Ran away from the subscriber, on negro, named CHARLES, 18 or 19 years of age, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, a tolerable stout limbed fellow, and well made, but not active. He is a dark mulatto, with thick lips, rather flat nose, and round face, and when spoken to indicates cunning from his artful and insinuating manner. Charles had on when he absconded a grey close bodied coat with several holes in the -leeves, kersey pantaloons, coarsestock ings, and an old fur hat much worn.-Charles will probably endeavour to get to the Eastern Shore of Maryland, where I purchased him, or to Gharles county, where he has recently been I will give, if he is taken out of the state of Maryland, 220, if taken in Baltimore $100, if in the city of Washington or Annapolis $30, and if in Prince. the 27th November, 1819, hvingon the head of South River, in Anne-Frundel county. State of Maryland, a young Negro Man by the name of STEPHEN He is about 22 or 3 years of age, of a dark-complexion, about 5 fee 1 or 2 inches high, has a scar under of his eyes just above the check bose, and on one of his legs, I believe the right, a-bove the ancle, on the side of the leg there is a scar, occasioned by a plough His clothing is unknown, at it appears he has been in the habit of borrowing of the neighbouring negroes. The night he went off there was a horse taken out of the stable of Richard Hopkins, and found at Mr. Linthicum's, on the road to the lower ferry. I have no doubt but he rode the horse, and turned him loose as soon as he got to the ferry, and went over into Balti-more. There were two negroes from the state of Ohio lucking in the neigh-bourhood, and it is suspected that they were here in order to persuade all that they could have any influence with, to go to the state of Ohio, where they would be free, and get 14 or 15 dollars per month; one of those negroes is Mo es Queen, a free man of colour, that has been presented for harbouring runaway negroes, and he went to the state of Ohio and returned here last fall about the first of November, and since his return has been taken with a state writ. The other follow is negro Ben. formerly the property of Mrs. Rachel Hall, near the Governor's Bridge, in my neighbolrhood, he was sold to a Kentuckian for horse stealing, five or ix years so, and says that he was sold to a citizer of Kentucky, and made his escape, go, over the river, and into the state of Onio, to a man by the name of James Keys, who purchased him of the Kentuckian; and since 1817 has been to the state of Maryland twice, and no doubt for the purpose of getting hands to go to the state of Ohio. Ben says his creand here was to persuade the free ores to go; he has a letter from James Keys, stating how he came by the fellow Ben; when he was here about two years ago, there were slaves disappeared, and have never been heard Ice. I have no doubt they have ome talk with my fellow, as he wen off for so fault, and they have proyided some way for him to Cincini, changing his name, and going for ee boy, to Mr. Keys. I will give hundred dollars if taken out of the state, and fifty dollars it taken in state, and secured so that I get him a-gain, all reasonable charges paid if rought home to

PROPOSALS,

For publishing, in the Dity of Anna polis, A Periodical Work, to be entitled,

THE RELIGIOUS AND LITE-RARY REPOSITORY.

To be edited by a society of Lagmen members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The leading views of the Editors are stat ed in the following note, by one of the per-sons, who will be actively employed in the selection of the matter for publication. The Religious Magazines which have the Religious magazines when the church, are, some of them, very useful as far as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not alternyt to give us information, of which the laity, and indeed clergy. stand in much need, and which is with great difficulty to be obtained. In this country the laity have a considerable participation in the affairs of the church, and ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. As as well as delegates to the convention, the have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and enforced by pious and learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern writers, and a knowledge of what we are "to believe and do in order to be saved," may selections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From the writings of approved divines, not al-ways to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on christian doctrine and duty. The magazine will aim to be useful, and desires no other

I am induced to hope that, besides fur-nishing the laity with useful information in regard to the ducies which are imposed upon them, some hints, worthy of their atten-tion, may occasionally be given to the clery. While they act up to their ordination yows; endeavour to frame and fashion their lives according to the doctrine of Christ, to lives according to the doctrine of Christ, to make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they de-serve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements, and instead of loving to "dwell together in unity," a design should be manifested to introduce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity, to animadvert upon such conduct with unsparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescribed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even to comire at, any new inventions, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship.
