Dec. MIGIDEON WHITE.

He is about 22 or 3 years of age, of a dark complexion, about 5 feet 1 or inches high, has a scar under one of his eyes just above the cheek bone, and on one of his legs, I believe the right, above the ancle, on the side of the leg there is a scar, occasioned by a plough. His clothing is unknown, as it appears he has been in the habit of borrowing of the neighbouring negroes. The night he went off there was a horse taken out of the stable of Richard Hopkins, and found at Mr. Linthicum's, on the road to the lower ferry. I have no doubt but he rode the horse, and turned him loose as soon as he got to the ferry, and went over into Baltimore. There were two negroes from the state of Ohio lurking in the neighbourhood, and it is suspected that they were here in order to persuade all that they could have any influence with, to go to the state of Ohio, where they would be free, and get 14 or 15 dollars per month; one of those negroes is Moses Queen, a free man of colour, that Cogniac Brandy, &c. has been presented for harhouring runaway negroes, and he went to the state of Ohio and returned here last fall a. bout the first of November, and since his return has been taken with a state writ. The other frame is negro Ben, formerly the property of Mrs. Rachel Hall, near the formers. Bridger rnor's Bridge my neighbourhood, he was sold to a Kentuckian, for horse stealing, five or six years ago, and says that he was sold to a citizen of Kentucky, and made his escape, got over the river, and into the state of Ohio, to a man by the name of James Keys, who purchased him of the Kentuckian; and since 1817 has been to the state of Maryland, wice, and no doubt for the purpose of getting hands free ones to go; he has a letter from a free boy, to Mr. Keys. I will give one hundred dollars it taken out of the state and fifty donars if taken in the state, and secured so that I get him a-gard, all reasonable charges paid if brought home to

PROPOSATS.

For publishing, in the City of Agest polis, A Periodical Work, to be entitled,

THE RELIGIOUS AND LIFE. RARY REPOSITORY.

To be edited by a society of Laymen members of the Protestant Episeopal Church.

The leading views of the Editors are stat ed in the following note, by one of the per-sons, who will be actively employed in the selection of the matter for publication.

The Religious Magazines which have

The Religious Magazines which have been heretolors published by members of the church, are, some of them, very useful as far as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not attempt to give us information, of which the laity, and indeed clarge, stand in much need, and which is with great difficulty to be obtained. In this country the laity have a considerable participation in the affairs of the church, and ought to posters an intimate knowledge of ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. As church waidens, and trustees or vestrymen, as well as delegates to the convention, they have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and enforced by pious and learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern wri ters, and a knowledge of what we are "to believe and do in order to be saved," may be communicated to our readers as well his selections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. I'rom the writings of approved divines, not always to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on christian doctrine and duty. The magazine will aim to be useful, and desires no other reputation. reputation.

reputation.

I am induced to hope that, besides furnishing the laity with useful into: mation in regard to the duties which are imposed upon them, some hints, worthy of their attention, may occasionally be given to the clergy. While they act up to their ordination rows; endeavour to frame and fashion their lives according to the doctrine of Christ, to inves according to the doctrine of Christ, to make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they deserve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements, and instead of loying to edwell together in and instead of loving to "dwell together in unity," a design should be manifested to introduce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity, to animadvert upon such conduct with un sparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescribed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even to connive at, any new inventions, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship.
