 Dec. 22. the ENDING OF THE PILGRIMS. mig celebration by the New England im Society.—The second Centennial the anniversary of the Landing of the tho grims, was yesterday celebrated w proper demonstrations of re- The et and reverence to the memory it i our ancestors. At half past 3 pres ock, the Society assembled at wer Rev. Dr. Spring's Church.— The line service was begun by sing- Spr the 107th Psalm, to the tune follo Old Hundred, than which it is ver eved, that no portion of the by t ms of David could be more ap- go priate to the occasion. A pray- beg was then addressed to the Throne mer Grace, by the Rev. Dr. Homeyn, of C after having mentioned, that dere or forefathers had been obliged wa see from their native country, in Hur sequence of their being perse- d i
