THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

A NEW DAILY PAPER. TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

It is with unfeigned reluctance that the subscr ber begs leave to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Baltimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

With regard to the political character of this publication, he scorns any concealment -it will be decidedly of the Federal cast: -it will be decidedly of the rederal care That federalism, which was known and prac tised in the day of Washington-that fede ralism, for which Hamilton wrote & fought and for which Montgomery fell—that fede-ralism, which, with a large and comprehen-sive view, embraces all characters, so ar as they augment the prosperity and the gran-deur of their country, and which turns an eve of the most transcendant disdain on the little, despicable, mean, personal bickerings for office that federalism, which would raise, ennoble, and aggrandize the character of our dear and beloved country, and in opposition to that detestable, mushroom feder ralism, whose only aim is to raise and to aggrandize private families -- that federalism that exults in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star spangled banner zlittering over every sea; our commerce bounded by no other restric-tions than those of the ocean—that federal-ism, that cheers the hone-t husbandman and his plough, the merchant at his desk, a the mechanic at his anvil. He is too old, and the grave too near, for the subscriber to turn an apostate now; to lend himself to the scurvy meanness of individual ambition; or to mistake his own welfare for the welfare o his country. These are the federal sen-timents of the Edicor, and such as he will be governed by until the hour of his dissolu-tion. He seeks not individual patronage. he looks for support on his countrymen at large—if he fails in this appeal to their confidence, he is content to remain unnoticed and forgotten.

PAUL ALLEN.

PAUL ALLEN, Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.

TERMS.

THE MORNING CHRONICLE will be published daily, at eight dollars per ann. From the patronage already offered, and from the the patronage already offered, and from the flattering prospects held out, it is expected the publication will be commenced the 1st of October next. Although the Editor intends it shall be a newspaper, it is not his wish nor his interest to disregard the marine and mercantile departments; in these he will be assisted by persess well acquainted with the management of a commercial namer.

It is intended to issue from the Morning Ch onicle office, assoon as a sufficient num-her of subscribers are obtained, a paper for her of subscribers are obtained, a paper for the Country, to be published twice a week, at four dollars per annum, which will con-tain all the news-matter of the daily paper.
