PROPOSALS,

For publishing, in the City of Anna-polis, A Periodical Work, to be entitled,

THE RELIGIOUS AND LITE-RARY REPOSITORY.

To be edited by a society of Laymen members of the Protestant Episcopyl Church.

The leading views of the Editors are stated in the following note, by one of the persons, who will be intively employed in the selection of the matter for publi The Religious Migazines which have been heretofore published by members of the church, are, some of them, very userof as an as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not attempt to give us informa-tion, of which the bity, and indeed clergy, stand in much need, and which is with difficulty to be obtained. ountry the laity have a considerable parti-ipation in the affairs of the church, and right to possess an intimate knowledge is history, constitution and laws. burch wardens, and trustees or vestivmen, have important and ve y solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these luties, it ought to be the business of these duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discursed in their have already been explained and enforced by pious and learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern writers, and a knowledge of what we are ofto believe and do in order to be saved," may be conveniented to our readers as well by be communicated to our readers as well by selection, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From the wittings of approved divines, not always to be rict with, even in possession o the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on C is land doctrine and duty. The magazine will cam to be useful, and desires no other putation. I am induced to hope that, hes des far nishing the laity with useful information in regard to the duries which are imposed up on them, some kinds, worthy of their atten-tion, may coreasionally be given to the cler-ay. While they act up to their ordination lows; endeavour to frame and fashion their lives according to the doctrine of Christ, to the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and w II, their godly admonitions, they de-serve, and there is in the laity of the church refree, and there is in the titly of the church of Market and generally, every disposition to homeometric and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them lorge to pay due egard to their own solemn engagements and instead of loving to adwell together in unity," a design should be manifested t introduce disorder and misrule into th thurch, to oppose its legitimate authority, of to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity o animadvert upon such conduct with unparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescribed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even t comme at any new in entions, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship.
