Ran away from the subscriber, on the 27th November, 1819, living on the head of South River, in Anne-Arundel county, State of Maryland, a young Negro Man by the name of STEPHEN He is about 22 or 3 years of age, of dark complexion, about 5 feet 1 or 3 inches high, has a scar under one of his eyes just above the cheek hone, and on one of his legs. I believe the right, ahove the ancle, on the side of the leg there is a scar, occasioned by a plough. His clothing is unknown, as it appears he has been in the habit of borrowing of the neighbouring negroes. The night he went off there was a horse taken out of the stable of Richard Hopkins, and found at Mr. Linthicum's, on the road to the lower ferry. I have no doubt but he rode the horse, and turned him loose as soon as he got to the ferry, and went over into Baltimore. There were two negroes from the state of Ohio lurking in the neighbourhood, and it is suspected that they were here in order to persuade all that they could have any influence with, to go to the state of Ohid, where they would be free, and get-14 or 15 dollars per month; one of those negroes is Moses Queen, a free man of colour, that has been presented for harbouring runaway negroes, and he went to the state of Ohio and returned here last fall about the first of November, and since his return has been taken with a state writ The other fellow is negro Ben. formerly the property of Mrs. Rachel Kentuckian, for horse stealing, five or to a citizen of Kentucky, and made his e-cane, got over the river, and into the state of Ohio, to a man by the name of James Keys, who purchased him of the Kentuckian; and since 1817 has been' to the state of Maryland twice, and no doubt for the purpose of getting hands to go to the state of Ohio. Ben says his errand here was to persuade the free ones to go; he has a letter from James Keys, stating how he came by the fellow Ben; when he was here about two years ago, there were slaves disappeared, and have never been heard of since. I have no doubt they have had some talk with my fellow, as he went off for 10 fault, and they have provided some way for him to Cincinnatti, changing his name, and going for a free boy, to Maly eys. I will give one hundred dollars if taken out of the state, and fifty dollars if taken in the state, and secured so that I get him again, all reasonable charges paid if subscriber offers for sale, A FARM, lying on Fishing creek, near-ly on the line that separates Calvert from Anne Arundel county-contain ing one hundred and thirty eight acres more or less.

This farm is well known in the two counties, as part of Rich Bottom Neck, formerly belonging to Richard , Esq and adjoining the estate of Peter Emerson, Esq. From 50 to 60 acres of the land is in a state for cultivation, included is an extensive ap ple orchard, which, in good bearing seasons, has produced 7000 gallons ci-der; the residue of the land is covered with the first growth of rad & white oak, chesn't and poplar timber, perhaps equal to any in the state.

The improvements are a small dwelling house, with some other out buildings-to a tobacco planter this property will be found an object, as it will be sold at a price probably less than what the timber alone would produce, and when cleared no finer land for the growth of tobacch.

Growth of tobacca.

One fourth of the purchase money will be expected at the time of sale, and a credit given on the balance to meet the wish of the purchaser. Possession can be given on the 17th April 1994. next. Any written application can be made to the subscriber in Baltimore, through the medium of the Post office, which will be duly stended to.
