No. 4.—Capt. Biddle to Lord Cochrane dated on board the Ontario, Dec. 23, 1818.

Sir—I have had the honour to receive the communication with which your Lordship honoured me this morning. No. 5.—Lord Cochrane to Captain Biddle, dated Valparaiso, same date.

Sir—The letter with which you favoured me this morning, and in which you inform me that your visit was in your capacity of officer of the U. S. Marine, and as a mark of your respect for the officer who commands the naval forces of the Chilian government, you leave me to understand, that in omitting the salute, you could have no intention of failing in the respect you owe the Chilian flag; the more so, when in the sentence which follows, you plainly confess that you knew "that when a vessel of war entered a foreign port, it is customary to fire a salute; and that the knowledge of this circumstance induced you, when you entered this port in Jan. ult. to give formal advice of your arrival to the government, and gave him notice, that you would fire the customary salute, if it would be answered with an equal number of guns."

2.—Capt. Biddle to Lord Cochrane, dated on board the Ontario, before Valparaiso, Dec. 28, 1818.

In answer to your letter of yesterday, I have the honour to state, that the visit which I made to your Lordship on my arrival, was in the capacity of an officer of the U. S. Marine, and as a mark of my respect for the commanding officer of the naval forces of the Chilian government. I know well that when a vessel of war arrives in a foreign port, it is customary to fire a public salute, & knowledge of this circumstance induced me, when I entered this port in Jan. ult., to give formal advice of my arrival to the government, and to notify him that I would fire the customary salute, if he would be answered with an equal number of guns. My offer to salute was not accepted, and consequently your Lordship will see with how much propriety I excuse myself for doing it. I have the honour to be, Sir, your obedient servant.

No. 6.—Lord Cochrane to Captain Biddle, dated Dec. 30.

In consequence of the respect & consideration which in your first letter, you manifested for the Chilian government, and the amicable intercourse which subsists, & which I hope will long continue between the United States and this country, I have to request of you, in the event of your intention soon to leave the port, to be pleased to postpone your departure until after the sailing of the squadron, which is on the point of going to sea. Yours, &c.

Captain Biddle to Lord Cochrane, dated December 30.

In answer to your Lordship's letter, I have the honour to inform you, that although I am anxious to put to sea without delay, and notwithstanding I had it in contemplation to sail this morning, yet, as I am desirous to accede to whatever may be agreeable to the Chilian government as far as it is in my power, I have determined to remain in port during this day; but it will be my indispensable duty to sail tomorrow, and I hope that the delay of this day will be sufficient to accomplish the views of the Chilian government; and, to speak the truth, as my object is to double Cape Horn, it seems to me that my departure cannot be in any way prejudicial to the views of the squadron. I have the honour, &c.

THE REAL JUNIUS.

Copy of a letter from H. Campbell, Esq. to A. S. to a clergyman at Oxford. London, Suffolk-street, March 9, 1819. Rev. and Dear Sir,—The flattering and generous manner in which you applauded my humble exertions in favour of the first of British bards (Osian), and the pleasing task you imposed upon me, to acquaint you with the transactions of the Highland Society, with respect to my proofs of that poet's authenticity (which, flatteringly you hold to be the only reasonable ones yet offered to the world,) impel me to inform you that I have yet had no answer from the Highland Society on the subject; but my noble namesake, the Earl of Breadalbane, has an opinion similar to your own, of the merit of the work—and like a true Gale, has generously promised me that the honourable society will avoid the imputation of negligence, and do the author justice.

And that I am, Rev. and Dear Sir, very faithfully, your Credit Judge Apella, H. CAMPBELL.

Westchester, (Pa.) May 5. Some time last October, Mr. Caleb Matlack, of this neighbourhood, lost his pocket book, containing a note of hand for 30 dollars, a ten dollar bank bill, and some other papers. On Saturday last as he was at work near the spot where he supposed it was lost, his faithful dog came running to him with the pocket book in his mouth. On examination its contents were fortunately in so good a state of preservation that nothing will be lost.—Record.

RICHARD RIDGELY.

May 18.

300 Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber, living on South River, in Anne Arundel county, Maryland, on Tuesday night the 5th inst. three young Negro Men: MOSES, Alias Moses Johnson, aged about 30 years, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, very black and well set, round & pleasant countenance when spoken to, no particular marks recollected; his clothing when he eloped, was a round dark coloured overjacket, trousers of mixed brown cloth, shirt of common osanburg, and felt hat

DAVY BOSTON,

Very nearly of the same description of Moses, (aged about 20 years,) except his complexion, which is rather of a yellow cast, has a mark on the left side of his mouth, or rather on the cheek, which is about one inch long and raised the thickness of a large knitting needle; this mark cannot fail of being perceived if examined, by which Davy cannot be mistaken—his clothes it is deemed unnecessary to describe, as he has no doubt changed them

DICK BOSTON,

Aged about 18 years, brother to Davy, rather slender, and of a dark complexion, approaching to black; is about 5 feet 8 inches high, has a fine set of teeth, thick lips, and rather a surly countenance; his clothing consisting of short blue coat and pantaloons, osanburg shirt, and a wool hat. Each of them were in possession of a pair of strong shoes well nailed.

I will give for the apprehension of the above described negroes, if secured in any goal in the state of Maryland so that I get them again, 150 dollars, or 50 dollars for either of them, and if taken out of the state, and secured in any goal so that I get them again, I will give 300 dollars, and in proportion for either of them
