LATE FROM EUROPE.
The fast sailing and regular trading ship Thames, arrived at this port yesterday from London, whence she sailed latter part of March, and from Portsmouth on the 4th of April.
Capt. Peck has favored the editors of the Mercantile Advertiser with London papers and shipping List, and a Portsmouth paper of the 3d of last month, which contains London intelligence to the evening of the 1st. From a hasty perusal we find the following items. The Madrid advices are to the 19th March.
Accounts from St. Helena to the 27th January, state, that Bonaparte was in good health; his chief amusement was gardening. The new residence intended for him was nearly finished. Lord Somerset, Governor of the Cape Good Hope and St. Helena, who has arrived at London, expressed a desire to have an interview with him before he sailed from St. Helena, but Bonapart refused to accede to it.

It is mentioned, that the Phaeton frigate, capt. M. Inague, is intended for the North American station, and that Lieutenant General Sir James Kempt, governor of the province of Nova Scotia, and suite, will take passage in her.
Since the assassination of the Duke de Berry, party spirit runs high in Paris. No conversation unconnected with politics is listened to. The slightest difference of opinion suffices to interrupt friendships of ancient date. In the Departments, the fermentation is said to be yet more alarming. Much prudence and energy have been re-queste to prevent an explosion.

Orator Hunt, and four of his associates, have been found guilty, after a laborious and patient investigation of their case of ten days, in a county to which the defendants had removed the cause. The words of the recorded verdict were as follows: "Guilty of assembling with unlawful banners an unlawful meeting for the purpose of exciting discontent and disaffection in the minds of the liege subjects of our sovereign lord the king, against the government and constitution of this realm as by law established, and of at tending at the said meeting."

Sir Francis Burdett has also received his trial at Leicester, for a libel on the government, contained in his famous letter upon the unfortunate affair at Manchester; and also of "being a malicious, seditious, and ill disposed person, unlawfully and maliciously devising and intending to raise and excite discontent and sedition among the people."

It is understood, that a motion will be made, next session, for setting aside the verdict against Sir F.
Burdett, on the ground of a mis-finding by the jury, as to the place of publication.
The ministerial papers are highly elated at the result of the trials of Burdett and Hunt and his associates. The Courier says, "we have never put pen to paper with greater pleasure than we this day do it, to announce these convictions."

HIGH TREASON.
The grand jury summoned to receive the bills preferred against the persons engaged in the Cato street conspiracy, have found true bills for High Treason against Arthur Thistle-wood, Wm. Davidson, Jas. Ings, John Thos. Brunt, Rich. Tidd, Jas.
Wm. Wilson, John Harrison, Rich.
Bradburn, Jas. Shaw Strange, James Gilchrist, and Charles Cooper. Against Abel Hall and Rob. George, the bills were not found.

Bills were also found against Arthur Thistlewood, John T. Brunt, Rich. Tidd, Jas. Wm. Wilson, Jno.
Harrison and Jno. Shaw Strange, for murder. Bill not found against Wm. Davidson, James Ings, Rich.
Bradburn, Jas. Gilchrist, Abel Hall, and Chs. Cooper, for the like offence. The second was a true bill against James Ings, for feloniously shooting at, with intent to kill, or do some grievous bodily harm; and the third, fourth and fifth were true bills against Rich. Tidd, James Wm.
Wilson, and Arthur Thistlewood, for the like offence.

The disturbances continued in Ireland. A letter, however, from Banagher, states, that the neighbouring part of the county of Galway, is likely soon to be restored to tranquility. Several of the leaders of the Ribbonmen have been taken, among whom are seven of their captains, who have been committed to prison for trial.

The papers contain many articles of interest from the continent—particularly details of the late important events in Spain; but we received them at so late an hour that we have not time to give them so close an examination as we could wish.
The friends of humanity and religion will rejoice to learn that the Inquisition has been Formally Abolished, and its dungeons emptied of the victims it contained. The following is the decree of the king.
"Considering that the Tribunal of the Inquisition is incompatible with the Constitution of the Spanish Monarchy promulgated at Cadiz, in 1812, and that on that account the Cortes suppressed it by decree on the 22d of Feb. 1813—after mature and long reflection, & advising the Junta established by my decree of this day, and in conformity with its opinion, I have decreed that this Tribunal shall be suppressed throughout the monarchy, and by consequence, the council of the supreme inquisition; and that all persons who may be found in its prisons, for political or religious opinions, shall instantly be set at liberty, referring to the Rev. Bishops the cognizance of the latter causes, in their respective dioceses, in order that they may inquire into the same and decide thereon, conforming exactly to the aforesaid decree of the extraordinary Cortes.
At the palace, this 9th March, 1820."

On the 10th March, all the troops of the garrison of Madrid assembled, by order of his Majesty, on the Prado, and solemnly took the oath to the Constitution. They afterwards formed into columns, repaired to the Palace, and did before the King, Queen, and other members of the Royal Family, who were stationed in the grand balcony. An immense multitude accompanied them shouting—Long live the King and the Constitution!— The greatest order prevailed, and the troops vied with the people in giving proofs of their regard for his Majesty, and testifying their joy at the establishment of the new system of Government which has been adopted.

The Liberty of the Press, says the London Evening Star, has been re-established, and a Proclamation issued by the Provisional Junta, recommending to the Nation, that as they have shewn the first example in history of a Revolution effected without violence, they may also shew the first example of moderation in the exercise of a right which "no nation has yet learnt to enjoy without giving itself up to a degree of excess"—meaning, of course in the first enjoyment of the right.
A proclamation, on the general change which has taken place, has been addressed by the King to the Spanish people.—It is well and forcibly written, and making allowance for the expediency of putting as good a face as possible on the past, seems not ill calculated to promote that union and harmony which must now be the wish of all true Spaniards.

A decree has been issued permitting all Spaniards who are out of the kingdom on account of political opinions, to return.
Nothing of importance has occurred in France since our last advices.
Paris dates are to the 26th March.
In the French chamber of Peers, the discussion was continued on the project respecting individual liberty. Three Peers were heard against the project, and six, including the Minister of the Interior, and Marshal, the Prince of Eckmuhl, (Da-voust) in favour of it. The Chamber divided on a motion for closing the debate, which was negatived, 79 to 77. In the Chamber of Deputies the discussion of the project respecting the Journals, was at length closed, with the exception only of the summing up the Reporter of the Committee, which was deferred till Saturday. It is said that M. de Serres, the keeper of the Seals, will return to Paris in the course of the month of April.

Bronchotomy.—We feel it our duty to advise the public of a Surgical operation performed a few days since by Dr Cogswell of this city. The patient, a most interesting little girl about 8 years old, is the daughter of Mr. White of New-York, and grand daughter of Judge Trumbull.

The accident [which called for the operation was the lodgment of a Tamarind stone in the trachea, or wind pipe—It is called in technical language bronchotomy, and consists in cutting into the front part of the neck down to the wind pipe, which is then opened for the purpose of extracting the offending body. This operation was borne with most astonishing fortitude by the little patient.—So soon as the wind pipe was cut open, the stone was projected about two feet by the force of the air expired by the lungs and thus the patient was preserved from certain death.
