 Will be exposed at public sale on Friday the 22-day of December, at the late residence of John Stockell, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, two horses, two cows, and a bull, together with plantation utensils, consisting of, ploughs & gearing, but more ten dollars six months credit with approved security, with interest from the day of sale, and all sums amounting to two dollars, and under to be cash.
 J. N. Stockell, Adm'r. of John Stockell, deceased.

RISING SUN TAVERN.
 Formerly kept by Edward B. Williams, and also adjoining the City of Annapolis, known by the name of the Hills, containing complete and commodious 500 acres. These lands have been all been enclosed by a good fence, and much improved by a good lease, which operate with very great advantage. The soil is generally of a red loam, is susceptible of great fertility, by the cultivation—heat of labour is in the neighbourhood, especially of this quality. There have been many improvements added to the land, many other conveniences erected, it has been in the hands of the present possessors.
 A credit of one, two and three years will be given to the purchasers, for one fourth of the purchase money down, and annual interest on the paid portions.
 Also for sale the Land formerly by Henry H. Brown, called "Free Plains," containing about 270 acres which Mr. Welch now resides, under certain covenants. This land is advantageously situated on the bank of the Severn, with a most convenient landing on Plum Creek, is adapted to Plaster, and yields Tobacco of superior quality. This tract will be sold on some terms of payment as the purchaser may desire—and if the whole be not by private contract before the 1st Monday in October next, they will that day, at 10 o'clock, be sold by public vendue at the Rising Sun Tavern. Apply for particulars to Mr. J. Pollard on the premises, to Mr. J. Sands in Annapolis, or to the Solicitors in Baltimore.

BODKIN NECK.
 on the river Patuxent and the containing upwards of 1100 acres. This land is held by the late under-tenant covenants, yielding $700 a year. A part of it has commodious dwellings on it, and is in a high state of improvement—the supply of manure by dissections from the Bay, is beyond wants of the land. There is an abundance of deer and wild turkey on land, and a great portion of it is in a state of second and original growth, vicinity to Baltimore; its fisheries, other circumstances independent of value as a farm, give it great advantage.
 I will also sell all the lands that known by the name of "The Common and Howard's Fancy," lately held by Major T. Dorsey and Mr. Yeilding adjoining the Blackhorse tavern, a miles from Annapolis. They contain together, about 600 acres, and constitute one of the first positions for a farm of any location in that section of country.
