MORNING CHRONICLE,

A NEW DAILY PAPER. TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

It is with unfeigned reluctance that the subscriber be is leave to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Bakimore, to be denominated establish in Bakimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

With regard to the political character of th's publication, he scorns any concealment - it will be decidedly of the Federal cast: Thu federal sin, which was known and prac tiled in the day of Washington-that federalism, for which Hamilton wrote clought, and for which Monigomery fell-that federalism, which, with a large and comprehenthey augment the prosperity and the grandeur of their country, and which turns an eve of the most transcendant disdain on the hule, despicable, mean personal bickerings for office—that federalism, which would raise, ennoble, and aggrandize the charac opposition to that detestable, mushroom fede ralism, whose only aim is to raise and to ag grandize private families—that federalism, that exults in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star spangled banner glittering over every sea; ir commerce bounded by no other restric tions than those of the ocean—that federal is plough, the merchant at his desk, and the mechanic at his anvil. He is too old, and the grave too near, for the subscriber to urn an apostate now; to lend himself to the scurvy meanness of individual ambition; or to mistake his own welfare for the welfare o his country. These are the federal sen diments of the Eddior, and such as he will be meeted by tratil the hour of his dissolution. He weeks to the hour of ni-dissoft to the hooks for support on his countrymen at large, life hooks for support on his countrymen at large, life he fails in this speed to their confidence, he is content to remain unnoticed and forgotten.

Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.
