THE RELIGIOUS AND LITE. RAKI REPOSITORY.

To be edited by a society of Laymen members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The leading views of the Editors are stated in the following note, by one of the persons, who will be actively employed in the selection of the matter for publication

The Religious Magazines which have been heretofore published by members o the church, are, some of them, very user as far as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not attempt to give us informa-tion, of which the laity, and indeed clergy, stand in much need, and which is will great difficulty to be obtained. In this ountry the laity have a considerable parti cipation in the affairs of the church, and ought to possess an intimate knowledge its history, constitution and laws. A church was dens, and trustees or vestrymeas well as delegates to the convention, they have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these uties, it ought to be the business of these magazines o turnish them The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and enforced by pious and learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern wri ers, and a knowledge of what we are oto believe and do in order to be saved," may be communicated to our readers as well by selections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them the witin so, approved divines, not al ways to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on constituen doctrine and duty.
