MORNING CHIONICLE, A NEW DAILY PAPER.

OF BALTIMORE:

It is with unfergned reductance that the subsember begs leave to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Rubings. establish in Bakimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

With regard to the political character of this publication, he scorns any concealment—it will be decidedly of the Federal east. That federalism, which was known and practised in the day of Washington—that federalism, for which Hamilton wrote is fought, and for which Montenmery fell—that federal controls in the day of the controls of the control of the controls of the control of the cont and for which Montgomery fell-that feder railsm, which, with a large and comprehen-sive view, embraces all characters, so far as they augment the probperity and the gran-deur of their country, and which turns an eve of the most transcendant disdain on the little desirable. for office—that federalism, which would raise, ennoble, and aggrandize the character of our dear and beloved country, and in opposition to that detestable, mushroom fede ralism, whose only aim is to raise and to ag grandize private families—that federalism, that exults in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star spangled banner glittering over every sea; our commerce bounded by no other restric-tions than those of the ocean—that federalsin, that checis the honest hurbandnian at his plough, the merchant at his desk, and the mechanic at his anvil. He is too old, and the grave too near, for the subscriber to ourn an apostate now; to lend himself to the scurvy meanness of individual ambition; o to mistake his own welfare for the welfare of his country. These are the federal sen timents of the Editor, and such as he will timents of the Editor, and such as he will be sourced his dissolutions. be overned by until the hour of his dissolu tion. He seeks not individual patronage, he looks for support on his countrymen at large -- if he fails in this appeal to their confidence, he is content to remain unneticed

PAUL ALLEN,
Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.

TERMS.

THE MORNING CHEONICLE will be pub lished daily, at eight dollars per ann. From the patronage sheady offered, and from the flattering prospects held out, it is expected the publication will be commenced the 1st of October next. Although the Editor in-tends it shall be a newspaper, it is not his wish nor his interest to disregard the marine and mercantile departments; in these the will be usuated by persons well acquainted with the management of a commercial

It is intended to issue from the Morning Chronicle office, assoon as a sufficient num-ber of subscribers are obtained, a paper for the Country, to be published twice a at four dollars per annum, which will contain all the news-matter of the daily paper.

Every attention will be given to forward the paper to subscribers at a distance without delay.
