-WARD LLOYD, has commenced running her as a regular packet from West River to Baltimore. She will leave West River every Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock for Baltimore-returning, leave Baltimore every Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. He has engaged Capt. Henry Crandell, a skilful and industrious man, to take charge of her. Passengers may be assured that they and five, and the several supplements will meet with the best accommodati-

All orders left at this store at West River will be punctually attended to. WILZIAM NORNAN.

JUST PUBLISHED, And for Sale, at this Office,

The Laws of Maryland, Passed December Session, 1817. Price-S 1 50.

ALSO,

The Votes & Proceedings Of last Session.

Price-S 1 50.

BLANKS

For Sale at this Office.

Declarations on Promissory Notes, and bills of exchange against Drawer, first, second, and third Endorser, in assumpsit generally. Debt on Bond and Single Bill, Common Bonds, Appeal do. Tobacco Notes, &c. &c.

June 11.

The Levy Court of Anne-Arundel County, will meet on the second Mon-day of August next, in the city of An-

NOTICE.

By order, Wim. S. Green, Clk.