CAPTAIN VICKARS, Has commenced her regular route between Easton, Annapolis and Baltimore - Leaving Easton every Monday and Thursday at 8 o'clock, AM for Annapolis and Baltimore, via Todd's Point, in Dorchester county, and arrive at Annapolis at half past 1 o'clock P. M. - start from thence at half past 2 o'clock, PM. for Baltimore.

Public Sale.

By virtue of an order of the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, the subscriber will expose at public sale, on Friday the first day of October next, if fair if not the next fair day thereafter, at the late residence of John Cord, deceased, on Elkridge, at 11 o'clock, all the personal property of said deceased, consisting of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and farming utensils; also a parcel of grain in the straw, and other articles too tedious to enumerate. Terms of sale, all sums under twenty dollars, cash to be paid, and all sums above twenty dollars, six months credit upon bond and sufficient security being given.

100 Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber, living near the head of Marley creek, within two miles of the public road leading from Baltimore to Annapolis, & within about the same distance from Mr. Charles Waters' Mill, in Anne Arundel county, Maryland, on Wednesday the 1st inst. a Negro Man named TOM, or Tom Short. This fellow is about 5 feet 7 or 9 inches high, between 35 and 40 years of age, of a dark complexion, has a bald head, and is marked with several welks on his breast, his arms also have some remarkable white or light coloured places on them. He had on when he absconded, a shirt & trousers of osanburg, and a fur hat about half worn; took with him a dark great coat a close bodied blue cloth coat, & a pair of light blue cloth pantaloons, with some other clothing not recollected. It is supposed he has either gone to Baltimore, or St. Mary's county, having acquaintances in both places, who probably would assist him in making his escape. I will give, for the apprehension of said Negro, if brought home, or secured in any goal in the State of Maryland, so that I get him again, $10 if taken within 10 miles of home, $30 if taken beyond that distance from home, in the county, or within 10 miles of, or in the city of Baltimore; $50 if taken out of the county, or further than 10 miles from Baltimore, and if out of the State the above reward will be given.

Runaway.

Committed to my custody as a runaway, a Negro Man by the name of JACK COVEY. He says he is the property of John B Thomas, of Prince George's county. He is about 5 feet 4 inches high, about 55 years of age, a scar in the middle of his forehead. His clothing is an old blue mixed kersey jacket, plaid domestic pantaloons, an osanburg shirt, and an old wool hat. His owner is requested to prove property and pay his prison fees, or he will be sold agreeable to law.

State of Maryland, sc.

Anne Arundel County Orphans Court, Sept 7th, 1819. On application by petition of Walter Pumphrey, junior, executor of the last will and testament of Walter Pumphrey, senior, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the notices required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligencer.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias from Anne Arundel county court, and to me directed, will be exposed to public sale on Tuesday the 28th inst. at Mr. James Hunter's Tavern in the city of Annapolis, a House and Lot on Elkridge Landing. Seized and taken as the property of John Fairbank, and will be sold to satisfy a debt due George Howard. Sale to commence at 3 o'clock, for Cash.
