THE MORNING CHRONICLE, A NEW DAILY PAPER, TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THIS CITY OF BALTIMORE.

It is with unfeigned reluctance that the subscriber has been obliged to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Baltimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

With regard to the political character of this publication, he avows any concealment—it will be decidedly of the Federal cast. That federalism, which was known and practiced in the day of Washington, that federalism, for which Hamilton wrote, fought, and for which Montgomery fell—that federalism, which, with a large and comprehensive view, embraces all characters, so far as they concern the prosperity and the grandeur of their country, and which burns an eye of the most invariable and unflinching fidelity, despises all mean, personal bickerings for office at a Federalism, which would raise, enoble, and aggrandize the character of our dear and beloved country, and in opposition to that detestable, mushroom Federalism, whose only aim is to raise and to aggrandize private families—that federalism, that exalts in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star-spangled banner glittering over every sea; our commerce bounded by no other restrictions than those of the ocean—that federalism, that cheers the honest husbandman at his plough, the merchant at his desk, and the mechanic at his anvil. He is too old, and the grave too near, for a subscriber to turn an apostate now, to lend himself to the sordid meanness of individual ambition, or to mistake his own welfare for the welfare of his country. These are the federal sentiments of the Editor, and such as will be covered by until the hour of his dissolution. He seeks not individual patronage; he looks for support on his countrymen at large. If he fails in this appeal to their confidence, he is content to remain unnoticed and forgotten.

PAUL ALLEN, Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.

TERMS.
THE MORNING CHRONICLE will be published daily, at eight dollars per annum. From the patronage I am offered, and from the flattering prospects held out, it is expected the publication will be commenced the 1st of October next. Although the Editor intends it shall be a newspaper, it is not his wish nor his interest to disregard the public and mercantile departments. He will be assisted by persons well acquainted with the management of a commercial paper. It is intended to issue from the Morning Chronicle office, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained, a paper for the Country, to be published twice a week, at four dollars per annum, which will contain all the news matter of the daily paper. Every attention will be given to forward the paper to subscribers at a distance without delay.
• Letters addressed to the Editor, No 50 North Frederick street, will be attended to Baltimore, Sept. 7, 1818. 3w

Land for Sale.

I will sell the land whereon I live, situated on Herring Bay, in Anne Arundel county, about 20 miles from the city of Annapolis, and about 50 miles from Baltimore; it contains between nine hundred and one thousand acres, is considered by judges to be inferior to no land in the county for the cultivation of tobacco, and is acted upon by plaster and capable of great improvement by clover, a great proportion of the land is covered with wood timber & may be easily carried to market, having the advantage of fine landing places, being bounded by the water. Persons inclined to purchase it is presumed, will view the premises, which they are invited to do. The terms will be accommodating on payment of part of the purchase money in hand.
