THE RELIGIOUS AND LITE RARY BEPOSITORY.

No be edited by a posicly of Laymen members of the Protestant Egistopal Church.

The leading views of the Editors are stated in the following note, by one of the persons, who will be actively employed in the sons, who will be actively employed in the selection of the matter for publication. It is the Religious Magazines which have been herectoice published by members of the church, are, some of them, very useful as far as there on. We objection to them it the church, are, some of them, very user in as far as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not attempt to give us information, of which the laity, and indeed clergy, stand in much need, and which is with givent difficulty to be obtained. In this country the laity have a considerable participation in the affairs of the church, and ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. As thurch wa dens, and trustees or vestrymen, as well as delegates to the convention, they have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have all eady been explained and entoiced by pious and learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern writers, and a knowledge of what we are with believe and do in order to be saved," may be communicated to our readers as well by selections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From the writings of approved divines, not always to be met with, even in possession of the clerzy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on christian doctrine and duty. The magazine will aim to be useful, and desires no other

I am induced to hope that, besides fur-I am induced to hope that, bes des turnishing the laity with useful information in regard to the duties which are imposed upon them, some hints, worthy of their attention, may occasionally be given to the clergy. While they act up to their ordination vows; endeavour to frame and fashion their lives according to the doctrine of Christ, to make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and w.ll, their godiy admonitions, they de-serve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements, and instead of loving to odwell together in unity," a design should be manifested to introduce diso der and misrule into the church, to oppose its leg timate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity, to animadvert upon such conduct with un sparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescribed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even connice at any new inventions, whether ir eners, or discipline or worship.
