MARYLAND GAZETTE

OL. LXXVII. JONAS GREEN, Curious Love Letter. A young woman had lived servant respectable farm house, at the residence of L., in Northampton, whose sweetheart was an honest rustic of the same place, but a cruel fate had at length determined to move to a distant part of the country, which, instead of diminishing, only served to increase mutual regard. They were of course, obliged to have recourse to correspondence; but, alas! was this to be carried on for Mary could not write; but it not long before she received a letter from William, wherein he deprecated the increased ardour of his affection, and implored her to marry, and she now compelled to have recourse to a confidential female friend, who readily offered to write an article too tedious to mention, of Sale—for all sums over twenty dollars, six months credit, the giving bond or note, with two securities, with interest from the date of sale; for all sums under twenty dollars the cash to be paid. Sale commences at 10 o'clock. Ann J. Minsky, Adm'r. Nov. 3. 3
