and also adjoining it a body of Woodlands, known by the name of Salmon Hills, containing together upwards of 500 acres. These lands have nearly all been enclosed by a good fence; and much improved by plaster and clover, which operate with very great effect The soil is generally of a red loam, and is susceptible of great fertility by clover cultivation-best of tobacco is made in the neighbourhood, especially on lands of this quality. There have been many improvements added to the houses and many other conveniences erected, since it has been in the hands of the present possessors.

A credit of onestwo and three years, will be given to the purchasers, on paying one fourth of the purchase money down, and annual interest on the unpaid portions.

Also for sale the Land formerly held by Henry H. Brown, called "Prospect Plains," containing about 270 acres, on which Mr. Welch now resides, under certain covenants. This land is very advantageously situated on the banks of the Severn, with a most convenient landing on Plum Creek, is adapted to Plaster, and yields Tobacco of superior quality. This tract will be sold on the same terms of payment as the preceding ones-and if the whole he not sold by private contract before the first Monday in October next, they will on that a sy, at 10 o'clock, be sold by pullie Vendue at the Rising Sun stand -Apply fo. particulars to Mr. James Polland, on the premises, to Mr. Joseph Sands in Ann Polis, or to the Subscribers in Baltimo re.

To those who may hink the price of sub.

To those who may hink the price of subscription too high, it may be remarked, that on a comparison of their actual contents, one volume of the American Farmer, will be found to contain as much as four vols, of the "Memoirs of the Agricultural Society of Philadelphia;" and the four volumes of that patriotic and exceedingly valuable work sell to $12.

To show that the American Farmer is conducted in a manner to answer the great conducted in a manner to answer the great national purposes for which it was esta-blished, and that it is not undeserving the encoura cement of the agriculturists of the United States, the following testimonials are respectfully submitted, o hers equally conclusive might be offered.

Estract of a letter from Governor LLOYD, who is acknowledged to be one of the most wealthy, well informed and best must weathry, well informed and best managing farmers in the United States. "The Farmer so far, is the best Agricultural compilation, in my foundle opinion, and I have green the state of mat I have ever seen, and deserves the pa nonage of the public."

From the President of the Agricultural Society, Eastern Shore of Maryand, "I am anxious to preserve the whole of the work, and wish it was in the hands of every farmer in the United States. It is by the diffusion of knowledge only, that w can expect our country to improve in Agr. culture, which thy paper is admi. ably cal. culated to impart, to all who will take the pains to be improved by reading." Repains to be improved spectfully thy friend, ROB MOORE.

From an address delivered by Thomas Law, Esq. President of the Agricultural Society of Prince George's county Before I conclude, let me recommend to you the American Farmer, a paper which collects into a focus all the rays of which collects into a locus all the rays of light on husbandry, which are emanated from every quarter of the globe. I have requested Mr. Skinner to g ve an annual in dex, which will make it equal to a Library for a farmer.

From Doctor Calvin Jones, of Raleigh North-Carolina, a gentleman of high re-pute for his devotion to the interest of other sciences

Agriculture, and for his attainments in For the Raleigh Register.

MR. GALES—I request of you the favour to inform those respectable friends who have interested themselves in the success of the "Farmer's Magazine," that the patron the "Farmer's Magazine, that the path was age proffered is not such as will justify its publication. The best service I now can render them is, to recommend to their notice the "American Farmer," an agricultural paper, published weekly by John S. Skinner of Baltimore. An acquaintance with this work will prevent any regret being with this work will prevent any regret being experienced at the non appearance of min CALVIN JONES.

The following notice was addressed at their own expense, through the public papers of that state, by the board of managers of the Agricultural Society

To the Planters of South-Carolina.

The "American Farmer," which is as appears from its title, devoted principally to subjects relating to agriculture, contains a great variety of matter, the result of actual and well digested experiments, embracing the whole range of domestic and rural economy, such as cannot fail, if duly observed, to be highly beneficial to your interests. The great object of this society is, to promote agriculture, and thereby advance the prosperity not themselves individually, but of their fellow-citizens generally. They believe they cannot cannot more effectually, in this early stage of their organization, promote their object, than by recommending this paper to your perusal. They therefore take the liberty to recommend the American Farmer as highly worthy of your attention. By order of the Board of Managers,

J. CHAPPELL,

Vice President presiding. To the Planters of South-Carolina. Vice President presiding.

Extract from the proceedings of the Agricultural Society of Albemarle, Virginia, at their last meeting, May 8, 1820.

In order more generally to disseminate the Agricultural intelligence and improvements made throughout the United States, the Society resolve to present each of its members with the first volume of the American Farmer, edited at Baltimore, by John S. Farmer, edited at Baltimore, by John S. Skinner, Esq. ' "P. MINOR, Sec'y."

All gentlemen who feel an interest in the All gentlemen who feel an interest in the circulation of a journal devoted to these objects and conducted on this plan, here described, are requested to transmit the name of subscribers—but in all cases the money must be remitted bifore the paper can be sent. It will however, be returned in any case, where the subscriber, on a view of the paper, not being satisfied, may think proper, to return it in the conduct within three weeks.

An allowance of ten per cent will be made when claimed, on all monies received for, and remitted to the editor

A few of the first volume, either in sheets well bound, with a copious Index, remain on hand for sale.
