THE AMERICAN FARMER.

The first number of the AMERICAN FARMER was issued on the 24 of April, 1819. It may now be announced as an established National Work, adapted to all the varieties of our climate, since many of the most eminent citizens in all the states, contribute by their patronage and their pens, to its circulation and its usefulness. To mention the known and the unknown, and all improvements in the practice of Agriculture and Domestic Economy, and to develop the means and designate plans of Internal Improvements generally, constitute the chief objects to which the AMERICAN FARMER is devoted. It takes no concern in party politics, nor in the transient occurrences of the day. The Farmer is published weekly on a sheet the size of a large newspaper, and is folded so as to make eight pages, and to admit of being conveniently bound up and preserved in volumes. Each volume will consist of fifty-two numbers, a title page and an index, and numerous engravings to represent new implements and approved systems of husbandry. Each number gives a true and accurate statement of the then selling prices of country produce, live stock, and all the principal articles brought for sale in the Baltimore market. Terms of subscription $4 per annum, to be paid in advance. But for the sum of five dollars, the actual receipt of every number is guaranteed. That is, when numbers fail to come to hand, duplicates shall be sent until every number shall have been received. As the editor takes the risk and cost of the mail, should subscription money miscarry, he holds himself, nevertheless, bound to furnish the paper. To those who may think the price of subscription too high, it may be remarked, that on a comparison of their actual contents, one volume of the American Farmer, will be found to contain as much as four vols. of the "Memoirs of the Agricultural Society of Philadelphia;" and the four volumes of that patriotic and exceedingly valuable work sell for $12. To show that the American Farmer is conducted in a manner to answer the great national purposes for which it was established, and that it is not undeserving the encouragement of the agriculturists of the United States, the following testimonials are respectfully submitted; others equally conclusive might be offered.

Extract of a letter from Governor LLOYD, who is acknowledged to be one of the most wealthy farmers in the United States. "The Farmer so far, is the best Agricultural compilation, in my humble opinion, that I have ever seen, and deserves the patronage of the public."

From the President of the Agricultural Society, Eastern Shore of Maryland. "I am anxious to preserve the whole of the work, and wish it was in the hands of every farmer in the United States. It is by the diffusion of knowledge only, that we can expect our country to improve in Agriculture, which thy paper is admirably calculated to impart, to all who will take the pains to be improved by reading." Respectfully thy friend, ROB MOORE.

From an address delivered by THOMAS LAW, Esq. President of the Agricultural Society of Prince George's county. "Before I conclude, let me recommend to you the American Farmer, a paper which collects into a focus all the rays of light on husbandry, which are emanated from every quarter of the globe. I have requested Mr. Skinner to give an annual index, which will make it equal to a Library for a farmer."

From Doctor Calvin Jones, of Raleigh, North-Carolina, a gentleman of high repute for his devotion to the interest of Agriculture, and for his attainments in other sciences. "For the Raleigh Register. Mr. GALEB—I request of you the favour to inform those respectable friends who have interested themselves in the success of the 'Farmer's Magazine,' that the patronage proffered is not such as will justify its publication. The best service I now can render them is, to recommend to their notice the 'American Farmer,' an agricultural paper, published weekly by John S. Skinner of Baltimore. An acquaintance with this work will prevent any regret being experienced at the non appearance of mine. CALVIN JONES.

The following notice was addressed at their own expense, through the public papers of that state, by the board of managers of the Agricultural Society. "To the Planters of South-Carolina. The 'American Farmer,' which is as appears from its title, devoted principally to subjects relating to agriculture, contains a great variety of matter, the result of actual and well digested experiments, embracing the whole range of domestic and rural economy, such as cannot fail, if duly observed, to be highly beneficial to your interests. The great object of this society is, to promote agriculture, and thereby to advance the prosperity not themselves individually, but of their fellow citizens generally. They believe they cannot do more effectually, in this early stage of their organization, promote their object, than by recommending this paper to your perusal. They therefore take the liberty to recommend the American Farmer as highly worthy of your attention. By order of the Board of Managers, J. J. CHAPPELL, Vice President presiding.

Extract from the proceedings of the Agricultural Society of Albemarle, Virginia, at their last meeting, May 8, 1820. "In order more generally to disseminate the Agricultural intelligence, and improve the minds of the people of the United States, the Society resolve to present each of its members with the first volume of the American Farmer, edited at Baltimore, by John S. Skinner, Esq. "P. MINOR, Sec'y."

All gentlemen who feel an interest in the circulation of a journal devoted to these objects and conducted on this plan, here described, are requested to transmit the name of subscribers—but in all cases the money must be remitted before the paper can be sent. It will however, be returned in any case, where the subscriber, on a view of the paper, not being satisfied, may think proper to return it to the editor within three weeks.

An allowance of ten per cent will be made when claimed, on all notices received for, and remitted to the editor. A few of the first volumes, either in sheets or well bound, with a copious index, remain on hand for sale. Notes of the Banks of North and South Carolina, Georgia and Virginia, generally, will be received at par. All communications to be addressed to John S. Skinner, Baltimore. June 28, 1820.

P. S. For all editors in the United States who may have the goodness to give the preceding notice a few weekly insertions, the editor of the Farmer will be glad to transact any business they may have in Baltimore, or to return their good offices in any other way in his power. July 20.
