

POET'S CORNER.

From the New York Evening Post.

We republish the following beautiful lines from our own files, of October last, for the three following reasons: first, because they deserve it from their intrinsic merit—they are the inspiration of poetry itself; second, because they were injured in their first publication by a typographical error; and lastly, because they show that our correspondent, Croaker, (whose we have just discovered they are,) no less resembles Peter Pindar in his elegiac than in his humorous and satiric vein.

STANZAS.

There is an evening twilight of the heart, When its wild passion waves are lull'd to rest; And the eye views life's fairy scenes depart, As fades the day beam in the rosy west. 'Tis with a nameless feeling of regret, We gaze upon them as they melt away; And fondly would we bid them linger yet. But hope is round us with her angel lay, Hailing afar some happier moonlight hour, Dear are her whispers still, tho' lost their early pow'r.

In youth, the cheek was crimsoned with her glow, Her smile was loveliest then—her matin song Was heaven's own music, and the note of woe Was all unheard, her Eden bowers among. Life's little world of bliss was nearly born; We knew not—cared not—it was born to die— Flush'd with the breeze; wet with the dew of morn; With dancing heart we gaz'd on the pure sky, And mock'd the passing cloud that dimm'd its blue— Like our own sorrows they, as fleeting and as few.

And manhood felt her sway too: On the eye Half realiz'd her early beams burst bright; Her proud bower of happiness seem'd high, Its days of joy, its vigils of delight, And tho' at times might lower the thunder storm, And the red lightning threaten—still the smile with her breath; and her form The rainbow of the heart, was hovering there. 'Tis in life's moon tide she is nearest seen, Her wreath, the summer flower; her robe, of summer green.

But, tho' less dazzling in her twilight dress, There's more of heaven's pure beam about her now That smile will mingle with the evening star That points our destined tomb; nor'er depart 'Till the faint light of life is fled afar, And hush'd the last, deep beating of the heart. The meteor bearer of our parting breath— A moon beam in the midnight storm of death.

LANDS FOR SALE.

By virtue of a deed of trust from Richard H. Harwood, Esq. of the city of Annapolis, the subscribers offer for sale the following lands, to wit: A plantation on Elk Ridge, in Anne Arundel county, on which the said Richard H. Harwood resided, about three miles above Mc-Coy's Tavern, containing about 412 1/2 acres. The roads from Mc-Coy's to the country, and from Owens's mills to Baltimore, pass through this land. The best judges are of opinion that it is capable of being made equal to any of the Elk Ridge lands. There are on it a good dwelling house, and convenient out houses, a garden, a spring of most excellent water very near the house, and an ice house. They will also sell parts of several tracts of land, the whole being in one body, and containing about 416 1/4 acres, being in Charles county, adjoining Bean Town. For terms apply to the subscribers, HENRY H. HARWOOD, RICHARD HARWOOD, of Thos. Annapolis, Sept. 3.

The Editors of the Federal Gazette and American of Baltimore, are requested to insert the above twice a week for three weeks, and forward their accounts to this office.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new Election District, to be called The Eighth District, shall be established in Baltimore county, which district shall be bounded as follows: beginning at the head of tide water, at the mouth of the Little Falls of Gunpowder, and running up the said falls to the old Harford road near Amosa's mill, and from thence down the said road, passing Cromwell's bridge, to Thomas Mills's dwelling house on said road; and from thence to the head of the White Marsh Run, and down the said run to tide water on Bird's river, and thence round with the shore of said river and Gunpowder River to the place of beginning. 2. And be it enacted, That all elections for said district shall be holden at the public house therein now kept by Abraham King, under the like authority and regulations as elections are or may be holden in other districts of the county, and all voters residing within the limits of said district, and none other, shall vote at the elections to be therein holden, and not elsewhere, under the like privileges and duties of voters in their other districts respectively. 3. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly after the next election of delegates, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alterations and amendments of the constitution and form of government therein contained, from and after the first Monday in October eighteen hundred and twenty one, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, until the contrary shall be provided by law. 300 Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber, living on South River, in Anne Arundel county, Maryland, on Tuesday night the 15th last three young Negro Men:

MOSES,

Alias Moses Johnson, aged about 30 years, about 5 feet, 8 or 9 inches high, very black and well set, round and pleasant countenance when spoken to, no particular marks recollected; his clothing when he eloped, was a round drab coloured over jacket, trousers of mixed brown cloth, shirt of common osanburg, and felt hat.

DAVY BOSTON,

Very nearly of the same description of Moses, (aged about 20 years,) except his complexion, which is rather of a yellow cast, has a mark on the left side of his mouth, or rather on the cheek, which is about one inch long, and raised the thickness of a large knitting-needle; this mark cannot fail of being perceived if examined, by which Davy cannot be mistaken—his clothes it is deemed unnecessary to describe, as he has no doubt changed them.

DICK BOSTON,

Aged about 18 years, brother to Davy, rather slender, and of a dark complexion, approaching to black; is about 5 feet 8 inches high, has a fine set of teeth, thick lips, and rather a surly countenance; his clothing consisting of short blue coat and pantaloons, osanburg shirt, and a wool hat. Each of them were in possession of a pair of strong shoes well nailed.

I will give for the apprehension of the above described negroes, if secured in any gaol in the state of Maryland so that I get them again, 150 dollars, or 50 dollars for either of them, and if taken out of the state, and secured in any gaol so that I get them again, I will give 300 dollars, and in proportion for either of them. SOLOMON SPARROW, May 13.
