To the Public.

This will notify the Public, officially of my having withdrawn the action which I branght at the last fall term of this county court against Mr. Rich ard Cooke Tilghuan, for conspiracy slander and defamation. As my alle gations were public, so shall my recantation of them be as notorious. I ten der to that gentleman the amende hon ourable. "I will render uuto Casar the things that are Cæsar's." I plead not insanity; I disdain the subterfuge. It was the result of an over heated and misguided state of feeling, combined with a want of reflection; and entered into with no previous intention of wounding the feelings of Mr. Tilgh man, or his family. I feel no reluctance in acknowledging my error, but avow it with pleasure. I now throw myself on the mercy of a generous and liberal public, and sincerely crave their forgiveness for having, in a mo ment of forgetfulness, agitated the qui et of soc - y.

State against the General Govern-

COUNCIL CHAMBER, Jan. 30th, 1819.

To the Honourable The President of the Senate,

And The Honourable The Speaker of the House of Delegates,

Gentlemen, We have the honour to communicate the enclosed letters. (marked 1, 2 and 8,) from the agent of the state, and the Treasurer of the Western Shore, respecting the claim of the State of Maryland on the General Go vernment, for militia expenditures during the late war. We deem it our duty to state, that the delay of the final adjustment of this claim, appears to have arisen from causes entirely bevond the controll of the agent, who is entitled to much credit for the ability and zeal with which he has stated the claim, and urged its settlement.

We have the honour to be, Very Respectfully, Your Obt. Servis. C. GOLDSBOROUGH.

EASTON, Jan. the 7th, 1819.

Having waited from August last till the opening of the session of the general assembly, for a notification to attend at the Department of War for the purpose of a final adjustment of the militia claims, my anxiety was much heightened by a sense of its immediate importance in the financial arrangements of the state. I was therefore induced to apply myself, in a very urgent manner, to the officer to whom the examination of the accounts stood referred, and to solicit his attention to our subject. I have received from him a reply. dated the 21st ult. that it was still impracticable for him to state how soon it would be in his power to take up the accounts of the state of Maryland; but again promising to notify me when the account, then in hand, and those which having been previously filed were entitled to a preference, should be completed. I must beg you, Sir, to be assured of my extreme solicitude to obtain a final settlement of this important state claim. The delay which has occurred has been a source of much mortification to me, but it has seemed to be unavoidable; at least it has been obviously beyond my controul. Under present circumstances I propose to make an application to the secretary of war for a further payment of money on the claim; and as the first advance, made on my solicitation, appears to have been curtailed in some degree by a view to an alleged deficioncy in the existing appropriations for the discharge of state claims, I shall now, with the more confi-sue of my intended application. I shall be glad to receive and obey any suggestions which your excellency and the council may be pleased to make for the advancement of this object.

Trea. surer of the United States, dated the 28th instant, covering a draft drawn in my favour, payable at the branch bank, Baltimore, for 40,000 dollars, on account of the claim of the state of Maryland against the United States, for military expenditures during the late war, &c.

I have the honour to be, Very respectfully, Sir, Your Obt. Servt.

New-York, Jan. 29. FROM BUENOS AYRES. Official information has been re ceived by the government or Bue hos-Ayres, of the outrageous conduct of the privateer orig Maipo Capt. THE INDIAN CAPTIVE RE-· CLAIMED.

Vincennes. Ind. Dec. 26.

The following is a bri r statement of facts, by Mr. Euward Tannor, of New Madrid county, Mi. who passed through this place ou the 18th inst. with a brother, who, ater a captivity of 28 years, he has at length reclaimed from among the Chippawa Indians:

Mr. l'anner is a man of undoubted veracity and most excellent intelligence; and we much regret that for want of time, we are compelled to omit many interesting particulars in relation to his brother, and his own adventures in pursuit of nim, but the following will, no doubt, be read with some degree of interest, not only for the uncommon perseverance of that gentleman, but may facilitate others in recovering their friends, whom the disasters of Indian warfare have placed in similar situations. Mr. Tanner, is a son of the late John Tanner, who formerly resided at Tanner's Station on the Ohio. Mr. E. Tanher's younger brother, the subject of this story, in the year 1790, then about 9 years old, while gathering nuts, a few rods from the Station, was taken and carried off by the Indians. Various unsuccessful exertions were in e for his recovery previous to the year 1795 when Mr. Tanner ttended Gen. Wayne's treaty with the Indians at Granville. In 1798, he visited this place, and having heard that a number of Snawa ees and Delawares had gone over the Mississippi with Lorimore, an Indian trader, in 1799 he went and searched among them. In May, 1800, he lest home, in Woodford county. Ky. crossed the Onio at Cincinnat, examined through all the Indian tribes on the waters of the Mamis, the Scioto, Sandusky, Miami of the Lake, the rivers Raisin. Detroit, Sandwich, ai d Malden and through the principal part of the Indian country in Upper Canada, and all the waters that run into the south side of Lake Michigan; thence to the head of the Illinois, and to the Elkhart, the head of the Wabash, and down the west side of the Great Miami, crossed the Onio, home. B lieving his brother to be dead, he gave up further search until last March, when he received a letter from a Mr. Castleman, enclosing one from Lord Selkirk, which contained such information as left very little doubt of the existence of his brother amongst the Indians in the north.

Again, on the 1st of August last, Mr. Tanner set out, waited on go. vernor Clark, got such papers and instructions as his excellency tho't necessary, left St. Louis the 16th for Lord Selkirk's colony in the north; on his arrival at Prairie du Chien, an Indian trader at that post informed him that a man had coine into Michilimakinac with the Indians from the north-west, resembling him in person-changed his route, ascended the Ousconsin river to the portage, crossed to Fox river, ascended to Green Bay, obtained further encouraging information; and being informed that the person he was in pursuit of spoke the Chippewa tongue, procured an interpreter; sailed for Mackings on board he Widow's Son, capt. Rupely; arrived-got information that the said person had gone to Detroit-saired for that place-arrived-ealled on Gov. Cass, who informed him that he believed that the said person (who was called Taylor) had gone ro Kentucky, in search of his relations-eeing furnish d by his exceltency with horses. &c. pursued on to Fast Meigs-learned that the said person had beer, unsuccessful in his search after friends, and had returned-he then turned back, and ound his brother in the neighbourcod of Detroit, on the 17th of last
