THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

A NEW DAILY PAPER. TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CITY OF HALTIMORE.

It is with unfeigned reluctance that the subser her begs leave to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Bakimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

With regard to the political character of this publication, he scorns any concealment -it will be decidedly of the Federal cast That federalism, which was known and practised in the day of Washington—that federalism, for which Hamilton wrote, fought, and for which Montgomery fell—that federalism, which with himself and for which with himself and for which with himself and federalism. and for which, with a large and comprehensive view, embraces a l characters, so tar as they augment the prosperty and the grandeur of their country, and which turns an eye of the most transcendant disdain on the little, despicable, mean personal bickerings for office-that federalism which would for office-that lederalism, which would raise, ennoble, and aggrandize the character of our dear and beloved country, and in opposition to that detestable, mushroom fede ralism, whose only aim is to raise and to ag grandize private families that rederalism that exults in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star spangled banner glittering over every sea; our commerce bounded by no other restrictions than those of the ocean-that federal ism, that cheers the honest husbandman at his plough, the merchant at his desk, and the mechanic at his anvil. He is too old, and the grave too near, for the subscriber to turn an apostate now; to lend himsel to the scurvy meanness of individual ambition; or to mistake his own welfare for the welfare to mistake his own welfare for the Welfare o his country. These are the federal sen timents of the Edi.or, and such as he will be governed by until the hour of his dissolution. He seeks not individual patronage, he looks for support on his countrymen at large—if he fails in this appeal to their confidence, he is content to remain unnoticed and foreotten.

PAUL ALLEN. Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.
