THE MORNING CHRONICLE, A NEW DAILY PAPER,

TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

It is with unfeigned reductance that the subset her begs leave to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Baltimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE. With regard to the political character of this publication, he scorns any concealment—it will be decidedly of the Federal cast: It is with unfeigned reluctance that the

That federalism, which was known and practised in the day of Washington—that lederalism, for which Hamilton wrote—fought, and for which Montgomery fell—that federalism. ralism, which, with a large and comprehen-sive view, embraces all characters, so far as they augment the prosperity and the gran-deur of their country, and which turns an eye of the most transcendant disdain on the little, despicable, mean, personal bickerings for office—that federalism, which would raise, ennoble, and aggrandize the character of our dear and beloved country, and ir opposition to that detestable, mushroom fede ralism, whose only aim is to raise and to ag ratism, whose only aim is to raise and to ag-grandize private families—that federalism, that exults in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the star spangled banner glittering over every sea; our commerce bounded by no other restrictions than those of the ocean-that federal-ism, that cheers the honest husbandman at his plough, the merchant at his desk, and the mechanic at his anvil. He is too old, and the grave too near, for the subscriber to turn an apostate now; to lend himself to the scurvy meanness of individual ambition; or to mistake his own welfare for the welfare to mistake his own welfare for the welfare of his country. These are the tederal sentiments of the Edisor, and such as he will be governed by until the hour of his dissolution. He seeks not individual patronage, he looks for support on his countrymen at large—if he fails in this appeal to their confidence, he is content to remain unnoticed and furcotten.

PAUL ALLEN, Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.
