A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it has been represented to me by a considerable number of res neignmourhood of Rockhall, in Kent county, who, in December last, formed the aselves into a society for the purpose of detecting & bringing to panish ment, according to law, negroes and other thieves, and the receivers of stolen goods; that in consequence of their exe tions to carry the laws of the state agamse such offenders into effect some of the members and principal officers of se society have sustained serious injury by unknown midnight incendi ar es; that a harn of Benjamin Hanson, and a corn-house of Richard Brice have been burnt down, and a stable be longing to William Crane set on fire and, that there appears to be a syste or ore plan among the above described anders, to destroy by fire, the houses and property of every member of the society: Now, in order that the perpetuaces of the above crimes may be be night to punishment, and the repe tition of similar outrages prevented. I have thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do by and with the ad ice and consent of the Council offer a reward of the Hundred Dollars to any person wao shall discover, appre head, and prosecute to conviction offen fers in each case herein specified, or Fifty Dollars for each offender, if more than one: And I also offer a l'ardon to any one of the persons impli-cated in the said offences, who shall discover, and bring to conviction, the residue of the persons concerned in the perpetration thereof.

THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

A NEW DAILY PAPER, TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

It is with unfeigne reductance that the subser bei begs leave to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Bakimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

With regard to the political enaracter of this publication, se scorns any concealment — it will be decidedly of the Federal cast: That federalism, which was known and practised in the day of Washington—that lederalism. tised in the day of Washington—that lederalism, for which Hamilton wrote—fought, and for which Montgomery fell—that lederalism, which, with a large and comprehensive view, embraces all characters, so fir as they a igment the prosperity and the grandeur of their country, and which turns an account of the property and which turns and the prosperity and the grandeur of their country, and which turns and the prosperity and the pros eve of the most anscendant disd in on the hule, despicable, mean personal bickerings for office -t at federalism, which would raise, ennoble, and aggrandize the character of our does not be seen as ter of our dear and belo: ed country, and in opposition to that detestable, mushroom fede , whose only aim is to raise and to aggrandize private timiles that rederalism, that exults in the spectable of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star spangled hanner glitte ing over every sea; our commerce bounded by no other re-tic. tions than those of the ocean -that lederal ism, that cheers the honest husband can at his plough, the merchant at his desk, and the mechanic at his anvil. He is too old, and the grave too near, for the subscriber to turn an abostate now, to lend himsel to t e scurvy meanness of individual ambition or o' his country. These are the federal sentiments of the Edisor, and such as he will be governed by until the hour of his dissolu He seeks not individual pationage, he looks for support on his countrymen at large - if he fails in this appeal to their confidence, he is content to remain unnoticed

Land for Sale.

I will sell the land whereon I live, ituated on Herring Bay, in Anne A. undel county, about 20 miles from the city of Annapolis, and about 50 miles from Baltimore; it contains between nine hundred and one thousand acres. is considered by judges to be inferior to no land in the county for the cultivation of tobacco, and is acted upon by plaister and capable of great improvement by clover, a great proportion of the land is covered with wood timber & may be easily carried to market, hav. ing the advantage of fine landing places, being bounded by the water. sons inclined to purchase it is presumed, will view the premises, which they are invited to do. The terms will be accommodating on payment of part of the purchase money in hand For terms apply to Nicholas Brewer, who is authorised to contract for the land GEORGE HOGARTH.

LANDS FOR SALE.

By virtue of a deed of trust from Richard II Harwood, Esq. of the city of Annapolis, the subscribers offer for sale the following lands, to wit: A planta-tion on Elk Ridge, in Anne Arundel county, on which the said Richard H. Harwood resided, about three miles above M'Coy's Tavern, containing about 412 1 2 acres. The roads from M'Coy's up the country, and from Owens's mills to Baltimore, pass through this land. The best judges are of opinion that it is capable of being made equal to any of the Elk Ridge lands There are on it a good dwelling house, and convenient out houses a garden, a spring of most excellent water very near the house, and an ice house. They will also sell parts of several tracts of land, the whole being in one body, and containing about 416 14 acres, being in Charles county, adjoining Bean Town, For terms apply to the subscribers,
