Tuesday, Aug. 10, 1819 A. A very large and respectable meeting of the Rederal Republicans of Palhor County, was held this day at the Court House, in the town of Easton, pursuant to bublic notice. Selected for the Double Gilelle!

pointed Secretary of the meeting.
The meeting being organised and the object concisely developed by roughe Esquire, rose and addressed the meeting in a luminous and energetic speech, in which he took an able retrospective view of the affairs of this country, from the year 1790 they governed this nation, and the continuance of that prosperity un-every side, and threatened to over-

He then took a succinct view of the prominent points of state politics-particularly of the tendency of the measures of the Democratic Party and their contemplated plans, to lay the political influence of the counties prostrate at the feet of the City of Baltimore. That no man was more willing than himself to accord to Baltimore, the blessings of good government, and to gratify her in every measure that could increase the comforts and happiness of her citizens, invigorate her pecuniary operations, and enlarge and

ext. nd her commercial prosperity.

But that it would be the height of madness to bind the steady yeomanry of the country, the honest and hardy cultivators of the soil, and villages and country places, as victims to the overpowering influence of the ever varying and fickle population of a great commercial city.

That with Baltimore, we had a common interest and ought to extend to her a common and generous benevosuch dangerous and disastrous innovations, as sought to magnify and xtend her political influence, at the NOBLE ACT. As the Huntress Packet, captain Beecher, was returning from New York last week, a child of Mr. Hoyle, by some unlucky accident, fell overboard. The wind blew fresh, and the unhappy parents beheld in agony their only son on the brink of eternity, without one ray of hope that he could be rescued. In this distressing moment, while the vesimore & West River | sel was passing rapidly through the vens, sprang from the quarter deck, committing himself to the waves with the noble resolution of saving the infant or perishing in the atwas sinking, and held him above water to convince the wretched parents that he was still alive. The packet by this time had left them about half a mile, and was with much difficulty rounded to, Capt. Beecher immediately manned his boat and pushed to their assistance. Just as he reached them, poor Joe's strength was exhausted, and he sunk, leaving the child to its fate. Capt. Beecher, with great presence of mind, as he seized the child with one hand, plunged the other under water up to the arm pit, and luckily succeed ed in raising the sailor. Both Joe and the child were apparently dead: After rolling them in salt, however, and applying all the restoratives which are usually employed on such occasions, they both revived, and we are happy to state, are doing well. The rich may boast of their UNION-Maryland expects that every man will do his duty.

From the same. MARYLAND POLITICS. The refusal of the democrats of the late House of Delegates, to take from the city of Baltimore a portion of the tax on sales at auctionand to compet the retailers of dry goods to pay for a license, require particular attention as shewing in the strongest manner the influence of that city in the legislative proceedings of the State. This conduct of the democrats was more particularly unexpected inasmuch as they made so great a clamour last year about the "bankrupt state" of the treasury and the improvidence of the federalists in not providing ail the industrious mechanics of our for its replenishment.

Early in the session Mr. Dorsey obtained leave to bring in a bill "to regulate sales at auction." It was referred to the committee of ways and means, the chairman of which (Mr. Lecompte) reported it. As a lence; but it was our duty to rouse source of revenue none could be water, the helmsman, Joseph Ste- and exert ourselves to elect men, more productive or less burthenrevenue it had been resorted to by the states of New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia. The state of New York during the past year, received from the city of New York on account of this tax upwards of 170,000 dollars. Pennsylvania during the same period received from the same tax, upwards of 100,000 dollars from the city of Philadelphia. Baltimore ought not to have complained even should the legislature have taken the entire advantage of the tax, and have excluded her altogether from any share of its meeting a unanimous recommendaprofits-she has been left by the ment of the entire advantages of WILLIAM H. TILGHMAN, and not contemplated-It was only intax would have yielded to the state state for many years in the enjoy this tax and since the year 1800 she received on account of it upwards of 500,000 dollars-but this was tended to take one per cent on sales, and to leave Baltimore in the full enjoyment of the right she now exercises to tax sales at auction. This treasury at least 25,000 dollars an nually. This measure was defeated by the influence of Mr. Kell. H. improvements, extending Pratt st not hear any diminution of her revenues. It was answered that the state should not pay her depts, nor single cent into the treasury.

MEETING OR THE PROPER Surestay weak 24th istant, about the people chearthal bardent of her Tuesday, Aug. 10, 1919); stock PM, to combit together, and imployments. That the people of meeting of the Rederal Republicans of Talhor County was held this day and the Court House, if the town of Easton, pursuant to public notice, to select proper Candidates to represent the county in the Legulature of the State.

Ipin Edwondard, and the Chair; and the Chair the Chair; and the Chair the Chair; and the Chair the Chai democrat who voted against the ret forences ... The city of Baltimore received on account of this tax during the year 1816, nowards of 46,000 dull lars, and the Dilled States received on the same account from the city of Baltimore upwards of ninety thousand dollars. This was a year from particular causes in which extraordinary sales were made at auction, much greater than are likely to occur again. The estimate of 25,000 dollars that might have been received annually by the state from this tax, had the democracs possed the beforementioned bill, is founded upon a comparative view of the receipts from this tax by the city of-Baltimore in ordinary times and cira cumstances.

Now can there be offered stronger evidence of Baitimore influence -she had but two delegates on the floor-yet she obtained from the delegates of the country a vote in her favour, depriving the people of the state generally of the sum of twenty five thousand dollars annually? Ought such an influence to be increased? Are the delegates from the country, who yielded to this influence entitled to a continuance of the public confidence? Let reason and not party spirit determine your answer.

Again, a committee of the late House of Delegates, composed of Messrs. Lecompte, Forrest, Kell, Kennedy and Kent, reported a bill to compel the retailers of dry goods to obtain a license and pay for the same in like manner as the retail rs of spirituous liquors are now by iaw bound to do.

This seemed a very fair mode of. ncreasing the public revenueswhat good reason can be given why a retailer of dry goods, should be permitted to trade without license or expence, and a retailer of spirituous liquors be compelled annually to procure a license, and to pay for it. The business of a retailer of dry goods is as important and profitable, and as wealthy persons are engaged in it as are the retailers of spirituous liquors. Yet the latter are compelled to pay for a license, whilst the former are not, and do not pay one cent.

Had this bill have been passed into a law, the treasury of the state would have received annually from its operation several thousand dol-

So soon as the bill was taken up in the House of Delegates, Mr. Kell moved to refer it to the next general assembly, and it was accordingly so done.

Every democrat, except Messes. Beck t and Momt, voting of the reference-Even Mr. Kent, who but a few days before in committee had given to it his most decided approbation, Mr. Kent is now a candidate for the auffrages of the people of Calvert, and he should explain to his constituents the cause of this sudden revolution in his opi-

Mr. Kell was consistent, he objected in committee to this portion of the bill-thought it would operate peculiarly hard on Baltimorewhere there was a great number of dry good merchants, and therefore as a Baltimore delegate he could not support it.

It is well known that Mr. Kell is true to the people of Baltimore-Some think rather too true-but it seems he found tollowers to go all lengths with him.

But why should not the retailers of dry goods in Baltimore as well as the retailers of spirituous liquors pay for licenses. Why should they nave any exclusive advantages granted to them? Are they more how n. st; industrious, or worthy citizens? said Baltimore was in debt-that There are also some dry guod stores she was making large and expensive in the country. In Easton, Cambridge, &r .- the business of which opening South street, &c .- & could is as profitable as is that of the retailers of spirituous liquors and yes the owners of them do not pay A.
