HENRY CHILDS, Adm'r. Feb. 25.

By His Excellency Charles Goldsborough, Esquire, Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it has been represented to me by a considerable number of respectable persons, inhabitants of the neighbourhood of Rockhall, in Kent county, who, in December last, formed themselves into a society for the purpose of detecting & bringing to punishment, according to law, negroes and other thieves, and the receivers of stolen goods; that in consequence of their exertions to carry the laws of the state against such offenders into effect, some of the members and principal officers of the society have sustained serious injury by unknown midnight incendiaries; that a barn of Benjamin Hanson and a corn-house of Richard Brice have been burnt down, and a stable belonging to William Crane set on fire, and that there appears to be a systematic plan among the above described offenders, to destroy by fire, the houses and property of every member of the society; Now, in order that the perpetrators of the above crimes may be brought to punishment, and the repetition of similar outrages prevented, I have thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council offer a reward of One Hundred Dollars to any person who shall discover, apprehend, and prosecute to conviction the offenders in each case herein specified, or Fifty Dollars for each offender, if more than one; And I also offer a Pardon to any one of the persons implicated in the said offences, who shall discover, and bring to conviction, the residue of the persons concerned in the perpetration thereof.

Given under my hand, and the seal of the state of Maryland, this twenty eighth day of January, (U. S.) eighteen hundred and nine teen.

CHARLES GOLDSBOROUGH By his Excellency's command, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

Ordered, That the above Proclamation be published twice a week for four weeks in the Maryland Gazette, Federal Gazette, & Federal Republican.

Feb. 11.

THE MORNING CHRONICLE, A NEW DAILY PAPER, TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

It is with unfeigned reluctance that the subscriber begs leave to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Baltimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

With regard to the political character of this publication, it seems any concealment—it will be decidedly of the Federal cast: That federalism, which was known and practised in the day of Washington—that federalism, for which Hamilton wrote, fought, and for which Montgomery fell—that federalism, which, with a large and comprehensive view, embraces all characters, so far as they are great for the prosperity and grandeur of their country, and which turns an eye of the most ancestral disdain on the little, despicable, mean personal bickerings for office—at that federalism, which would raise, ennoble, and aggrandize the character of our dear and beloved country, and in opposition to that detestable, mis-named federalism, whose only aim is to raise and aggrandize private families—that federalism, that exalts in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star-spangled banner glittering over every sea, our commerce bounded by no other restrictions than those of the ocean—that federalism, that cheers the honest husbandman at his plough, the merchant at his desk, and the mechanic at his anvil. He is too true, and the cause too near, for the subscriber to turn an apostate now, to lend himself to the security of a mean, individual ambition, or to mistake his own welfare for the welfare of his country. These are the federal sentiments of the Editors, and such as he will be governed by until the hour of his dissolution. He seeks not individual patronage, he looks for support on his countrymen at large—if he fails in this appeal to their confidence, he is content to remain unnoticed and forgotten.

PAUL ALLEN, Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.

TERMS.

THE MORNING CHRONICLE will be published daily, at eight dollars per ann. From the patronage of each reader, and from the flattering prospects held out, it is expected the publication will be commenced the 1st of October next. Although the Editor intends it shall be a newspaper, it is not his wish nor his interest to disregard the native and mercantile departments, in these he will be assisted by the assistance afforded with the management of a commercial paper.

It is intended to issue from the Morning Chronicle office, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained, a paper for the Country, to be published twice a week, at four dollars per annum, which will contain all the news-matter of the daily paper.

Every attention will be given to forward the paper to subscribers at a distance without delay.

Letters addressed to the Editor, No. 50 North Frederick street, will be attended to Baltimore, Sept. 7, 1815.

Anne Arundel County, September Term, 1818.

On application to the honourable Richard Ridgely, Esquire, one of the associate judges of Anne Arundel county court, in the recess of the said court, by petition in writing of Samuel Litchfield, of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, and of the several supplements thereto, and of the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors on oath, as far as he could ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said Samuel Litchfield having stated in his petition that he was in actual confinement, and prayed to be discharged therefrom, and the said Richard Ridgely being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Samuel Litchfield had resided in the State of Maryland the two preceding years prior to his said application, it was ordered that the said Samuel Litchfield be discharged from his confinement; and it is further ordered and adjudged by Anne Arundel county court, that the said Samuel Litchfield, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis, for three successive months, before the third Monday of April next,) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, to be held at the city of Annapolis, on Friday the 23d day of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said Samuel Litchfield then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed, for delivering up his property, and to shew cause, if any they have why he the said Samuel Litchfield should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors.

Annapolis, Sept 24, 1818.

Land for Sale.

I will sell the land whereon I live, situated on Herring Bay, in Anne Arundel county, about 20 miles from the city of Annapolis, and about 50 miles from Baltimore; it contains between nine hundred and one thousand acres, is considered by judges to be inferior to no land in the county for the cultivation of tobacco, and is acted upon by plaster and capable of great improvement by clover, a great proportion of the land is covered with wood timber & may be easily carried to market, having the advantage of fine landing places, being bounded by the water. Persons inclined to purchase it is presumed, will view the premises, which they are invited to do. The terms will be accommodating on payment of part of the purchase money in hand. For terms apply to Nicholas Brewer, who is authorised to contract for the land. GEORGE HOGARTH. July 9.

LANDS FOR SALE.

By virtue of a deed of trust from Richard H. Harwood, Esq. of the city of Annapolis, the subscribers offer for sale the following lands, to wit: A plantation on Elk Ridge, in Anne Arundel county, on which the said Richard H. Harwood resided, about three miles above M'Coy's Tavern, containing about 412 1/2 acres. The roads from M'Coy's up the country, and from Owens's mills to Baltimore, pass through this land. The best judges are of opinion that it is capable of being made equal to any of the Elk Ridge lands. There are on it a good dwelling house, and convenient out houses a garden, a spring of most excellent water very near the house, and an ice house. They will also sell parts of several tracts of land, the whole being in one body, and containing about 416 1/4 acres, being in Charles county, adjoining Bean Town. For terms apply to the subscribers, HENRY H. HARWOOD, RICHARD HARWOOD, of Thos. Annapolis, Sept. 3.

The Editors of the Federal Gazette and American of Baltimore, are requested to insert the above notice a week for three weeks, and forward their accounts to this office.
