Some people in our country think of helping them, and have sent us to speak with Sherbro.

Parts of our instructions were read, with many additional observations, and the whole was carefully interpreted.

Kong Couber, who managed the whole business on their part, replied, all you say is well, very well.

Mr. K. is a second Paul Cisse. He has a good mind and considerable knowledge.

Since Mr. K. has been in this country, he has saved five persons from death.

Mr. K. brought some cattle from the Kittam country to this island some years ago.
