The board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eignieum months, a large & elegant addition has been made to this valuable instituaddition has been made to this valuable institu-tion, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length, and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern protection at its extreme East end. It con-tains between 30 and 30 apartments, admir-ably calculated for the accommodation of every class or patients. Of this number are several large and any wards, intended par-ticulately for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heat dai, thrown into them, from jurnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building with gas.
