The American Farmer.

The first number of the American Farmer was issued on the 2d of April, It may now be considered as an established National Work, adapted to all the varieties of our climate, since many of the most eminent citizens in all the states contribute, by their pat ronage and their writings, to its circu lation and its usefulness

To make known all discoveries in the science, and all improvements in the practice of Agriculture and Domes-Economy-and to develope the means of Internal Improvements generally, constitute the chief objects to which the American Farmer is devoted It takes no concern or interest in any party politics, nor in the transient occurrences of the day.

The Farmer is published weekly, on a sheet the size of large newspaper and folded so as to make eight pages -and to admit of being conveniently bound up and preserved in volumes .-Each volume will consist of 52 numbers, a title page and an index; and numerous Engravings to represent new impluments, and approved systems of hus-

Each number gives a true and accurate statement of the then selling prices of country produce, live stock, and all the principal articles brought for sale in the Baltimore Market.

Terms of subscription $4 per vol. but for the sum of Five Dollars, to be paid always in advance, the actual receipt of every number is guaranteed

As the Editortakes the risk and cost of the mail-should subscription mo ney miscarry, he holds himself, nevertheless, bound to furnish the paper

All gentlemen who feel an interest in the circulation of a Journal devoted to these objects, and conducted on this plan, are requested to transmit the name of subscribers-but To in all cases the money must be remitted before the paper can be sent. It will, however, be returned, in any case, where the subscriber, on a view of the paper. not being satisfied, may think proper to return it to the Editor within 3 weeks.

made, when claimed, on all monies received for, and remitted to the Editor. A few of the first volume, either in sheets or well bound, with a copious

Index, remain on hand for sale.

Notes of the banks of North & South Carolina, Georgia and Virginia, generally, will be received at par. From subscribers residing in the states of Ohio and Kentucky, notes of the bank of Chilicothe will be received at par, and from such sul ribers the notes of all other banks, which can be disposed of here at a discount of not more than 200 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, on the 20th ult. without the least cause, a negro, named CHARLES, 18 or 19 years of ige, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inghes high, a tolerable stout limbed fellow, and well made, but not active. He is a dark mulatto, with thick lips, rather flat nose, and round face, and when spoken to indicates coming from his artful and insinuating manner. Charles had on when he absconded a grey close hodied coat with several holes in the sleeves, kersey pantaloons, coarsestockings, and an old fur hat much worn. Charles will probably endeavour to get to the Eastern Shore of Maryland, where I purchased him, or to Charles county, where he has recently been. I will give, if he is taken out of the state of Maryland, $200, if taken in Balti more 4100, if in the city of Washingtop or Annapolis $30, and if in Prince-George's $20, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Charles has been accustomed to wait on me as a body servant, and is very ariful.

PROPOSAUS,

For publishing, in the City of Ampolis, A Periodical Work, to

THE RELIGIOUS AND LITE RARY REPOSITORY.

To be edited by a society of Laymen members of the Projestant II. Episcopal Church

The leading views of the Editors are stated in the following note, by one of the persons, who will be actively employed in the selection of the matter for publications.

The Religious Magazines which have been hereiofore published by members of the church, are, some of them, very weekl as tar as they go. My objection to them is that they do not alternate to give us filled them, of which the lairy, and indeed elergy stand in much need, and which the with the difficulty of the definition of the lair with the definition of the lair with the lair w great difficulty to be obtained. In this country the laity have a considerable participation in the affairs of the church; and ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. As church wardens, and trustees or vestrymen, as well as delegates to the convention, they have important and very solemn duties to have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and enforced by pious and learned divines, with as much ability as could be expected from more modern wri-ters, and a knowledge of what we are of believe and do in order to be saved," may be communicated to our readers as well b be communicated to our readers as well by selections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From the writings of approved divines, not always to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on christian doctrine and duty. The magazine will aim to be useful, and desires no other

I am induced to hope that, besides furnishing the laity with useful information in regard to the duties which are imposed upon them, some hints, worthy of their atten tion, may occasionally be given to the cler-gy. While they act up to their ordination vows; endeavour to frame and fashion their lives according to the doctrine of Christ, to make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they de-serve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements, and instead of loving to adwell together in ," a design should be manifested to introduce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but t becomes the imperative duty of the kity, to animadvert upon such conduct with un sparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescribed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even to connive at, any new inventions, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship.
