Elkridge Academy.

As the subscriber had formed, during he Spring, some design of dissolving his metitution, this method is embraced, to inform his friends and the public, that arrangements are now making to establish it on a permanent foundation: and by enlarging its plan, he hopes to render it more worthy public patro-nage and more extensive in its utility. The Classical Department will be under the subscriber's own immediate care, whilst the entire attention of ano ther will be devoted to the teaching of the Mathematics and elementary Eng lish. By which arrangement the pupil and arrive at Fredericktown by 11 AM. will advance with an equal step in Clas sical & Mathematical Science: his studies willbe agreeably & profitably diversified, and he will be qualified, either for the course of philosophy at College, or the avocations of active life. It will also be understood, that the number of pupils is lin ited; that no teacher shall ever have more than 25-which number may be well taught by any man who will discharge his duty.

The year is divided into two sessions of five and a half months each Board 75 dollars-Tuition 25 dollars per session-the pupil finding only bed and bedding.

N. B. The second session is now somewhat advanced, and a proper deduction will be made to those who now enter, for the time that has elapsed,
