

Very cheap Goods... S. J. WATKINS... TOOK OF GOODS... RISING SUN BRAND... Formerly, a large...

...DING-HOUSE... BROWN having leased a commodious Building... Mr. James Williamson...

...and Elegant Steam Boat... Maryland... VICKERS, COM-MANDER...

...BODKIN NECK... on the river Patuxent and the Bay... containing upwards of 1100 acres...

...ROBINSON'S... in circulation upwards... price 50 cents...

...LAWYERS... LAWYERS OF MARYLAND... December Session, 1814...

...THE VOTES & PROCEEDINGS... Of the same Session... Price—$1 50...

...Two Overseers Wanted... For the ensuing year, one of the must be well acquainted with growing Tobacco...

...Modern Characters... published and for Sale at... Es. Shaw's Store...

MARYLAND GAZETTE AND POLITICAL INTELLIGENCER. ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1820. No. 401

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY JONAS GREEN, No. 100 SOUTH STREET, ANNAPOLIS. Three Dollars per Annum.

THE GHOST OF THE BILL; Or, GHOST PALACE HUNTED. 'Twas midnight—an awful beginning you'll find...

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Washington, to Mrs. Coker, wife of the Revd. Daniel Coker...

FROM ST. DOMINGO. Capt. Mason, of the ship Weymouth, in 24 days from Port au Prince, has furnished some particulars of the disasters...

It is stated that a body of Christian Jews have lately been discovered in Persia, in the province of Hadeshegan, in Mesopotamia...

Loss of the ship William, capt Sutherland, bound from Liverpool to New Orleans, August 11, at 4 A.M. made sail in Dun-

Philadelphia, Nov. 3. The board from Liverpool to New Orleans, August 11, at 4 A.M. made sail in Dun-

Though covered with perjury, sarnish'd with pride, But as hollow as any of you! It spoke, and it vanish'd—Before it was day...

*Vide Majorci's re cross examination. †Quoted from Hone's Non mi ricordo. ‡This event took place before his Italian expedition...

As a native of New York, I cannot regard with indifference, any publication on which concerns the character and fate of the inhabitants of this city...

Not long since, in looking over a printed letter written by a foreigner, resident in this city, to his friend in England...

Gen. Gino, whose name ought to stand high on the roll of literary patrons, gave between two and three thousand pounds sterling to a university in that state...

At present we would request our friends not to be discouraged. The board lament the unfortunate issue of their first efforts...

"A Friend to Literature," in your paper of Saturday last, in his comments upon a "Letter from a Foreigner in New York," professed a zealous regard for the interests of American literary institutions...

man's letter, as containing a statement of numerous individual donations for literary objects, of which your correspondent seemed to have had no previous knowledge...

Washington, Oct. 27, 1820. The board of managers of the American Colonization Society have to discharge a painful duty in laying before the Auxiliary Societies and the public, the distressing intelligence received from the coast of Africa...

Extract of a letter from a respectable gentleman in London, dated Aug. 28, 1820. You will probably have heard, before the receipt of the present, of the fatal calamity which has been permitted to befall...

Mr. Townsend, who was an officer of the ship of war, and commanded the schooner, died on the 16th. Mr. Bankson recovered at that time, but was afterwards carried off. Mr. Doughen was taken ill about the 16th, and Mr. Bacon the 17th...

At present we would request our friends not to be discouraged. The board lament the unfortunate issue of their first efforts...

At present we would request our friends not to be discouraged. The board lament the unfortunate issue of their first efforts...

At present we would request our friends not to be discouraged. The board lament the unfortunate issue of their first efforts...

comforts of those who are now again ready to adventure in the service, and could we but see that the climate of the coast of Africa was such as to forbid all hopes of settlement, we should be ready to abandon our purpose...

We think it proper also, to remark, that from the unreserved attention of the Elizabeth, her arrival upon the coast was unnecessary. The rains were at hand, and no adequate provision, we think it probable, was made for the shelter and comfort of the people...

All this is the work of time and our people appear, in this instance, to have met with unexpected delays. It must be obvious to the least reflection, what labours, what privations, and what exposure to all the worst influences of the climate, in the most unfavourable situation, the first adventurers must encounter...

Whatever funds may now be in their hands, and such as may be collected in the course of a few weeks, they will please to forward, without delay, to Mr. Richard Smith, Treasurer of the Society.

By order of the Board, E. B. CALDWELL, Secretary.

Disastrous Shipwreck. Newport, Nov. 4. The schr Augustus sailed from Boston on the 23d Oct bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo consisting of 13 tons quicksilver, wine, &c. valued at 20,000 dollars...

The schr Augustus sailed from Boston on the 23d Oct bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo consisting of 13 tons quicksilver, wine, &c. valued at 20,000 dollars...

Disastrous Shipwreck. Newport, Nov. 4. The schr Augustus sailed from Boston on the 23d Oct bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo consisting of 13 tons quicksilver, wine, &c. valued at 20,000 dollars...

The schr Augustus sailed from Boston on the 23d Oct bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo consisting of 13 tons quicksilver, wine, &c. valued at 20,000 dollars...

The schr Augustus sailed from Boston on the 23d Oct bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo consisting of 13 tons quicksilver, wine, &c. valued at 20,000 dollars...

The schr Augustus sailed from Boston on the 23d Oct bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo consisting of 13 tons quicksilver, wine, &c. valued at 20,000 dollars...

The schr Augustus sailed from Boston on the 23d Oct bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo consisting of 13 tons quicksilver, wine, &c. valued at 20,000 dollars...

The schr Augustus sailed from Boston on the 23d Oct bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo consisting of 13 tons quicksilver, wine, &c. valued at 20,000 dollars...

The schr Augustus sailed from Boston on the 23d Oct bound to Philadelphia, with a cargo consisting of 13 tons quicksilver, wine, &c. valued at 20,000 dollars...