THE MORNING CHRONICLE,
A NEW DAILY PAPER,
 TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.
 It is with unfeigned reluctance that the subscriber here leaves to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Baltimore, to be designated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.
 With regard to the political character of this publication, he avows any concealment—it will be decidedly of the Federal cast. That federalism, which was known and practiced in the day of Washington—that federalism, for which Hamilton wrote, fought, and for which Montgomery fell—that federalism, which, with a large and comprehensive view, embraces all characters, so far as they augment the prosperity and the grandeur of their country, and which turns an eye of the most transcendent disdain on the little, despicable, mean personal bickerings for office—that federalism, which would raise, ennoble, and aggrandize the character of our dear and beloved country, and in opposition to that detestable, mushy, and federalism, whose only aim is to raise and to aggrandize private families—that federalism, that exults in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star-spangled banner gliding over every sea; our commerce bounded by no other restrictions than those of the ocean—that federalism, that cheers the honest husbandman at his plough, the mechanic at his desk, and the grave too near, for the subscriber to turn an apostate now; to lend himself to the scurvy meanness of individual ambition; or to mistake his own welfare for the welfare of his country. These are the federal sentiments of the Editor, and such as he will be governed by until the hour of his dissolution. He seeks not individual patronage, he looks for support on his countrymen at large—if he fails in this appeal to their confidence, he is content to remain unnoticed and forgotten.
 PAUL ALLEN,
 Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.

TERMS.
 THE MORNING CHRONICLE will be published daily, at eight dollars per ann. From the publication of the first number, and from the flattering prospects held out, it is expected the publication will be commenced the first of October next. Although the Editor intends it shall be a newspaper, it is not his wish nor his interest to disregard the marine and mercantile departments; in these he will be assisted by persons well acquainted with the management of a commercial paper.
 It is intended to issue from the Morning Chronicle office, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained, a paper for the Country, to be published twice a week, at four dollars per annum, which will contain all the news-matter of the daily paper.
 Every attention will be given to forward the paper to subscribers at a distance without delay.
 Letters addressed to the Editor, No. 50 North Frederick street, will be attended to.
