LANDS FOR SALE
OF GOOD QUALITY
 In the neighbourhood of Annapolis, consisting of the

RISING SUN FARM
 Formerly a Tavern, the land formerly held by Edward and also adjoining it a body of lands, known by the name of Mills, containing together 500 acres. These lands have all been enclosed by a good fence, much improved by plaster and

 The soil is generally of a red loam, is susceptible of great fertility by cultivation—best of tobacco is of the neighbourhood, especially on of this quality. There have been improvements added to the house many other conveniences erected, it has been in the hands of the possessors.

A credit of one, two and three will be given to the purchaser, or ing one fourth of the purchase down, and annual interest on the paid portions.

Also for sale the Land formerly by Henry H. Brown, called "The Plains," containing about 270 acres, which Mr. Welch, of the same advantageously situated on the of the Severn, with a most com-landing on Plum Creek, is adapted Plaster, and yields Tobacco of quality. This tract will be sold on same terms of payment as the preceding ones—and if the whole be by private contract before the 1st Monday in October next, they will that day, at 10 o'clock, be sold by lic Vendue at the Rising Sun Farm.

 Apply for particulars to Mr. J. B.
 Pollard on the premises, to Mr. J.

 This land is held by tenants under certain covenants yielding $700 a A part of it has commodious dwell-on it, and is in a high state of improvement—The supply of manure by sections from the Bay, is beyond wants of the land. There is an abundance of deer and wild turkey land, and a great portion of it is of second and original growth vicinity to Baltimore; its fertility, other circumstances independent of value as a farm, give it great advantages.

I will also sell all the lands that known by the name of "The Con-and Howard's Fancy," lately held Major T. Dorsey and Mr. Yeckel, adjoining the Blackhorse Tavern, miles from Annapolis. They con-together, about 600 acres, and tute one of the first positions for of any location in that section of country.

The quality of the soil is red similar to the best lands on West Plaster and clover will in one year produce great fertility, and what raised on it, yielding a great crop may be seen by the crops which

FROM MR. CONNER'S JOURNAL.
Celebration of the Passover at Jerusalem, by the Latins and Greeks.
 The Latin and Greek Easterers are now concluded. Their ceremonies have been very numerous. I shall transcribe from my Journal what I have written on four of them.
 Here I must pause to give, in a few words, some idea of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. It is a large building. In the middle, under the great cupola, stands an edifice of considerable size containing the Tomb, over which are suspended 44 lamps, always burning. Of these 21 belong to the Greeks, 13 to the Catholics, 6 to the Armenians, and 4 to the Copts. Between the Sepulchre and the sides of the Church is a large space open and free to all; the Chapels of the different Communities being in the sides of the Church. Mount Calvary is within its walls—You ascend it by a flight of steps, and on its top are two small Chapels belonging to the Greeks.
 On Palm Sunday (March 26th) I went to see the ceremony of the Latins. After a considerable time had been spent in singing before the door of the Sepulchre, the Deputy Superior of the Latin Convent entered the Sepulchre, with some Priests, to bless the Palm Branches that lay there. When this was done, he left the Sepulchre, and sitting on an elevated chair, received the palms which had been blessed, from the hands of the Priests.— These came forward first, and knelt, one after the other, before the Deputy Superior, receiving from his hand (which they kissed) a branch of the consecrated palm. When this part of the ceremony was concluded, the crowd pressed forward to receive their palms. The confusion and tumult were excessive.
 The Turks, (who are employed by the Convent to keep order, guard and clear the way for the processions) with their sticks and whips, did all they could to restrain the impetuosity of the people; and had it not been for their great activity, the Deputy Superior would certainly have been overwhelmed by the crowd. When the palms had been distributed, & the confusion had in some measure abated, the priests & some others walked 3 times in procession round the Sepulchre, with lighted candles, incense, elevated crucifixes, and palms. They sang as they walked. When the procession was ended, an altar, splendidly ornamented, was placed before the door of the Sepulchre, and Mass was performed.

 On Good Friday, there was a grand procession and ceremony of the Latins in the evening. It commenced with an Italian sermon, in the Catholic chapel, on the flagellation of Christ. From this place they proceeded to the Chapels where, they say, Christ's garments were taken from him; here was another sermon in Italian. They then ascended Mount Calvary, and passed first into the Chapel which marks the spot where Christ was nailed to the Cross: the large crucifix and image which they carried in the procession was here laid on the ground, and a Spanish sermon was pronounced over it. When this was finished, the crucifix was raised, and moved into the adjoining Chapel of the elevation of the Cross: here it was fixed upright behind the altar; a Monk, standing by, preached for twenty minutes, on the crucifixion.
 When the sermon was concluded, two Monks approached the Cross, and partially enveloping the body of the image in linen, took off the crown of thorns from the head, kissed it, and laid it on a plate; the nails were then drawn from the hands and the feet, with the same ceremony. The arms of the image were so contrived, that on the removal of the nails they dropped upon the sides of the body. The image was then laid on linen, and borne down from Calvary to the stone of Junction, the spot where they say Christ's body was anointed; here the image was extended, and perfumed with spices, fragrant water, and clouds of incense: the Monks knelt round the stone with large lighted candles in their hands; a Monk ascended an adjoining pulpit, and preached a sermon in Arabic.
 The procession then went forward to the Sepulchre, where the image was deposited, and a sermon preached in Spanish. This concluded the ceremony.

man passed, standing upright on the shoulders of another; and I saw, more than once, four carried along in this manner, a little boy, seated, forming the fourth or topmost; others again were busy in chasing one another, round the tomb, and shouting like madmen. Whenever they saw in the crowd a man whom they thought could pay them, they seized and forcibly carried him in their arms, two or three times round the church. The whole was a lamentable profanation of the place! The same happens every year. The noise and confusion increased, as the moment appointed for the apparition of the fire approached.— About noon, the Governor of Jerusalem entered the gallery. The eagerness and anxiety of the people were now excessive. They all pressed toward the Sepulchre, each person holding a bundle of tapers in his hand. The Chief Agent of the Greek Patriarch and an Armenian Bishop, had entered the Sepulchre shortly before. All eyes were fixed
