Charleston, July 6. FROM ST. AUGUSTINE.

We learn by the sloops Lady Washington, and General Washington, from St. Augustine, that the Patriot brig which took Mr. Coppin. ger out of the schooner Mary, of this port, as mentioned some short time since, is called the General Ramez; she was a Spanish Guinea man, from Africa, taken by a small Patriot privateer, which was soon after wrecked, and the crew and commission transferred to the brig. She is commanded by a Baltimorean, has but about twenty men on board, and those in a mutinous state, with upwards of 250 slaves. She appeared off St. Augustine about 12 or 14 days since, the commander sent a letter on shore addressed to Gover-, nor Coppinger, stating that his vessel was short of water and provisions, and that if a supply was sent off to them, the Governor's Son would be immediately released .--The message returned by the Governor was, that as much as he loved his child, he would not supply them with a mouthful of provisions, or a drop of water to save him from the yard arm; and pointedly forbid any Spaniard from holding the least intercourse with them. But two or three young gentlemen of this city, friends to young Coppinger, who happened to be in St. Augustine at the time, requested permission of the Governor, to board the brig and endeavour to effect the release of his son. He told them, that being American citizens, they could act as they thought proper, but that no boat from the garrison could be furnished them. They then repaired on board an American vessel in the harbour, obtained the loan of her boat and the assistance of a few seamen, with which they repaired on board the brig-they were received with civility by the Captain; after some consultation, he released Mr. Coppinger, and allowed him to go on shore in the boat. The brig remained off the harbour for several days, and then bore away, as was reported, for St. John's River, East The Commander, we understand, was very anxious to dispose of his slaves, and offered them at $100 each, on board. 183- By the Savannah Republican of the 3d inst. it appears that the above brig was on Friday last carried into Cumberland Sound, a prize, as was supposed, to the revenue schr.
