100 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, on the 27th November, 1819, living on the head of South River, in Anne Arundel county. State of Maryland, a young Negro Man by the name of STEPHEN. He is about 22 or 3 years of age, of dark complexion, about 5 feet 1 3 inches high, has a scar under one of his eyes just above the cheek bone, and on one of his legs, I believe the right, above the ancie, on the side of the leg there is a scar, occasioned by a plough. His clothing is unknown, as it appears he has been in the habit of borrowing of the neighbouring negroes. The night he went off there was a horse taken out of the stable of Richard Hopkins, and found at Mr. Linthicum's on the road to the lower ferry. I have no doubt but he rode the hasse, and turned him loose as soon as he got to the ferry, and went over into Balti There were two negroes from the state of Ohio lurking in the neighbourhood, and it is suspected that they were here in order to persuade all that they could have any influence with, to go to the state of Ohio, where they would be free, and get 14 or 15 dollars per month; one of those negroes is Mo ses Queen, a free man of colour, that has been presented for harbouring run away negroes, and he went to the state of Ohio and returned here last fall a bout the first of November, and since his return has been taken with a state writ. The other fellow is negro Ben. formerly the property of Mrs. Rachel Hall, near the Governors Bridge, in my neighbourhood, he was sold to a Kentuckian, for horse stealing, five or six years ago, and says that he was sold to a citizen of Kentucky, and made his escape, got over the river, and into the state of Ohio, to a man by the name of James Keys, who purchased him of the Kentuckian; and since 1817 has been to the state of Maryland twice, and no doubt for the purpose of getting hands to go to the state of Ohio. Ben says free oves to go; he has a letter from James Keys, stating how he came by the fellow Ben; when he was here a bout two years ago, there were slaves disappeared, and have never been heard ince. I have no doubt they have had some talk with my fellow, as he went off for 10 fault, and they have provided some way for him to Cincinnatti, changing his name, and going for a free boy, to Mr Keys. I will give one hundred dollars if taken out of the state, and fifty dollars if taken in the state, and secured so that I get him again, all reasonable charges paid if brought home to

PROPOSALS,

For publishing, in the City of Annapolis, A Periodical Work, to V be entitled,

THE RELIGIOUS AND LITE-RARY REPOSITORY.

To be edited by a society of Laymen members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The leading views of the Editors are stated in the following note, by one of the per-sons, who will be actively employed in the selection of the matter for publication.

The Religious Magazines which have been heretofore published by members of the church, are, some of them, very useful as far as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not attempt to g ve us informa-tion, of which the laity, and indeed clergy, tand in much need, and which is with great difficulty to be obtained. In this country the laity have a considerable parti-cipation in the affairs of the church, and ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. is well as delegates to the convention, they have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to turnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and enforced by pious and learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern wri ters, and a knowledge of what we are "to believe and do in order to be saved," may he communicated to our readers as well his we inight be able to offer to them. From the writings of approved divines, not al-ways to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on christian doctrine and duty. The magazine will aim to be useful, and desires no other eputation.

I am induced to hope that, hes des furnishing the laity with useful information in regard to the duties which are imposed upon them, some hints, worthy of their attention, may occasionally be given to the cler-gy. While they act up to their ordination vows; endeavour to frame and fashion their make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they deserve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements, and instead of loving to "odwell together in unity," a design should be manifested to introduce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but to animadvert upon such conduct with ur sparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescrib ed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or eren to connive at, any new inventions, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship.

The Repository shall be published twice month, each number to contain sixteen pages royal 8 vo-Price two dollars per an one half payable in advance, and the other half upon the delivery of the 12th

The first number shall appear on the third Saturday in January next, should a sufficient number of subscribers be obtained to justify the expense.
