Messrs: Kent and Beckett, in their memorial to the general assembly of Maryland, deemed it expedient to implicate the character of the judges of the Calvert election. Retired as you are from the seat of the state government, it is impracticable for you to learn the extent of the censure, which they designed to attach to the judges .-It therefore becomes necessary that their petition, and the answer of the judges, should be printed and circulated among you, so that you may form a correct opinion of the merits of this controversy. The demand made by the judges for an enquiry into their conduct, was not gratified by the committee of elections, although it was invited by their political friends. After you shall, during this summer, deliberate on the merits of these charges, thus made against your citizens, you will be enabled to decide if those who have dared to give currency to unfounded and calumniating reports, are fit to be the representatives of the people of Calvert. While you struggle for the triumph of the party to which you mutually belong, enjoin the observance of truth, and a respeet for character, and banish from your confidence those who disregard the one, or attempt the destruction of the other. No member on the floor of the house of delegates, dared to impeach the character of the udges; on the contrary, Mr. Montgomery, who cannot be charged with leaning towards federalists, pronounced on their conduct a high eulogium.

TRUTH.

To the Honourable the House of Delegates of Maryland.

The Memorial of Daniel Kent and John Beckett, of Calvert county.

humbly sheweth-That at the late election for delegates for Calvert county, your memorialists, with others, were candidates for the suffrages of the people of that county, and although they have not been returned as elected, by the judges of the election, yet our memorialists are prepared with imple and competent testimony to shew and prove to this honourable nouse, that they received a full and air majority of the legal and qualiied voters, wno voted at the elecion. Your memorialists are impelled by a respect for that reputation which has not been heretofore assailed even by calumny itself, by their love for their children, who have a deep interest in the preservation of their father's character, by the respect for the opinion of their countrymen, and by the solemn conviction that the public good requires that an accusation made against the officers of the state, as to their official conduct, should be investigated, so that if guilty, that their guilt should be published, but if innocent, that the jealousies and distrust excited against them shall be hushed, and that their revilers may meet the just punishment, assigned by the good serse of the world, for those who wantonly assail the fair fame of their fellow citizens, to pray you to take such steps in this business as will elicit a full developement of the whole truth. We have seen letters (says the Boston Centinel) from Owyhee, the Chief of the Sandwich Islands, which confirm the death of the celebrated King of the Society Islands, Tamaahmaah, and that the event had occasioned so much disunion among his successors and officers, as to threaten a revolution and civil war. This old King left upwards of 150,000 dollars in specie in his coffers; the division of which was also a bone of contention. One of the letters adds, "We have had reports, that Captain Dhwnes, in the Macedonian, would wisit this Island. Would to Heaven he would, and take possession as an arbiter of the differences which so unhappily reign here." Itsought to be a co-

Extract of a letter from a highly respectable character, dated Laguayra, Feb. 4, 1820, Great importance being attached to the occupation of Santa Fee, by Bolivar, can only arise from a want of proper knowledge of the country. It must be recollected that Carcha gene is the key to the kingdom of New Grenada, and that whoever possesses the command of the river Magdalena, can always command that kingdom, in the centre of which Santa Fee is situated, and surround ed by an immense country, presenting extraordinary difficulties. Our General Calzada occupied that kingdom in 1814, although the enemy had double his force, but the country was too extensive for them to prevent it, and this was our case in the late affairs. Five thousand men dispersed over a country of 150 leagues in length, and 400 in breadth, at a time when the royal General Barreiro had only 1500 men to cover the capital, and having experienced a reverse, he remained at the mercy of the enemy; and Bolivar has since experienced the same fate. having detached his army since the 20th September. On inding that our forces were uniting, and apprehending the consequence, he retro-gaded and marched for Venezuela, where he arrived the first of December; and in the mean time, the division of the royal army under Gen. Calzada marched from Popayan and re onk fanta Fee, while another division under Gen. Latorre pressed them very hard at Pamplona, and another division by the way of Mompox had advanced to Modera within three days journey of San-ta Fee, and then, therefore, the ca-pital is ours and our troops were in Bolivar returned to Guayana, and directed some changes and reform -he has ordered the division com-manded by Paez to advance upon Varinas, where he lost a great many men, which compelled him to return to the south of the Apure. Bolivar left Guyana and proceeded to San Fernando, and caused a junction of the division of Paez, Soublet. Cedino, Marino, and others, at San Jure de Pagura, & threatened an attache but our highly distinguished division under general Morales, maintains its position with firmness, and there is every probability that in 15 or 20 days, a serious conflict will take place between them, but we have no apprehensions as to the result.
