For publishing, in the Cily of An polis, A Periodical Work, to be entitled,

THE RELIGIOUS AND LITE RARY REPOSITORY.

To be edited by a society of Laymen members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The leading views of the Editors are stated in the following note, by one of the perselection of the matter for publication

The Religious Magazines which have been heretofore published by memhers o the church, are, some of them, very useful as far as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not attempt to give us information of which the laity, and indeed clergy, stand in much need, and which is with great difficulty to be obtained. country the laity have a considerable participation in the affairs of the church, and ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. As church wardens, and trustees or vestrymen, as well as delegates to the convention, they have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of thee duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and enforced by pious and learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern writers, and a knowledge of what we are "to believe and do in order to be saved," may be communicated to our readers as well by wlections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From the writings of approved divines, not al-ways to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on christian doctrine and duty. The magazine vill aim to be useful, and desires no other eputation. I am induced to hope that, hesides furnishing the laity with useful information in regard to the duties which are imposed up-on them, some hints, worthy of their attention, may occasionally be given to the clerey. While they act up to their ordination ows; endeavour to frame and fashion their lives according to the doctrine of Christ, to make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they de-serve, and there is in the laity of the church serve, and there is in the laity of the church of Miryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements, and instead of loving to "dwell together in unity," a design should be manifested to duce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity, to animadvert upon such conduct with unsparing severity.

Approxing entirely of the forms prescribed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even t connive at, any new inventions, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship.
