ADDISON BIDOUT, Admr. April 20. 4

By the Corporation of Annapolis, April 17 1820.

Ordered, That the Corporation of the City of Annapolis meet on the second Monday of May next, for the purpose of hearing appeals, and registering transfers of property, and that they will continue in session from day to day for the term of three days. By order, JOHN BREWER, Clk. April 20.

The American Farmer.

The first number of the American Farmer was issued on the 24 of April 1819. It may now be considered as an established National Work, adapted to all the varieties of our climate, since many of the most eminent citizens in all the states contribute, by their patronage and their writings, to its circulation and its usefulness.

To make known all discoveries in the science, and all improvements in the practice of Agriculture and Domestic Economy—and to develop the means of Internal Improvements generally, constitute the chief objects to which the American Farmer is devoted. It takes no concern or interest in any party politics, nor in the transient occurrences of the day.

The Farmer is published weekly, on a sheet the size of large newspaper, and folded so as to make eight pages—and to admit of being conveniently bound up and preserved in volumes.—Each volume will consist of 52 numbers, a title page and an index; and numerous Engravings to represent new implements, and approved systems of husbandry.

Each number gives a true and accurate statement of the then selling prices of country produce, live stock, and all the principal articles brought for sale in the Baltimore Market.

Terms of subscription $4 per vol but for the sum of Five Dollars, to be paid always in advance, the actual receipt of every number is guaranteed.

As the Editor takes the risk and cost of the mail—should subscription money miscarry, he holds himself, nevertheless, bound to furnish the paper.

All gentlemen who feel an interest in the circulation of a Journal devoted to these objects, and conducted on this plan are requested to transmit the name of subscribers—but $5 in all cases the money must be remitted before the paper can be sent. It will, however be returned, in any case, where the subscriber, on a view of the paper, not being satisfied, may think proper to return it to the Editor within 5 weeks.

An allowance of ten per cent. will be made, when claimed, on all monies received for, and remitted to the Editor.

A few of the first volume, either in sheets or well bound, with a copious Index, remain on hand for sale.

Notes of the banks of North & South Carolina, Georgia and Virginia, generally, will be received at par. From subscribers residing in the states of Ohio and Kentucky, notes of the bank of Chillicothe, will be received at par, and from such subscribers the notes of all other banks, which can be disposed of here at a discount of not more than ten per cent.

Modern Characters

Just published and for Sale at Geo. Shaw's Store. Dec. 23.

200 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, on the 20th ult. without the least cause, a negro, named CHARLES, 18 or 19 years of age, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, a tolerable stout limbed fellow, and well made, but not active. He is a dark mulatto, with thick lips, rather flat nose, and round face, and when spoken to indicates cunning from his artful and insinuating manner. Charles had on when he absconded a grey close bodied coat with several holes in the sleeves, kersey pantaloons, coarse stockings, and an old fur hat much worn.—Charles will probably endeavour to get to the Eastern Shore of Maryland, where I purchased him, or to Charles county, where he has recently been. I will give, if he is taken out of the state of Maryland, $200, if taken in Baltimore $100 if in the city of Washington or Annapolis $50, and if in Prince George's $20, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Charles has been accustomed to wait on me as a body servant, and is very artful. BENJAMIN YOUNG, Prince George's co. Md. Feb. 22—11

PROPOSALS,

For publishing, in the City of Annapolis, A Periodical Work, to be entitled, THE RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY REPOSITORY. To be edited by a society of Laymen members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The leading views of the Editors are stated in the following note, by one of the persons, who will be actively employed in the selection of the matter for publication.

The Religious Magazine which have been heretofore published by members of the church, have done them, very useful as far as they go. My objection to them is, that they do not attempt to give us information, of which the laity, and indeed clergy, stand in much need, and which is with great difficulty to be obtained. In this country the laity have a considerable participation in the affairs of the church, and ought to possess an intimate knowledge of its history, constitution and laws. As church wardens, and trustees or vestrymen, as well as delegates to the convention, they have important and very solemn duties to perform, and with a knowledge of these duties, it ought to be the business of these magazines to furnish them. The subjects usually discussed in them have already been explained and enforced by gross and learned discourses, with more facility than could be expected from more modern writers, and a knowledge of what we are to believe and do in order to be saved, may be communicated to our readers as well by selections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From the writings of approved divines, not all ways to be met with, even in possession of the clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on christian doctrine and duty. The magazine will aim to be useful, and desires no other reputation.

