Ran away from the subscriber, or the 20th ult. without the least cause, a negro, named CHARLES, 18 or 19 years of age, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, a tolerable stout limbed fellow, and well made, but not a tire. He is a dark mulatto, with thire lips, rather flat nose, and round lace, and when spoken to indicates cunning from his artful and insinuating manner. Charles had on when he absconded a grey close bodied coat with several holes in the sleeves, kersey pantaloons, coarsestock ings, and an old fur hat much worn .-Charles will probably endeavour to get to the Eastern Shore of Maryland, where I purchased him, or to Chartes county, where he has recently been will give, if he is taken out of the state of Maryland, $200, if taken in Balti more $100. if in the city of Washington or Annapolis $30, and if in Prince George's $20, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Charles has been accustomed to wait on me as lately sold by him, and now owned by a body servent, and is very artful.

100 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, on the 27th November, 1819, living on the head of South River, in Anne-Arundel county, State of Maryland, a young Negro Man by the name of STEPHEN. He is about 22 or 3 years of age, of a dark complexion, about 5 feet 1 or 2 inches high, has a scar under one of his eyes just above the cheek bone, and on one of his legs, I believe the right, a-bove the ancle, on the side of the leg there is a scar, occasioned a plough. His clothing is unknown a it appears he has been in the habit of borrowing of the neighbouring negroes. The night he went off there was a horse taken out of the stable of Richard Hopkins, and found at Mr. Linthieum's. on the road to the lower ferry. I have no doubt but he rode the shorse, and turned him loose as soon as he got to the ferry, and went over into Baltimore. There were two negroes from the state of Ohio lurking in the neighbourhood, and it is suspected that they were here in order to persuade all that they could have any influence with, to go to the state of Ohio, where they would be free, and get 14 or 15 dollars per month; one of those negroes is Mo ses Queen, a free man of colour, that has been presented for harbouring runaway négroes, and he went to the state of Ohio and returned here last fall a-bout the first of November, and since his return has been taken with a state writ. The other fellow is negro Ben, Rache Hall, near the Governor's Bridge, in my neighbourhood, he was sold to a Kentuckian, for horse stealing, five or six years ago, and says that he was sold to a citizen of Kentucky, and made his escape, got over the river, and into the state of Ohio, to a man by the name of James Keys, who purchased him of the Kentuckian; and since 1817 has been to the state of Maryland twice, and the doubt for the purpose of getting hands to go to the state of Ohio. Ben says his creand here was to persuade the face ones to go; he has a letter from James Keys, stating how he came by the ellow Ben; when he was here about two years ago, there were slaves disappeared, and have never been heard of since. Thave no doubt they have had some talk with my fellow, as he went off for no fault, and they have provided some way for him to Cincin natt, changing his name, and going for a free boy, to Ar. Keys. I will give one hundred dollars if taken out of the state, and fifty dollars if taken in the state, and secured so that I get him a-gam, all reasonable charges paid if brought home to

PROPOSAL!

THE RELIGIOUS AND LITE. RARY REPOSITORY,

To be edited by a society of Laymen members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The leading views of the Editors are stat ed in the following note, by one of the persons, who will be actively employed in the selection of the matter for publication.

The Religious Magazines which have been heretofore published by members of the church, are, some of them, very useful as far as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not attempt to give us information, of which the laity, and indeed clergy, stand in much need, and which is with great difficulty to be obtained. In this country the laity have a considerable parti-cipation in the affairs of the church, and ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. As church wardens, and trustees or vestrymen, as well as delegates to the convention, they have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and enforced by pious and learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern wri ters, and a knowledge of what we are ofto believe and do in order to be saved," may be communicated to our readers as well h selections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From the writings of approved divines, not always to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on christian doctrine and duty. The magazine will aim to be useful, and desires no other reputation.
I am induced to hope that, he des furnishing the laity with useful information in regard to the duties which are imposed upon them, some hints, worthy of their atten-tion, may occasionally be given to the cler-cy. While they act up to their ordination ows; endeavour to frame and fashion their lives according to the doctrine of Christ, to make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mine and will, their godly admonitions, they deserve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them lorget to pay due regard to their own salemn engagements? and instead or loving to adwell together in unity," a design should be manifested to-introduce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity, to animadvert upon such conduct with un-sparing sevenity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescrib-ed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even to connice at, any new incentions, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship. TERMS.

espectfully represent to the citizens of Almanolis and of Anne Arundel county, that they suffer much inconvenience from the want of a good collec-tion of English Books which night be put into the hands of the youth committed to their care. The Library of the College consists almost exclusively of the Latin and Greek Classics, the writings of the ancient fathers, and some ponderous tomes of Scholastic Theology and Canon Law. The best | of these works can be of no use, except to the Phylessors themselves. They therefore take the liberty of soliciting, from the alumni and other friends of the College, donations of such useful Books as can be conveniently spared. Almost any thing will be acceptable. Books of travels, biography and history; treatises of logic, metaphysics and ethics; systems of natural philosophy. or dissertations n any subordinate branch; elementar works on internabranch; elementary works on interna-tional and municipal law and political economy, and any publication of the numerous Societies of Literati in Eu-rope or America will be gratefully recsived.

'Mr. Boyle, Dr. Ridgely, Mr. Magruder, and Mr. G. Shaw will take charge of any Books which may be sent to ot any Borks which may be sent to their respective offices. The donors are requested to inscribe their names on the covers or the blank leaves, in order that the undersigned may know the individuals, to whose kindness they are indebted, and to whom they owe a public acknowledgment of the obliga-tion.
