PENMANSHIP.

A practical, easy running hand war ranted, and no compensation received except there is an improvement made to the utmost satisfaction of the Young Ladies and Gentlemen who attend

Those disposed may try the experiment during 12 hours, at the end of which time, if their improvement does not meet their approbation, they may withdraw and no charge made. And further, if those scholars who continue on through the 16 Lessons, do not in their own estimation, or in the estimation of their parents or guardians make more improvement than is gene rally made in two years, in the old way of teaching, it is requested that no one pay any thing.

During the 16 Lessons, are taught, the small running hand, Secretary and Italian hands, the last of which is particularly fashionable for young ladies.

The teacher having had nearly eight years experience at various Seminaries of learning and in the principal cities and towns in the United States, offers the advantage of this long experience to all those who apply, during the pre sent week, after which none can be received.

The school for gentlemen will com mence this evening in one apartment of the Ball Room. Young Ladies who prefer it may take Lessons at home. For all-further information, apply at the Writing Room, or at Mr. Shaw's Book Store, where may be seen speci mens of hands made in less than thirty hours. All scholars must attend two Lessons a day. N.B. No scholars are admitted un der en years of age.