I am induced to hope that, besides furnishing the laity with useful information in regard to the duties which are imposed upon them, some hints, worthy of their attention, may occasionally be given to the clergy. While they act up to their ordination vows, endeavor to make and teach them as they are, and to the doctrine of Christ, to make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they deserve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to support and sustain them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements, and instead of loving to dwell together in unity, a design should be manifested to introduce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity, to animadvert upon such conduct with an sparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescribed, and of the doctrines avowed by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even to comment, at any one's invitation, whether in tenets, or discipline or worship.

TERMS. The Repository shall be published twice a month, each number to contain sixteen pages royal 8vo.—Price two dollars per annum, one half payable in advance, and the other half upon the delivery of the 12th number.

The first number shall appear on the third Saturday in January next, should a sufficient number of subscribers be obtained to justify the expense.

Subscriptions received at the office of the Maryland Gazette and at George Shaw's Store.

Constitution of the Cortes.

The leading features of the Constitution of the state are as follows.—The power is in the hands of the people, who alone have authority to enact fundamental laws. Every citizen of the state is bound to support the public burthens, and to discharge his duty. The legislative power is exercised by a Cortes, renewed every two years, the members of which are public persons of its members are eligible to law, but only for one term. If it is agreed on for the time by the Cortes, he may grant his consent to it at the request of the Cortes. A number of the members assembled, to call it together in cases of necessity. The power is in the hands of the Cortes, who are inviolable; they cannot be without the concurrence of the Cortes, either to leave the Cortes, marry, abdicate, or any reasons, to make any alliance, or enter into any negotiation. He can grant no privileges to no one, and cannot arbitrarily to punish any man. The ministers are responsible. Besides the ministers a council of state. The power is entirely independent of the crown. The constitution was completed by the general extraordinary Cortes, March 1812. King Ferdinand return to Spain from his captivity in 1814. He was invited to return to Madrid to accept the crown and assume the reins of government. He made no answer to the invitation for some time, but his residence in Valencia, among the nobles and prelates gathered round him, and where many members of the Cortes, dispersed among themselves, also joined. On the 4th of May he issued a proclamation, in which he declared the Cortes an illegal body, and pronounced the constitution of the Cortes to be null and void, and declared that those who opposed this decree should be guilty of high treason and be punished with death. The Cortes resolved to submit to this declaration, the principal members were arrested and imprisoned, and many banished. From that date the Cortes has governed without regard to the Cortes or the constitution, or two unsuccessful efforts have been made to revive the constitution, but they have been speedily crushed, and cruelly punished. Story of a Ghost and Conjugal Fidelity.

Samuel Fisher, the inventor of the Golden Snuff, was acquainted with a widow lady of excellent character, who resided in Cork. The lady was inconsolable for the loss of her husband; the day was spent by her in sighs and incessant lamentations, and her pillow at night was drenched with the tears of her sorrow. Her husband, her dear husband, was the continual theme of her discourse, and she seemed to have no other object than to re-echo his praises, and deplore her loss. One morning, her friend found her in a state of mental agitation, bordering on distraction. Her departed lover, she said, appeared to her in the night, and most pre-emptorily ordered her

My Dear Brother,

I this day have the pleasure in my life since I was born in your county, that is, your letter, dated the 13th of 1817. I have now lived four 50 years, and have four children, and have occasion which brought me to this place. I enjoy good health, and have received from one of the Otaheite they quarrelled with us had a day's sickness. It is the intention of the Society of London, person here to instruct Christian Religion; I have done every thing in my power in instructing my path to Heaven, and we live comfortably and not a single quarrelled these eighteen years reach you in time, for the gentlemen committee is intended, by the Society, should it be in your power to send me any useful work will be received with and kindness. Informary Society I have received of books by the last in- cules, Capt. James I. Wishing you every happiness this world can remain, my dear brother, JOHN PITCAIRN, SOU Jan. 18, 1819."
