EXECUTIONS. BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, transmitting to the House of Representatives a report of the Secretary of War, containing a list of the names of the persons who have been executed since the year 1815.

Department, 6th Jan. 1820. I have caused the records of the Department to be examined for information it possesses 'respecting certain executions & other matters, which may have been contrary to the laws and regulations provided for the government of the House of Representatives, of Dec. 14th, 1819; and as it was reported to me that Col. King of the 4th Infantry, had given orders to deserters, if found within the limits of Florida; I directed the enclosed order (marked A) to be issued. His answer to my order received during my absence at such order had been given in conformity with the established regulations of service, when other means of deterring desertion, which had become so frequent as to threaten the reduction of the force under his command, had failed. He stated that no deserter was being his command; but that a deserter was kept up by his superior, and that a man was shot by the 4th Infantry in pursuit of him. His report was made the subject of a military investigation, and the enclosed orders (marked B) were issued by this Department on the 16th of Aug. and by reports, the general court martial were still in session, on the 12th of Dec. at Cantonment Montpelier in Alabama. It was also reported to this Department in Aug. last, that a commanding officer at West Point, had punished several soldiers for desertion. Major Thayer the commanding officer at that post, was directed to enquire into the report. His inquiry established the fact of whipping without trial; and the enclosed order (marked C) was issued, and no further cases which are known to the Department, are found among the records transmitted, after they had been acted on by the commanding officers, to the end that the regulations, to which they are entitled thereto, may be enforced upon application, to obtain a court martial, and are embraced in the report of the Adjutant and Inspector General, herewith enclosed (marked E.)

THE DELICIOUS AND HEALTHY DEPOSITORY

The leading views of the Editors are stated in the following paper, for one of the persons who will be actively employed in the selection of the matter for publication.

The Religious Magazine which has been heretofore published by the members of the church, are some of them, very useful as far as they go, but they are not so much as they should be, and which is with great difficulty to be obtained. In this country the law has a considerable participation in the affairs of the church, and ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. As church members and trustees are, as well as delegates to the convention, they have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and enforced by the learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern writers, and a knowledge of what we may believe and do in order to be saved, may be communicated to our readers as well by selections, as by original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From the writings of approved divines, not always to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on christian doctrine and duty. The magazine will aim to be useful, and desires no other reputation.

I am induced to hope that, besides furnishing the laity with useful information in regard to the duties which are imposed upon them, some hints, worthy of their attention, may occasionally be given to the clergy. While they act up to their ordination vows; endeavour to frame and fashion their lives according to the doctrine of Christ, to make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they deserve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements, and instead of loving to dwell together in unity, a dissonance should be manifested to introduce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity, to animadvert upon such conduct with unsparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescribed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even connive at, any new inventions, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship.
