VOL. LXXVII

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1819.

LAW INTELLIGENCE

JOHN M'HENRY

Of Allegany County, GIVES NOTICE

That he has ready for publication work styled,

Ejectment Law of Maryland

The plan of this work has been arranged as to embrace, within a narrow compass all the decisions of the courts of law deemed worthy of notice, relating to the title and location of land from the earliest period down to the present time. It also contains an introductory view of the origin of the land titles of Maryland, and the circumstances under which they emanated from Lord Proprietary, the source whence almost all our land titles are derived. The work will be printed as soon as a number of subscribers sufficient to defray the expense of it shall have been procured.

The author takes this opportunity to give notice, that having, since he retired from the Bar, directed his professional pursuits more particularly to the land titles of Maryland, he will confine himself to that department of the law, and not intending to engage in the litigation of the Bar, will give counsel in all matters and controversies concerning the title and location of land in Maryland. Letters (post paid) directed to Young Green Green post office, Allegany county, will be attended to.

His Excellency Charles Goldsborough, Esquire, Governor of Maryland,

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it has been represented to me, that a considerable number of restless persons, inhabitants of the neighbourhood of Rockhall, in Kent county, who, in December last, formed themselves into a society for the purpose of detecting & bringing to punishment, according to law, negroes and thieves, and the receivers of their goods; that in consequence of their actions to carry the laws of the state against such offenders into effect, some members and principal officers of the society have sustained serious injuries by unknown midnight incendiaries; that a barn of Benjamin Hran and a corn-house of Richard Brice were burnt down, and a stable belonging to William Crane set on fire, that there appears to be a systematic plan among the above described persons, to destroy by fire, the houses and property of every member of the society; Now, in order that the perpetrators of the above crime, may be brought to punishment, and the repetition of similar outrages prevented, I thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council offer a reward of One Hundred Dollars to any person who shall discover, apprehend, and prosecute to conviction, the offenders in each case herein specified, fifty Dollars for each offender, if more than one; And I also offer a Part to any one of the persons implicated in the said offences, who shall give, and bring to conviction, the names of the persons concerned in the perpetration thereof.

Given under my hand, and the seal of the state of Maryland, this twenty eighth day of January, 1819, eighteen hundred and nine teen.

CHARLES GOLDSBOROUGH,

his Excellency's command.

NINIAN PINKNEY,

Clerk of the Council.

Ordered, That the above Proclamation be published twice a week for four weeks in the Maryland Gazette, Federal Gazette, & Federal Republican.

THE MORNING CHRONICLE, A NEW DAILY PAPER.

TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

It is with unfeigned reluctance that the subscriber here leaves to solicit the attention of the Public to a new Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Baltimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

With regard to the political character of this publication, he avails himself of the opportunity to declare, that it will be decidedly of the Federal cast. That federalism, which was known and practiced in the day of Washington—that federalism, for which Hamilton wrote, fought, and for which Montgomery fell—that federalism, which, with a large and comprehensive view, embraces all characters, so far as they augment the prosperity and the grandeur of their country, and which turns an eye of the most transcendent disdain on the vile, despicable, mean, personal bickerings for office—that federalism, which would raise, embolden, and aggrandize the character of our dear and beloved country, and in opposition to that able, illustrious federalist, whose only aim is to raise and to aggrandize private families—that federalism, that exalts in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star-spangled banner glittering over every sea, our commerce bounded by no other restrictions than those of the ocean—that federalism, that cheers the honest husbandman at his plough, the merchant at his desk, and the mechanic at his anvil. He is too old, and the grave too near, for the subscriber to turn an apostate now; to lend himself to the sordid meanness of individual ambition, or to mistake his own welfare for the welfare of his country. These are the federal sentiments of the Editor, and such as he will be governed by until the hour of his dissolution. He seeks not individual patronage, he looks for support on his countrymen at large—if he fails in this appeal to their confidence, he is content to remain unnoticed and forgotten.

PAUL ALLEN, Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.

TERMS.

THE MORNING CHRONICLE will be published daily, at eight dollars per annum. From the patronage of a daily offered, and from the flattering prospects held out, it is expected the publication will be commenced the 1st of October next. Although the Editor intends it shall be a newspaper, it is not his wish nor his interest to disregard the marine and mercantile departments; in these he will be assisted by persons well acquainted with the management of a commercial paper.

It is intended to issue from the Morning Chronicle office, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained, a paper for the Country, to be published twice a week, at four dollars per annum, which will contain all the news-matter of the daily paper.

Every attention will be given to forward the paper to subscribers at a distance without delay.

Letters addressed to the Editor, No. 50 North Frederick street, will be attended to.

Baltimore, Sept. 7, 1818.

Anne-Arundel County,

September Term, 1818.

On application to the honourable Richard Ridgely, Esquire, one of the associate judges of Anne Arundel county court, in the recess of the said court, by petition in writing of Samuel Litchfield, of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, and of the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors on oath, as far as he could ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said Samuel Litchfield having stated in his petition that he was in actual confinement, and prayed to be discharged therefrom, and the said Richard Ridgely being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Samuel Litchfield had resided in the State of Maryland the two preceding years prior to his said application, it was ordered that the said Samuel Litchfield be discharged from his confinement; and it is further ordered and adjudged by Anne Arundel county court, that the said Samuel Litchfield, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis, for three successive months, before the third Monday of April next,) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, on Friday the 23d day of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said Samuel Litchfield then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed, for delivering up his property, and to shew cause, if any they have why he should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors.

Land for Sale.

I will sell the land whereon I live, situated on Herring Bay, in Anne Arundel county, about 20 miles from the city of Annapolis, and about 50 miles from Baltimore; it contains between nine hundred and one thousand acres, is considered by judges to be inferior to no land in the county for the cultivation of tobacco, and is acted upon by plaster and capable of great improvement by clover, a great proportion of the land is covered with wood timber, & may be easily carried to market, having the advantage of fine landing places, being bounded by the water. Persons inclined to purchase it is presumed, will view the premises, which they are invited to do. The terms will be accommodating on payment of part of the purchase money in hand. For terms apply to Nicholas Brewer, who is authorized to contract for the land.

GEOGE HOGARTH, July 9 36

LANDS FOR SALE.

By virtue of a deed of trust from Richard H. Harwood, Esq. of the city of Annapolis, the subscribers offer for sale the following lands, to wit: A plantation on Elk Ridge, in Anne Arundel county, on which the said Richard H. Harwood resided, about three miles above M' Coy's Tavern, containing about 412 1/2 acres. The roads from M' Coy's to the country, and from Owens's mills to Baltimore, pass through this land. The best judges are of opinion that it is capable of being made equal to any of the Elk Ridge lands. There are on it a good dwelling house, and convenient out houses, a garden, a spring of most excellent water very near the house, and an ice house. They will also sell parts of several tracts of land, the whole being in one body, and containing about 416 1/4 acres, being in Charles county, adjoining Bean Town. For terms apply to the subscribers, HENRY H. HARWOOD, RICHARD HARWOOD, of Thos Annapolis, Sept. 3.

The Editors of the Federal Gazette and American of Baltimore, are requested to insert the above twice a week for three weeks, and forward their accounts to this office.

NOTICE.

All persons having claims against the estate of Isaac Simmons, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are hereby requested to present the same, legally authenticated to the subscriber, and those indebted to make immediate payment.
