100 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, on the 27th November 1619 Jiving on the head of South River, in Anne Arundel county. State of Maryland, a young Negro Man by the name of STEPHEN He is about 22 or 3 years of age, of dark complexion, about 5 feet 1 or 2 inches high, has a scar under one of hi eyes just above the cheek bone, and on one of his legs, I believe the right, above the ancle, on the side of the leg there is a scar, occasioned by a plough. His clothing is unknown, as it appears he has been in the habit of borrowing of the neighbouring negroes. The night he went off there was a horse taken out of the stable of Richard Hopkins, and found at Mr. Linthicum's, on the road to the lower ferry. I have no doubt but he rode the horse, and turned him loose as soon as he got to the ferry, and went over into Balti. more. There were two negroes from the state of Ohio lurking in the neighbourhool, and it is suspected that they were here in order to persuade all that they could have any influence with, to go to the state of Ohio, where they would be free, and get 14 or 15 dollars per month; one of those negroes is Moses Queen, a free man of colour, that has been presented for harbouring runaway negroes, and he went to the state of Ohio and returned here last fall about the first of November, and since his return has been taken with a state writ. The other fellow is negro Ben, formerly the property of Mrs. Rachel Kentuckian, for horse stealing, five or six years ago, and says that he was sold to a citizen of Kentucky, and made his escape, got over the river, and into the state of Ohio, to a man by the name of James Keys, who purchased him of the Kentuckian; and since 1817 has been to the state of Maryland twice, and no doubt for the purpose of getting hands to go to the state of Ohio. Ben says his errand here was to persuade the free ones to go; he has a letter from James Kevs, stating how he came by the fellow Ben; when he was here about two years ago, there were slaves disappeared, and have never been heard of since. I have no doubt they have had some talk with my fellow, as he went off for no fact, and they have provided some way for him to Cincinnatti, changing havame, and going for a free boy, to Mr. Keys. I will give one hundred dollars if taken out of the latter and felt all wards and the state. state, and fifty dollars if taken in the state, and secured so that I get him again, all reasonable charges paid if brought home to

100 Dollars Reward

For apprehending two Negroes that absconded from the subscriber's farm on Herring Bay, in the lower end of, Anne Arundel county. A man that calls himself Isaac Thomas, 25 years of age, a strong well made fellow, of a light complexion, a down look, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, stutters badly when examined or spoken short to; he had on and took with him a suit of country made clothes, fulled and not dyed, drab coloured surtout of fulled cloth, an old black coat, striped vest, blue trowsers, pair of double soaled shoes nailed, pair pumps, fur hat, and muslin shirts. pumps, fur hat, and muslin shirts. Kit-ty, a handsome girl, about 17 years of age, went off in November 1817, she is 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, straight made, and very yellow for a negro has a wart on her left wrist, and a heavy look out of her eyes, but a pleasing countenance when spoken to. Whoever will take up the said negroes, and secure them in the gaol of Baltimore county, or fetch them home to me, shall have the above reward, or fifty dollars for either of them, paid by the subscriber.

Farm for Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale, A FARM, lying on Fishing creek, neary on the line that separates Calvert from Anne-Arundel county-contain ing one hundred and thirty eight acres

This farm is well known in the two counties, as part of Rich Bottom Neck, formerly belonging to Richard Mackall, Esq. and adjoining the estate of Peter Emerson, Esq. From 50 to 60 acres of the land is in a state for cultivation, included is an extensive apple orchard, which, in good bearing seasons, has produced 7000 gallons ci-der; the residue of the land is carered with the finest growth of red & white oak, chesnut and poplar timber, per-haps equal to any in the state.

The improvements are a small dwelling house, with some other out buildings-to a tobacco planter this property will be found an object, as it will be sold at a price probably less than what the timber alone would produce. and when cleared no finer land for the growth of tobacco.

One fourth of the purchase money will be expected at the time of sale, and a credit given on the balance to meet the wish of the purchaser. Possession can be given on the 17th April next. Any written application can be made to the subscriber in Baltimore, through the medium of the Best office, which will be duly strended to.

The Religious Magazines which have been heretotore published by members of the church, are, some of them, very useful as tar as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not attempt to give us informa-tion, of which the laity, and indeed clergy, stand in rutch need, and which is with great difficulty to be obtained. In this country the laity have a considerable participation in the allairs of the church, and ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. As church wardens, and trustees or vestrymen, is well as delegates to the convention, they ave important and very solemn duties to have important and very solerun duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these cattes, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and entoreed by pious and lettree divinos, with as much ability is could be expected from more modern with ters, and a knowledge of what we are out believe and do in order to be saved," may be communicated to our readers as well by selections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From the writings of approved divines, not al ways to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give or christian doctrine and duty. The magazine will aim to be useful, and desires no other am induced to hope that, besides furnishing the laity with useful information ir egard to the duties which are imposed up on them, some idute, worthy of their atten-tion, may occasionally be given to the eler-gy. While they act up to their ordination yow; endeavour to frame and fashion their lives according to the doctrine of Christ, t make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Clirist, and reverently obey their Bishops, tollowing with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they de-serve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, and any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements and instead of loving to adwell together in unity," a design should be manifested to introduce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity to animativert upon such conduct with un sparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescrib ed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the $1 agazine to recommend or even to connive at, any new inventions, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship.

The Undersigned

Respectfully represent to the citizens of Annapolis and of Anne-Arundel county, that they suffer much inconve nience from the want of a good collection of English Books which might be put into the hands of the youth committed to their care The Library of the College consists almost exclusively of the Latin and Greek Classics, the writings of the ancient fathers, and some ponderous tomes of Scholastic Theology and Canon Law. The best of these works can be of no use, except to the Professors themselves. They therefore take the liberty of soliciting, from the alumni and other friends of the College, donations of such useful Books, as can be conveniently spared. Almost any thing will be acceptable. Books of travels, biography and histo ry; treatises of logic, metaphysics and ethics; systems of natural philosophy, or dissertations on any subordinate branch; elementary works on international and municipal law and political economy, and any publication of the numerous Societies of Literati in Europe or America will be gratefully re-
