TO THE PUBLIC.

The subscriber will trane, in the ourse of a few days, the first number I a weekly . UBLICATION, to be print ed on a single sheet, the size of a common newspaper.

As, from the plan of the proposed publication, and the nature of its contents, it ought to become a work of permanent utility, it will be printed in the quarto form, so as to be more con veniently pre-orved, in volumes

A principal portion of each number. will be reserved for essays on AGRI TLTU . E. GRAZING, the best princi oles of BREEDING LIVE STOCK-and in short, for observations on all the various branches of RUBAL and LONES ric moonomy;-The next portion for original and selected articles on miscelaneous subjects, and a brief chronicle of passing events; And finally, the country subscriber may rely upon find ing in each number a correct account of the prices of country produce and of the principal articles in the common market.

This brief exposition will enable the reader to comprehend clearly the scope of the intended publication; which taking its name from its most promi nent feature, will bear the title of THE AMERICAN FARMER, and addres sing itself to the interests of all class es, it will not in any way interfere in mere party contentions. There appearnow, happily, to be a growing f ndness throughout our country, for agricul u ral research and experiment; and there can be no doubt that a publication of this nature which should communicate the efforts making, and the lights al ready acquired by experience, in other states and countries, would excite a feeling of emulation, and give an im pulse to public spirit in Maryland, from which the best consequences might be expected to result "THE AMERICAN FARMER" will open a new ground, and is not intended, or in its nature, calculated to interfere with any established publication.

For the manner in which his under aking will be executed, the subscriber can offer only the pledge of some little experience in, and an ardent predilection for agricultural pursuits. Besides a valuable collection already made he has taken measures to be supplied with the new publications of our own country and of Europe, and he expects to be aided by the correspondence of in telligent landholders With there ex planations, offered in eincerity & truth, he informs those who may feel dispos ed to subscribe, that "The American Farmer" will be published for $1 per nnum, pavable half yearly in advance. ST. JUILN'S COLLEGE.

The Visitors and Governors of St. John's College, have the pleasure of an nothering to the Public, that the College has recently been revived under the direction of the Rev. Henry L. Divia and the Rev. William Hafferty. The former of these gentlemen gradu. ated at Carlisle College during the Pre-sidency of the late celebrated Doctor Nesbit; and few inhabitants of Maryland, accustomed to mingle in the lite rary world, will require any reconmendation of his learning and ability. or of his experience in the important business of education. Mr. Rufferty was educated at Glusgow, in Scotland, where he obtained the degree of Master of Arts; and the greater portion of his time, since his departure from that renowned seat of Learning, has been devoted to the instruction of youth, both in Europe and America. Fre produces from gentlemen of high standing, both in that country and this, to whom he was well known, the strongest testi monials with regard to character and qualifications. With these gentlemen the Visitors entertain hopes of being soon enabled to associate a Professor or Chemistry; and as the number of pupils, and the funds of the institution increase, additional Professorships will

The regulations of St. John's College have lately been revised and new modelled by the Visitors, who confidently recommend it as possessing advantages equal to any Seminary in America, both in point of discipline, & as a nur sery for the attainment of classical Learning, and those branches of sci ence usually taught in Colleges.

Annapolis has long been distinguish ed for the beauty of its situation, and the salubrity of its air; and being the seat of Government, where the Legislature and Supreme Courts hold their sessions, an opportunity is thereby afforded to the students of hearing the principal orators and lawyers of the state, which cannot but prove highly useful to those, who may be designed for the learned Professions The stu dents can be accommodated with board for two hundred dollars per annum, & the price of tuition is Forty Dollars per annum, payable quarterly in ad vance.

It is only intended at this time to ubmit a brief outline of the course of studies designated by the Board; a more detailed account of this, as well as of the discipline of the College, will be given

An extensive selection of the Latin & Greek Classicks; the various branch es of the Mathematics, viz. Arithmetic, Algebra. Geometry, Trigonometry Surveying, Navigation, Conic Sections and Fluxions. Geography, with the use of the Globes; Natural Philosophy; Astronomy; Moral Philosophy; Rheterick; Logic; Reid's Essays; Dugald Stewart's Philosophy of the Mind; His tory, and Political Economy. While prosecuting their other studies, parti ular care will be taken to instruct the students in the nature and evidences of the Christian Religion Attention will also be paid by the Professors to teach them to read their own language with propriety and elegance; for which pur oose they will hear them recite lessons from Walker's Lectures on Elecution. and such English Authors as they may think best adapted to their capacity, & calculated to be most useful to them.

It may be proper to observe, that al tho' there is no French Teacher attach ed to the College, there is a Gentleman in Annapolis who teaches that langu age, so that the students will have ar opportunity of learning it during the hours which are not occupied by Col legiate exercises.
