

NATIONAL REGISTER
 This publication is published weekly in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, each number contains sixteen pages, in small but very elegant type. It makes two volumes a year, and every volume is accompanied with a copious index. The price per annum is five dollars, payable in advance. The Public Notices, both foreign and domestic, the proceedings of Congress, & the news of every description are regularly inserted therein, accompanied by critical and explanatory remarks. Its value is also enhanced by occasional reviews of literary works; and all its sentiments are decidedly American, independent of all party considerations. This work, which is well published, regularly published, & submitted weekly to subscribers, the public patronage is fully solicited.
 Lawrence, Wilson, & Co.
 Printers of newspapers throughout the United States will oblige the proprietors of the National Register, giving the foregoing a few lines.

Anne Arundel County Court
 September Term, 1818.
 On application to Anne Arundel County Court, by petition, in writ of Larkin Hammond, of the said county, praying the benefit of the act of the Assembly for the relief of sundry solvent debtors, and the several provisions thereto on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of property, and a list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain, being annexed to his petition, and said court being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said Larkin Hammond has resided in the State of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application, therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said Larkin Hammond, (by cause) a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers in the city of Annapolis, for three months successively before the third Monday of April next, give notice to his creditors, to appear before the court to be held at the city of Annapolis, on Friday the twenty third of April next, for the purpose of commending a trustee for their benefit on the said Larkin Hammond then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property, and to show cause if any he have, why he the said Larkin Hammond should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors.
